Item 4. Description of Securities.

This registration statement covers (i) shares of the Company's Common Stock registered under the Duke 401(k) Plan (the 401(k) Plan), the Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan of Duke-Weeks Realty Corporation (the Directors' Deferred Plan), and the Executives' Deferred Compensation Plan of Duke Realty Services Limited Partnership (the Executives' Deferred Plan, and, together with the 401(k) Plan and the Directors' Deferred Plan, the Plans), (ii) deferred compensation obligations (DCOs) that may be offered under the Directors' Deferred Plan and the Executives' Deferred Plan, and (iii) an indeterminate amount of plan interests to be offered or sold pursuant to the Plans. The following summary of the DCOs is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable plan document, copies of which have been filed as exhibits to this registration statement.

Deferred Compensation Obligations Issued Under the Executives' Deferred Plan. The DCOs issuable under the Executives' Deferred Plan represent obligations of the Company to pay to participants certain compensation amounts that the participants have elected to defer. The Executives' Deferred Plan is intended to allow certain highly compensated employees to defer the payment of current compensation to future years for tax and financial planning purposes. The DCOs are payable in cash and generally will be paid in either a lump-sum or in annual installments over a certain term upon retirement, death or other termination of service, according to the Plan. The participant may also elect to receive some or all of the deferred amounts and related earnings pursuant to an in service distribution.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, each participating employee may elect to defer eligible compensation, and amounts deferred are credited to each participant's account. Amounts in a participant's account will be indexed to one or more investment alternatives chosen by each participant from a range of such alternatives available under the Plan, including a Company stock fund. Each participant's account will be adjusted to reflect the investment performance of the selected investment fund(s), including any appreciation or depreciation.

The obligation to pay the vested balance of each Plan participant's account shall at all times be an unfunded and unsecured obligation of the Company. Benefits are payable solely from the Company's general funds and are subject to the risk of corporate insolvency. The Company may, but is not required to, establish a Rabbi Trust for the purpose of informally funding the Plan. Participants will not have any interest in any particular assets of the Company by reason of any obligation created under the Plan. A participant's right to the DCOs cannot be transferred, assigned, pledged or encumbered except by a written designation of a beneficiary under the terms of the Plan. Any attempt to sell, transfer, assign, pledge or encumber the DCOs will be void.

Deferred Compensation Obligations Issued Under the Directors' Deferred Plan. The DCOs issuable under the Directors' Deferred Plan represent obligations of the Company to pay to participants certain compensation amounts that the participants have elected to defer. The Directors' Deferred Plan is intended to allow directors to defer the payment of his or her cash fees and/or stock fees for service to the Company as a director to future years for tax and financial planning purposes. If cash fees are deferred, the DCOs are payable in cash. If stock fees are deferred, the DCOs are payable in shares of Company Common Stock. Directors may elect to receive their DCOs paid in a single lump-sum, five annual installments, or ten annual installments. The participant may also elect to receive the deferred amounts and related earnings pursuant to an early withdrawal right, according to the terms of the Plan.

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, each participating director may elect to defer cash and/or stock fees. Stock fees deferred are credited to the director's corresponding stock subaccount, and cash fees deferred are credited to the director's stock or interest subaccount, as elected by the director. Each director's interest subaccount will be adjusted as of the first day of each calendar quarter as if such amounts were invested at the then-current prime interest rate. Each director's stock subaccount will be adjusted to reflect cash and/or stock dividends, stock splits or other similar adjustments or distributions made with respect to such deferrals. Any cash fees that a director elects to defer into his or her stock subaccount shall be deemed to be used to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock.

The obligation to pay the vested balance of each Plan participant's account shall at all times be an unfunded and unsecured obligation of the Company. Benefits are payable solely from the Company's general funds and are subject to the risk of corporate insolvency. A participant's right to the DCOs cannot be transferred, assigned, pledged or encumbered except by a written designation of a beneficiary under the terms of the Plan.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel. Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Company is an Indiana corporation. The Company's officers and directors are and will be indemnified under Indiana law, the Third Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company, as amended (the "Articles of Incorporation") and the partnership agreements of Duke-Weeks Realty Limited Partnership (the "Operating Partnership") and Duke Realty Services Limited Partnership (the "Services Partnership") against certain liabilities. Chapter 37 of The Indiana Business Corporation Law (the "IBCL") requires a corporation, unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, to indemnify a director or an officer of the corporation who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal, against reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding. The Company's Articles of Incorporation do not contain any provision prohibiting such indemnification.

The IBCL also permits a corporation to indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent who is made a party to a proceeding because the person was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if (i) the individual's conduct was in good faith, and (ii) the individual reasonably believed (A) in the case of conduct in the individual's official capacity with the corporation that the conduct was in the corporation's best interests and (B) in all other cases that the individual's conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests, and (iii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the individual either (A) had reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was lawful or (B) had no reasonable cause to believe the individual's conduct was unlawful. The IBCL also permits a corporation to pay for or reimburse reasonable expenses incurred before the final disposition of the proceeding and permits a court of competent jurisdiction to order a corporation to indemnify a director or officer if the court determines that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the person met the standards for indemnification otherwise provided in the IBCL.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation provide for certain additional limitations of liability and indemnification. Section 13.01 of the Articles of Incorporation provides that a director shall not be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for voting for or assenting to an unlawful distribution, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Section 13.02 of the Articles of Incorporation generally provides that any director or officer of the Company or any person who is serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent authorized by the IBCL against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, certain employee benefits excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered in connection with a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding to which such person is a party by reason of the person's service with or at the request of the Company. Section 13.02 of the Articles of Incorporation also provides such persons with certain rights to be paid by the Company, the expenses incurred in defending any such proceedings in advance of their final disposition and the right to enforce indemnification claims against the Company by bringing suit against the Company.

The Company's Articles of Incorporation authorize the Company to maintain insurance to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the IBCL.

Each of the partnership agreements for the Operating Partnership and the Services Partnership also provides for indemnification of the Company and its officers and directors to substantially the same extent provided to officers and directors of the Company in its Articles of Incorporation, and limits the liability of the Company and its officers and directors to the Operating Partnership and its partners and to the Services Partnership and its partners, respectively, to substantially the same extent limited under the Company's Articles of Incorporation.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed. Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits. See Exhibit Index, which is incorporated here by reference.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) above do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3, Form S-8, or Form F-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
