Strengthening of Corporate Governance in the United States

TOKYO, June 29, 2005 Mitsubishi Tokyo Financial Group, Inc. (MTFG; President and CEO: Nobuo Kuroyanagi) has decided to strengthen its corporate governance functions in the United States.

Specifically, effective from today, MTFG will appoint a Managing Officer with responsibility for corporate governance in the United States. This Managing Officer will be resident in the United States and with respect to MTFG's U.S. consolidated subsidiaries will exercise consolidated oversight of governance-related matters including risk management, and legal and other compliance. In conjunction with this appointment, MTFG will establish a Corporate Governance Division for the United States to carry out support functions for the Managing Officer.

1. Background

The United States is one of MTFG's most important markets and the environment for financial institutions there is subject to dynamic change. Moreover, for MTFG as a whole, matters such as compliance, internal control and risk management are increasingly important. In response to this changing environment, MTFG has decided to strengthen its corporate governance functions in the United States in order to further enhance the soundness of the Group.

2. Personnel

The Managing Officer to be resident in the United States and the General Manager of the Corporate Governance Division for the United States are:

Managing Officer: Kyota Omori

(Will serve concurrently in his current position as a Managing Director, Chief Executive Officer for the Americas, Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi)

General Manager, Corporate Governance Division for the United States: Koichi Sakamoto

(Will serve concurrently in his current position as General Manager of Planning Office for the Americas, Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi)
