Regarding Today's Reports in Certain Media

Tokyo, August 4, 2005 Today, certain media carried reports stating that the bank subsidiaries of Mitsubishi Tokyo Financial Group, Inc. (MTFG) and UFJ Holdings, Inc. (UFJ), Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi and UFJ Bank, may delay their planned merger.

The MTFG group and the UFJ group are pursuing preparations for their integration (subject to approval by the relevant authorities) in October 2005. As regards the merger of the group banks, it is essential to make a secure and effective transition to minimize inconvenience to the customers of the banks. To achieve a secure and effective transition, a series of transition reviews are taking place as scheduled. A final decision on the group bank merger schedule will be made following confirmation that the schedule will achieve a secure and stable transition.

MTFG and UFJ are currently involved in this transition review process and as of today no decision has been made to alter their previously announced plans. If any such decision is made in the future, the details will be announced in a timely manner.
