RYANAIR UPDATE ON OFFER FOR AER LINGUS

In response to questions at a Ryanair seat sale press conference in Dublin this morning, Michael O'Leary commented:

"While no decision has been made in relation to any change in the terms of our merger Offer, we have no intention of increasing our Offer to a price of €2 or above. We are not stupid people and will not pay stupid prices.

"Our Offer will deliver almost €750 million to Aer Lingus shareholders including almost €190 million for the Irish government as well as 1,000 new jobs in Aer Lingus at a time when thousands of jobs are being lost in Ireland.

"The market valued Aer Lingus shares at less than €1 before our Offer and I believe that if our Offer is not successful by 13 February, 2009, the Aer Lingus share price will return to these pre Offer levels.

"Ryanair advisers are seeking an early meeting with the Minister for Transport's advisers, IBI to emphasise that a decision must be made on Ryanair's Offer within the next three weeks"

This statement of intention is a no increase statement under the Takeover Rules. In accordance with the Takeover Rules, following this statement Ryanair cannot increase its Offer to €2 or above per Aer Lingus Share save with Panel consent.
