What happens to my Alberto-Culver stock holdings after the transaction?

All holders of Alberto-Culver shares will retain their existing Alberto-Culver shares, will receive 0.60 shares of Regis for each Alberto-Culver share owned and will receive, within a few weeks after the closing of the spin/merge transaction, a special $3 cash dividend.

How will I get the new Regis shares?

If you are a shareholder of record (i.e., you hold actual Alberto-Culver stock certificates), you will receive a Regis stock certificate in the mail.

If you hold your Alberto-Culver shares in a brokerage account (e.g., Fidelity, Schwab, Smith Barney), the new Regis shares will be credited to that brokerage account.

How will I receive the $3 special cash dividend?

A special, one-time cash dividend of $3 per share will be paid to all shareholders regardless of whether you hold certificates directly or hold shares in a brokerage account. The record date of the special cash dividend will be approximately 10 days after the closing date of the Sally spin-off and merger with Regis.

If you are a shareholder of record (i.e., you hold actual Alberto-Culver stock certificates), you will receive a dividend check in the mail (or a direct deposit into your bank account if you have already signed up for this feature).

If you hold your Alberto-Culver shares in a brokerage account (e.g., Fidelity, Schwab, Smith Barney), the special dividend will be credited to that brokerage account.

When will I receive the Regis shares and the special $3 cash dividend?

The record date on which you are required to be a holder of Alberto-Culver shares in order to receive the Regis shares is currently anticipated to be the day after the shareholders' meeting to vote on the transaction. This is currently expected to take place in late spring or early summer.

The record date on which you are required to be a holder of Alberto-Culver shares in order to receive the special $3 cash dividend will be approximately 10 days after the closing of the spin-merge transaction.

Hypothetical examples of allocation of value for an Alberto-Culver shareholder:

Set forth below are examples of the value of the transaction with Regis for an Alberto-Culver stockholder based on hypothetical trading prices of Alberto-Culver and Regis stock, the assumed effect of the transaction on the post-transaction trading price of Alberto-Culver stock and the assumed effect of the payment of the special dividend on the post-dividend trading price of Alberto-Culver stock. The examples, including the trading prices of Alberto-Culver and Regis stock, are for illustrative purposes only. The actual price at which Regis stock trades immediately prior to the closing will determine the value of consideration to be received by Alberto-Culver stockholders in the spin/merge transaction. This trading price as well as the post-transaction trading prices of Alberto-Culver and Regis stock and the post-special dividend trading price of Alberto-Culver stock will be influenced by a number of factors, most of which are beyond Alberto-Culver's and Regis's control. While for purposes of the below examples we have assumed that the trading price of Alberto-Culver stock post-transaction would decrease by the value of the shares of Regis stock received in the merger and the trading price of Alberto-Culver stock post-special dividend would decrease by the value of the special dividend, there can be no assurance as to the effect of the transaction and the special dividend on the Alberto-Culver stock trading price. Accordingly, you should not rely upon our assumptions and the examples in evaluating the transaction. This document is not intended to be, and should not be taken as, financial, legal or tax advice. You should consult with your own advisors with respect to such matters.

Assumptions: Shareholder owns 1,000 shares of Alberto-Culver. On the last day that Alberto-Culver trades before the transaction closes:

Case A - Alberto-Culver shares close trading at $40 and Regis shares close trading at $36. Total value of 1,000 Alberto-Culver shares is $40,000 (1,000 shares x $40).

Case B - Alberto-Culver shares close trading at $45 and Regis shares close trading at $40. Total value of 1,000 Alberto-Culver shares is $45,000 (1,000 shares x $45).

Case C - Alberto-Culver shares close trading at $50 and Regis shares close trading at $46. Total value of 1,000 Alberto-Culver shares is $50,000 (1,000 shares x $50).

[Note these examples assume no change in the Alberto-Culver share price between the last day that Alberto-Culver stock trades before the closing of the spin-merger and the payment of the special cash dividend other than as set forth in the examples]

Shareholder receives 600 shares of Regis. Assume that the per share value of Alberto-Culver shares would drop by the value of the 0.60 Regis share received:

Case A ACV share decreases by $21.60 (0.60 x $36) to $18.40

Case B ACV share decreases by $24.00 (0.60 x $40) to $21.00

Case C ACV share decreases by $27.60 (0.60 x $46) to $22.40

At this point, based on the above assumptions, the shareholder owns Alberto-Culver and Regis shares with the same aggregate value as the Alberto-Culver shares held by the shareholder prior to the transaction:

	Case A	Case B	Case C
	Total Value = $40,000	Total Value = $45,000	Total Value = $50,000
Value of 600 Regis shares	$ 21,600 (600 x $36)	$ 24,000 (600 x $40)	$ 27,600 (600 x $46)
Value of 1,000 Alberto-Culver shares	$ 18,400 (1,000 x $18.40)	$ 21,000 (1,000 x $21)	$ 22,400 (1,000 x $22.40)
Aggregate Value	$ 40,000	$ 45,000	$ 50,000

After the closing (record date will be approximately 10 days after the closing of the spin-merger transaction) and assuming the shareholder continues to hold the Alberto-Culver shares as of the record date for the special dividend, the shareholder will receive the special, one-time cash dividend of $3 per share or a total of $3,000 (1,000 shares x $3). Assume that, at that time, the per share value of Alberto-Culver shares would drop by the $3 cash dividend as follows:

Case A ACV share decreases by $3 from $18.40 to $15.40

Case B ACV share decreases by $3 from $21.00 to $18.00

Case C ACV share decreases by $3 from $22.40 to $19.40

Edgar Filing: ALBERTO CULVER CO - Form 425

As a final result, based on the above assumptions, the shareholder owns Alberto-Culver shares and Regis shares, along with the cash dividend, with the same aggregate value as the Alberto-Culver shares held by the shareholder prior to the transaction:

	Case A	Case B	Case C
	Total Value = $40,000	Total Value = $45,000	Total Value = $50,000
Value of 600 Regis shares	$ 21,600 (600 x $36)	$ 24,000 (600 x $40)	$ 27,600 (600 x $46)
Value of 1,000 Alberto-Culver shares	$ 15,400 (1,000 x $15.40)	$ 18,000 (1,000 x $18)	$ 19,400 (1,000 x $19.40)
Cash from $3 special dividend	$ 3,000	$ 3,000	$ 3,000
Aggregate Value	$ 40,000	$ 45,000	$ 50,000
