Dear Fellow Stockholder:

You are cordially invited to attend the Special Meeting of Stockholders (the special meeting) of Embarcadero Technologies, Inc. (Embarcadero, Company, we, us, or our), which will be held on Friday, June 22, 2007, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Company's principal executive offices located at 100 California Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111. The Company's telephone number is (415) 834-3131.

At this meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt an agreement and plan of merger, dated as of April 5, 2007, by and among EMB Holding Corp., EMBT Merger Corp. and the Company (the merger agreement), pursuant to which EMBT Merger Corp. will be merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation. If the merger is completed, each share of Company common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest, other than shares held by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or EMB Holding Corp., which will be cancelled without payment, and shares held by stockholders who are entitled to, and who properly exercise and perfect, appraisal rights in compliance with all of the required procedures under Delaware law.

If the merger is completed, the Company will continue its operations as a privately-held company owned by an affiliate of Thoma Cressey Bravo, Inc., a private equity firm.

As a result of the merger, the Company's shares will no longer be quoted on The NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Our board of directors approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and determined that the merger is fair to, advisable and in the best interests of our stockholders. The board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

The proxy statement accompanying this letter provides you with information about the proposed merger and the special meeting. We encourage you to read the entire proxy statement carefully, including the merger agreement and the other documents annexed to the proxy statement. You may also obtain more information about Embarcadero from documents we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Your vote is very important. The merger cannot be completed unless the merger agreement is adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock. If you fail to vote on the merger agreement, the effect will be the same as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement for purposes of the vote referred to above.

ALL STOCKHOLDERS ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND THE MEETING IN PERSON. WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE MEETING, PLEASE COMPLETE, DATE, SIGN AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY AS PROMPTLY AS POSSIBLE IN ORDER TO ENSURE YOUR REPRESENTATION AT THE MEETING. ALTERNATIVELY, YOU MAY SUBMIT A PROXY OVER THE INTERNET OR BY TELEPHONE, AS INDICATED ON THE PROXY CARD. EVEN IF YOU HAVE GIVEN YOUR PROXY, YOU MAY STILL VOTE IN PERSON IF YOU ATTEND THE MEETING. PLEASE NOTE, HOWEVER, THAT IF YOUR SHARES ARE HELD OF RECORD BY A BROKER, BANK OR OTHER NOMINEE AND YOU WISH TO VOTE AT THE MEETING, YOU MUST OBTAIN FROM THE RECORD HOLDER A PROXY ISSUED IN YOUR NAME.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

To be Held on June 22, 2007

To Our Stockholders:

Notice is hereby given that a special meeting of stockholders of Embarcadero Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), will be held on Friday, June 22, 2007, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Company's principal executive offices located at 100 California Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 5, 2007, by and among EMB Holding Corp., EMBT Merger Corp. and the Company (the merger agreement), pursuant to which, upon the merger becoming effective, each share of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest, other than shares held by the Company or any of its subsidiaries or EMB Holding Corp., which will be cancelled without payment, and shares held by stockholders who are entitled to, and who properly exercise and perfect, appraisal rights in compliance with all of the required procedures under Delaware law;
2. To approve the adjournment of the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the meeting to adopt the merger agreement; and
3. To act upon such other business as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

Only holders of the Company's common stock at the close of business on May 1, 2007 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

You are cordially invited to attend the meeting in person.

Your vote is important, regardless of the number of shares of the Company's common stock that you own. The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote on that proposal. The proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting.

Even if you plan to attend the meeting in person, please complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy to ensure that your shares will be represented at the meeting if you are unable to attend. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you wish to vote, your vote will be counted as a vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, in favor of the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, and in accordance with the recommendation of our board of directors on any other matters properly brought before the meeting for a vote. If you fail to return your proxy card, the effect will be that your shares will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting and will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement, but will not affect the outcome of the vote regarding the adjournment of the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies. Alternatively, you may submit a proxy for your shares over the Internet or by telephone, as indicated on the proxy card. If you are a stockholder of record and do attend the meeting, you may vote in person.

Edgar Filing: EMBARCADERO TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFM14A

Payment for Common Stock. If the merger is completed, each share of Embarcadero common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest, other than shares held by us or any of our subsidiaries, or EMB Holding Corp., which shares will be cancelled without payment, and shares held by stockholders who are entitled to, and who properly exercise and perfect, appraisal rights in compliance with all of the required procedures under Delaware law. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of Stock and Options beginning on page 49.

Treatment of Options. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding options to purchase Embarcadero common stock will accelerate and become fully vested. Upon completion of the merger, any options having an exercise price equal to or greater than $7.20 per share will be cancelled without payment and any options having an exercise price less than $7.20 per share will entitle the holder thereof to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Embarcadero common stock subject to the option, multiplied by (ii) the excess of $7.20 over the exercise price per share of Embarcadero common stock underlying such option, less any applicable withholding taxes. Each of the Company's equity incentive plans will be terminated upon completion of the merger. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of Stock and Options beginning on page 49.

Treatment of Restricted Stock. If any share of restricted Embarcadero common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger is unvested or subject to a repurchase option, then, effective immediately prior to the completion of the merger, any such share of restricted common stock will accelerate and become fully vested and any repurchase option will lapse. Thereafter, each such share will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest. See The Merger Agreement Treatment of Restricted Stock beginning on page 49.

Effect of the Merger on Embarcadero. After the merger, Embarcadero's shares will no longer be quoted on The NASDAQ Global Select Market. In addition, Embarcadero will terminate the registration of Embarcadero common stock under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Board of Directors Recommendation. In evaluating the merger, our board of directors considered a number of factors, including, among other things, the challenges facing the Company to increase stockholder value as an independent publicly-traded company, our current business and prospects, financial condition and results of operations, the consideration to be received by our stockholders pursuant to the merger, comparable transactions and a fairness opinion, dated April 5, 2007, from Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (Morgan Stanley), the financial advisor to the board of directors, which is described below. After careful consideration of these and other factors, our board of directors approved the merger agreement and related documents and determined to recommend that our stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. See The Merger Background of the Merger beginning on page 13 and The Merger Recommendation of the Board of Directors beginning on page 25.

Opinion of Financial Advisor. Our board of directors received a fairness opinion, dated April 5, 2007, from Morgan Stanley, the financial advisor to the board of directors, to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration of $7.20 per share to be received by holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view to the holders of Embarcadero common stock, other than one or more officers of Embarcadero who are investing a portion of their proceeds from the merger in the capital stock of EMBT Holdings Inc. Embarcadero has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a fee for its services of approximately $3.0 million, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the completion of the merger. See The Merger Opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated beginning on page 27. A copy of Morgan Stanley's opinion is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger. Some of our directors and officers have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests that apply to our stockholders generally. These interests include the following:

All outstanding options to purchase Embarcadero common stock, including those held by our directors and officers other than certain options granted to our directors and officers that were cancelled in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, will accelerate and become fully vested immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and in the case of any options having a per share exercise price less than $7.20, will entitle the holder thereof to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Embarcadero common stock subject to the option, multiplied by (ii) the excess of $7.20 over the exercise price per share, less applicable withholding taxes;

All outstanding shares of restricted Embarcadero common stock, including those held by our officers, will accelerate and become fully vested immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and any repurchase option will lapse, after which each such share will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest, less applicable withholding taxes;

Pursuant to the terms of his existing employment agreement with us, Michael Shahbazian, our Chief Financial Officer, will be entitled to accelerated vesting of all unvested stock options and restricted common stock held by him, as well as certain other severance benefits, upon the completion of the merger and the termination of his employment as Chief Financial Officer after the merger;

Mr. Shahbazian will also receive a one-time transaction bonus of $100,000 payable upon consummation of the merger;

As the surviving corporation, Embarcadero is required after completion of the merger to maintain certain indemnification and insurance policies applicable to the existing directors and executive officers of the Company;

Raj Sabhlok will become the Chief Executive Officer of the surviving corporation after the merger pursuant to an employment agreement entered into in connection with the execution of the merger agreement and to become effective upon the completion of the merger that provides for, among other things, severance payments under certain circumstances and the right to receive management incentive equity awards in EMBT Holdings, Inc.;

Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Sabhlok will be entitled upon completion of the merger to invest $720,000 in shares of capital stock of EMBT Holdings, Inc. on the same terms as the other investors in EMBT Holdings, Inc.; and

We expect that each of Scott Schoonover, Greg Davoll, Greg Keller and Wayne Williams will also enter into employment agreements with the surviving corporation prior to the completion of the merger and that each will accordingly continue as an officer of the surviving corporation after the merger.

Our board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other things, when approving the merger agreement. See The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 37.

Financing of the Merger. TCB estimates that the total amount of funds required to pay the aggregate merger consideration in connection with the merger will be approximately $200,000,000. TCB expects this amount, together with the related working capital requirements of Embarcadero following the completion of the merger, to be provided through a combination of the proceeds of the following:

an aggregate cash equity investment in EMBT Holdings, Inc. by TCB and the other Investors of up to approximately $52,000,000;

new senior secured credit facilities in the aggregate amount of $100,000,000, consisting of two term loans in the amounts of $65,000,000 and $25,000,000, respectively, and a $10,000,000 revolving credit facility; and cash and cash equivalents held by Embarcadero.

See The Merger Financing of the Merger beginning on page 36.

Sponsor Guarantee. Thoma Cressey Fund VIII, L.P. has agreed to be responsible for the performance by Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. of all of their obligations under the merger agreement, up to a maximum amount of $5,000,000. See Other Agreements Limited Guarantee beginning on page 63.

Table of Contents

Other Offers. The merger agreement restricts our ability to, among other things, solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding specified transactions involving Embarcadero. However, under specified circumstances, our board of directors may terminate the merger agreement if it receives and accepts a superior proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, subject to the payment of a termination fee of $5,000,000 to Parent and the fulfillment of certain other conditions. See The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Transactions beginning on page 56 and The Merger Agreement Termination beginning on page 60.

Tax Consequences. Generally, the exchange of your shares for cash pursuant to the merger will be taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes. You will recognize taxable gain or loss in the amount of the difference between $7.20 per share that you receive and your adjusted tax basis for each share of Embarcadero common stock that you own. See The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 39.

Conditions. The completion of the merger pursuant to the merger agreement is subject, among other things, to (i) adoption of the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock; (ii) the delivery by an appraisal firm to our board of directors of an opinion indicating that, among other things, after giving effect to the merger and related transactions, Embarcadero will not be insolvent and will have assets sufficient to pay its debts and other obligations and to conduct its business, (iii) expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the HSR Act), which condition has been met, (iv) purchase by Parent or the surviving corporation of a directors' and officers' insurance policy that provides coverage for acts or omissions of our existing directors and officers occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, (v) no material adverse effect relating to Embarcadero, and (vi) filing by Embarcadero with the SEC of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, which condition has been met. Although the merger is not contingent on any financing, neither Parent nor EMBT Merger Corp. has any material assets and Thoma Cressey Fund VIII, L.P. has only guaranteed their performance under the merger agreement up to a maximum amount of $5,000,000. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 59.

The Special Meeting and Related Matters

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of Embarcadero common stock at the close of business on May 1, 2007, the record date for the special meeting. Each outstanding share of Embarcadero common stock on the record date entitles the holder to one vote on each matter submitted to stockholders for approval at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 26,134,970 shares of common stock of Embarcadero entitled to be voted at the special meeting. See The Special Meeting Record Date, Quorum and Voting Power beginning on page 46.

See The Special Meeting Required Vote beginning on page 46.

Share Ownership of Directors and Executive Officers. Executive Officer, held, as of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, and is entitled to vote 4,385,000 shares of Embarcadero common stock, representing approximately 16.78% of the outstanding shares of our common stock. Each of Stephen Wong, Raj Sabhlok, our Senior Vice President of Operations, Michael Shahbazian, our Chief Financial Officer, Wayne Williams, our Chief Technology Officer, and Scott Schoonover, our Vice President, Worldwide Sales, has agreed to vote, or cause to be voted or consented, all of his shares of our common stock and those acquired after the date of the voting agreements, if any, in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. As of the record date, the voting agreements executed by Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover cover an aggregate of 4,775,955 shares of Embarcadero common stock, representing approximately 18.27% of the shares of Embarcadero common stock entitled to vote upon the adoption of the merger agreement. In addition to the shares that Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover have agreed to vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement pursuant to the voting agreements, the affirmative vote of holders of Embarcadero common stock representing at least 8,291,531 shares of our common stock, or approximately 31.73% of the outstanding shares of our common stock, will be required to adopt the merger agreement. See The Special Meeting Voting by Directors and Executive Officers beginning on page 47. A copy of the form of voting agreement entered into by each of Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover is included as Exhibit A to the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Appraisal Rights of Stockholders. Under Delaware law, you are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the merger. As a result, you will have the right under Delaware law to have the fair value of your shares of Embarcadero common stock determined by the Delaware Chancery Court. This right to appraisal is subject to a number of restrictions and procedural requirements. Generally, in order to exercise your appraisal rights, you must:

send a written demand to Embarcadero for appraisal in compliance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware before the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement; not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement; and continuously hold your Embarcadero common stock from the date you make the demand for appraisal through the effective date of the merger.

Merely voting against the adoption of the merger agreement will not protect your rights to an appraisal, which requires you to take all the steps provided under Delaware law. Delaware law requirements for exercising appraisal rights are described in further detail in this proxy statement. See Appraisal Rights beginning on page 67. In addition, Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, which is the section of Delaware law regarding appraisal rights, is reproduced and attached as Annex C to this proxy statement.

If you vote for the adoption of the merger agreement, you will waive your rights to seek appraisal of your shares of Embarcadero common stock under Delaware law.

A: Embarcadero will continue its operations as a privately-held company directly held by Parent, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of EMBT Holdings, Inc. After the merger, EMBT Holdings, Inc. will be controlled by TCB and the other Investors. Our common stock will no longer be publicly traded, and we will no longer file periodic and other reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to our common stock or proxy or information statements with respect to stockholders' meetings.

Q: What will I receive for my Embarcadero common stock if the merger is completed?

A: If the merger is completed, you will no longer own shares of Embarcadero common stock. If the merger is completed, each share of your Embarcadero common stock will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest, unless you validly exercise and perfect appraisal rights in compliance with all of the required procedures under Delaware law, in which case your shares will be subject to appraisal in accordance with Delaware law.

Q: What will happen to my stock options in the merger?

A: Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all outstanding options to acquire Embarcadero common stock will accelerate and become fully vested. Upon the completion of the merger, any options having an exercise price equal to or greater than $7.20 per share will be cancelled without payment and any options having an exercise price less than $7.20 per share will entitle the holder thereof to receive an amount in cash, without interest, less applicable withholding taxes, equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Embarcadero common stock subject to the option, multiplied by (ii) the excess of $7.20 over the exercise price per share of Embarcadero common stock underlying such option, which cash amount we refer to as the option consideration. Each of the Company's equity incentive plans will be terminated upon the completion of the merger.

Q: What will happen to my restricted shares of Embarcadero common stock in the merger?

Edgar Filing: EMBARCADERO TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFM14A

Q: How does Embarcadero's board of directors recommend that I vote on the merger?

A: Our board of directors approved the merger agreement and related documents and determined that the merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, is fair to, advisable and in the best interests of our stockholders. The board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: Do any members of the board of directors or management of Embarcadero have interests in the merger that may be different from my interests as a stockholder?

A: Yes, some of our directors and officers have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests that apply to our stockholders generally, including the following:

All outstanding options to purchase Embarcadero common stock, including those held by our directors and executive officers other than certain options granted to our directors and executive officers that were cancelled in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, will accelerate and become fully vested immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and in the case of any options having an exercise price less than $7.20 per share, will entitle the holder thereof to receive the option consideration;

All outstanding shares of restricted Embarcadero common stock, including those held by our executive officers, will accelerate and become fully vested immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and any repurchase option will lapse, after which each such share will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest;

Pursuant to the terms of his existing employment agreement with us, Michael Shahbazian, our Chief Financial Officer, will be entitled to accelerated vesting of all unvested stock options and restricted common stock held by him, as well as certain other severance benefits, upon the completion of the merger and the termination of his employment as Chief Financial Officer after the merger;

Mr. Shahbazian will also receive a one-time transaction bonus of $100,000 payable upon consummation of the merger;

As the surviving corporation, Embarcadero is required after completion of the merger to maintain certain indemnification and insurance policies applicable to the existing directors and executive officers of the Company;

Raj Sabhlok will become the Chief Executive Officer of the surviving corporation after the merger pursuant to an employment agreement entered into in connection with the execution of the merger agreement and to become effective upon completion of the merger that provides for, among other things, severance payments under certain circumstances and the right to receive management incentive equity awards in EMBT Holdings, Inc.;

Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Sabhlok will be entitled to invest, on the same terms as the other Investors, $720,000 of his proceeds from the merger in shares of capital stock of EMBT Holdings, Inc., representing approximately 1.28% of the equity capital of that company, upon completion of the merger; and

We expect that each of Scott Schoonover, Greg Davoll, Greg Keller and Wayne Williams will also enter into employment agreements with the surviving corporation prior to the completion of the merger and that each will accordingly continue as an officer of the surviving corporation after the merger.

See The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 37.

Q: How will EMBT Merger Corp. and Parent pay the merger consideration?

A: EMBT Merger Corp. and Parent will pay the merger consideration from the proceeds of equity investments in EMBT Holdings, Inc., the sole stockholder of Parent, to be made by the Investors, in connection with the merger. In addition, it is anticipated that debt financing arrangements to be entered into in connection with the merger, together with cash and cash equivalents held by Embarcadero and its subsidiaries, will be used to fund payment of a portion of the merger consideration and to fund the business and operations of Embarcadero after the merger. For more information about the financing of the merger, see The Merger Financing of the Merger beginning on page 36.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the merger as quickly as possible, and we anticipate that it will be completed in the second quarter of 2007. In order to complete the merger, we must obtain stockholder approval, and the other closing conditions under the merger agreement must be satisfied or waived. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 59 and The Merger Agreement Effective Time beginning on page 49.

Q: What are the conditions to the completion of the merger?

A: The completion of the merger is subject to a number of conditions, including, among others:

adoption of the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock;

the absence of any law or order that prevents or prohibits completion of the merger;

the receipt from all governmental authorities and third parties of all material consents, approvals and authorizations required in order to complete the merger;

the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act, which condition has been met;

the purchase by Parent or the surviving corporation of a directors and officers insurance policy that provides coverage for acts or omissions of our existing directors and officers occurring prior to the effective time of the merger;

the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by us, Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. in the merger agreement, subject to specified materiality thresholds;

the performance, in all material respects, by us, Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. of the covenants and agreements in the merger agreement;

the absence of any occurrence that has had a material adverse effect on Embarcadero;

the delivery of specified certifications;

the delivery of a solvency opinion to our board of directors; and the filing with the SEC of our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 and our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, which condition has been met.

If all of these conditions are not either satisfied or waived, the merger will not be completed even if our stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 59.

Q: Will I owe any U.S. federal income tax as a result of the merger?

A: Generally, the exchange of your shares for cash pursuant to the merger will be taxable for U.S. federal income tax purposes. You will recognize taxable gain or loss in the amount of the difference between $7.20 per share that you receive and your adjusted tax basis for each share of Embarcadero common stock that you own. For further information about the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences beginning on page 39.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting will be held on Friday, June 22, 2007, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at Embarcadero's principal executive offices located at 100 California Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111.

Q: Who can vote on the merger agreement?

A: Holders of our common stock at the close of business on May 1, 2007, the record date for the special meeting, may vote in person or by proxy on the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Q: What vote of stockholders is required to adopt the merger agreement?

A: In order to complete the merger, stockholders holding at least a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date must vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What vote of stockholders is required for the proposal to adjourn the meeting?

A: The proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting.

Q: Are any stockholders required to vote in favor of adopting the merger agreement?

A: Yes. Under the terms of voting agreements entered into in connection with the merger agreement, Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover have agreed to vote all shares of Embarcadero common stock currently held or subsequently acquired by them in favor of adopting the merger agreement. As of the record date, the voting agreements executed by Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover cover an aggregate of 4,775,955 shares of Embarcadero common stock, representing approximately 18.27% of the shares of our common stock entitled to vote upon the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

A: If you have shares of our common stock that are registered differently and are in more than one account, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please follow the directions for voting on each of the proxy cards you receive to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

Q: How do I vote without attending the special meeting?

A: If you hold shares in your name as the stockholder of record, then you received this proxy statement and a proxy card from us. If you hold shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, then you received this proxy statement from the nominee, along with the nominee's form of proxy card which includes voting instructions. In either case, you may submit a proxy for your shares by Internet, telephone or mail without attending the special meeting. To submit a proxy by mail, mark, sign and date the proxy card and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided. To submit a proxy by Internet or telephone, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, follow the instructions on the proxy card. Internet and telephone proxy submission provide the same authority to vote your shares as if you returned your proxy card by mail.

Q: How do I vote in person at the special meeting?

A: If you hold shares in your name as the stockholder of record, you may vote those shares in person at the special meeting by giving us a signed proxy card or ballot before voting is closed. If you want to do that, please bring proof of identification with you. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, we recommend that you submit a proxy for your shares in advance as described above, so your vote will be counted even if you later decide not to attend.

If you hold shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, you may vote those shares in person at the special meeting only if you obtain and bring with you a signed proxy from the necessary nominee giving you the right to vote the shares. To do this, you should contact your nominee.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: After you submit a proxy for your shares, whether by Internet, telephone or mail, you may change your vote at any time before voting is closed at the special meeting. If you hold shares in your name as the stockholder of record, you should write to our Corporate Secretary at our principal offices, 100 California Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111, stating that you want to revoke your proxy and that you need another proxy card. If you hold your shares in street name through a broker, bank or other nominee, you should contact the nominee and ask for a new proxy card. Alternatively, you may submit a proxy again by Internet or telephone. If you attend the special meeting, you may vote by proxy or ballot as described above, which will cancel your previous vote. Your last vote before voting is closed at the special meeting is the vote that will be counted.

Q: What happens if I do not respond?

A: For purposes of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, the failure to respond by returning your proxy card will have the same effect as voting against the merger agreement unless you vote for the merger agreement in person at the special meeting. For purposes of any proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit proxies, the failure to respond by returning your proxy card will not count as a vote entitled to be cast on the proposal but if the failure to respond causes your shares to be deemed to be a broker non-vote, your shares will count for determining whether a quorum is present.

Q: What is a quorum?

A: A quorum of the holders of the outstanding shares of our common stock must be present for the special meeting to be held. A quorum is present if the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote are present at the special meeting, either in person or represented by proxy. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Yes, but only if you provide instructions to your broker on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. Without those instructions, your shares will not be voted.

Q: How are votes counted?

A: For the proposal relating to the adoption of the merger agreement, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. Abstentions will not count as votes cast on the proposal relating to adoption of the merger agreement, but will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. If you ABSTAIN, it has the same effect as if you vote AGAINST the adoption of the merger agreement.

For the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement, you may vote FOR, AGAINST or ABSTAIN. Abstentions will not count as votes cast on the proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, but will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

If you sign your proxy card without indicating your vote, your shares will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement, FOR adjournment of the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, and in accordance with the recommendations of our board of directors on any other matters properly brought before the meeting for a vote.

A broker non-vote generally occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares on your behalf does not vote on a proposal because the nominee has not received your voting instructions and lacks discretionary power to vote the shares. Broker non-votes will not count as votes cast on a proposal, but will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. Broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: Who will bear the cost of this solicitation?

A: We will pay the cost of this solicitation, which will be made primarily by mail. Proxies also may be solicited in person, or by telephone, facsimile, Internet or similar means, by our directors, officers or employees without additional compensation. We will, on request, reimburse stockholders who are brokers, banks or other nominees for their reasonable expenses in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of the shares they hold of record.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. If the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions informing you how to send your stock certificates to the paying agent in order to receive the merger consideration. You should use the letter of transmittal to exchange Embarcadero stock certificates for the merger consideration to which you are entitled as a result of the merger. If your shares are held in street name by your broker, you will receive instructions from your broker as to how to effect the surrender of your street name shares and receive cash for those shares. DO NOT SEND ANY STOCK CERTIFICATES WITH YOUR PROXY.

Q: What rights do I have to seek appraisal for my shares?

A: If you wish, you may seek an appraisal of the fair value of your shares, but only if you comply with all requirements of Delaware law as described in the section of this proxy statement entitled Appraisal Rights beginning on page 67 and in Annex C of this proxy statement. Depending upon the determination of the Delaware Court of Chancery, the appraised fair value of your shares of Embarcadero common stock, which will be paid to you if you seek an appraisal and comply with all requirements of Delaware law, may be more than, less than or equal to the per share consideration to be paid pursuant to the merger.

Merely voting against the adoption of merger agreement will not preserve your appraisal rights under Delaware law. In order to validly exercise and perfect appraisal rights under Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, among other things, you must not vote for the adoption of the merger agreement and you must deliver to Embarcadero written demand for appraisal in compliance with Delaware law prior to the vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting. Failure to take all of the steps required under Delaware law may result in the loss of your appraisal rights.

Q: Who can help answer my other questions?

A: The information provided above in the summary term sheet and in the question and answer format is for your convenience only and is merely a summary of the information contained in this proxy statement. You should carefully read this entire proxy statement, including the documents annexed to this proxy statement and the documents we refer to or incorporate by reference in this proxy statement. THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

In response to preliminary inquiries by three potential strategic buyers, the board of directors, on April 7, 2006, recommended that management engage an investment banking firm to undertake a review of the Company's strategic alternatives. After reviewing its relationships with different investment banking firms and soliciting input from the board of directors, management asked Morgan Stanley to make a presentation to the board of directors regarding such alternatives at a meeting on May 8, 2006. After that meeting and further discussion among the directors, the board of directors resolved to retain Morgan Stanley as its financial advisor at a subsequent board meeting on June 6, 2006 and asked Morgan Stanley to prepare a list of potentially interested strategic and financial parties for the Company. On June 12, 2006, the Company executed an engagement letter with Morgan Stanley. On June 16, 2006, Morgan Stanley presented a list of potentially interested parties to the Board, and the Board authorized Morgan Stanley to approach a select group of potentially interested parties to solicit indications of interest in a transaction with the Company.

In early June 2006, Silver Oak Partners approached Stephen Wong, then the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, on behalf of Thoma Cressey Bravo, Inc. (TCB), formerly known as Thoma Cressey Equity Partners, Inc., to discuss a potential acquisition of the Company and to arrange a meeting between representatives of the Company and TCB. On June 19, 2006, Mr. Wong, Raj Sabhlok, the Company's Senior Vice President of Operations, and Michael Shahbazian, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, met with Orlando Bravo, Scott Crabill and Seth Boro, representatives of TCB, and discussed various background and public financial information about the Company and the possibility of a potential acquisition of the Company. At this meeting, TCB made a preliminary proposal to acquire the Company at a price of $7.50 per share in cash. Subsequent to this meeting, TCB was informed of the engagement of Morgan Stanley and asked to coordinate any further contact with Morgan Stanley.

Between July 6 and July 13, 2006, Morgan Stanley and TCB held a series of conversations to negotiate a confidentiality agreement between the Company and TCB and to schedule a second meeting between TCB and representatives of the Company.

In early July 2006, Morgan Stanley also contacted seven additional parties, including four strategic parties and three private equity firms, regarding a potential transaction with the Company and indicated that the board of directors was interested in entertaining offers for the Company. Two of these parties subsequently entered into confidentiality agreements with the Company and met with representatives of the Company during the month of July 2006.

On July 13, 2006, TCB and the Company entered into a Confidentiality Agreement in connection with a potential transaction for the Company. Thereafter, TCB commenced its due diligence review of the Company and its operations, prospects and affairs.

On July 20, 2006, Messrs. Wong and Bravo met to discuss a potential acquisition of the Company by TCB and Mr. Wong's level of interest in continuing to lead the Company following such a transaction. On July 21, 2006, Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian of the Company met with Messrs. Bravo, Crabill and Boro of TCB and discussed, among other things, the Company's business, customer base, product portfolio, organizational structure and financial projections.

On July 25, 2006, Morgan Stanley contacted an additional party (which had not been previously contacted) regarding a potential transaction with the Company.

On July 30, 2006, TCB delivered to Morgan Stanley a draft letter of intent and form of merger agreement with an offering price of $8.25 per share in cash and requested that the Company enter into the letter of intent, which included an exclusivity period.

Table of Contents

Representatives of the Company and TCB met again on July 31, 2006 to discuss various due diligence matters and the draft letter of intent, and met with potential lenders to familiarize these potential lenders with the transaction and the Company's financial ability. Later that day and again on August 1, 2006, the board of directors met with Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian, Morgan Stanley and Heller Ehrman LLP, counsel to the Company, to discuss the proposal from TCB. Mr. Wong reported to the board of directors on the status of discussions with TCB, TCB's due diligence efforts and the material economic terms and conditions of TCB's proposal. Morgan Stanley then discussed certain issues with the board of directors, including, among other things, Morgan Stanley's preliminary valuation analysis of the Company and the status of discussions with other potential buyers. Heller Ehrman also advised the board of directors of its fiduciary duties in the context of an all cash offer for the Company and entertained questions from the directors concerning their fiduciary duties and the terms of the proposal from TCB. After further deliberations, both in and out of executive session, the Board rejected TCB's offer as inadequate and instructed Morgan Stanley to continue its negotiations with TCB, while furthering discussions with other potential buyers.

Morgan Stanley informed TCB of the board of directors' decision on August 1, 2006. On August 2, 2006, TCB made a revised proposal for the Company at $9.00 per share and requested that the Company enter into an exclusivity agreement to enable TCB to complete its due diligence and negotiate a merger agreement with the Company and its legal counsel.

On August 2, 2006, Morgan Stanley contacted an additional party (which had not been previously contacted) regarding a potential transaction with the Company. On August 3, 2006, that party entered into a confidentiality agreement with the Company and held a telephonic meeting with representatives of the Company.

On August 3, 2006, the board of directors met with Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian and its financial advisor and legal counsel and deliberated about the revised proposal submitted by TCB. Morgan Stanley updated the board on the negotiations with TCB and summarized the terms of its revised proposal and TCB's desire to enter into an exclusivity agreement while it completed its due diligence review. After questions and further discussions, the board of directors authorized the Company to enter into an exclusivity agreement with TCB.

On August 5, 2006, TCB and the Company entered into an exclusivity agreement for a period of up to 15 business days.

From August 6 to August 21, 2006, representatives of TCB conducted further meetings with Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, and Shahbazian and Wayne Williams, Robert Lamvik and Greg Keller of the Company to review its products, operating results, projections, prospects and obligations. Kirkland & Ellis LLP, legal counsel to TCB, also commenced its legal due diligence review of the Company. On August 8, 2006, Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian made presentations on the Company's business, products, operating results, projections and prospects to representatives of TCB at the offices of TCB in Chicago, Illinois. On August 10, 2006, Heller Ehrman delivered a revised draft of the merger agreement to Kirkland & Ellis.

On August 21, 2006, Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian presented additional information regarding the Company and its business to potential lenders at the offices of TCB in Chicago, Illinois.

On August 24, 2006, TCB informed Morgan Stanley that, based on its due diligence review of the Company, TCB was not willing to proceed with the transaction at a price of $9.00 per share, but would be interested in proceeding at a reduced offering price of $8.50 per share. The board of directors met on August 23, 2006, with Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian, and its financial advisor and legal counsel to consider the revised proposal. Mr. Wong and certain representatives of Morgan Stanley described the reasons offered by TCB for its reduction in price, recent inquiries from other potential buyers and the potential value of the Company's shares. Morgan Stanley then presented an updated preliminary financial analysis of the proposed transaction at $8.50 per share. Heller Ehrman also reviewed the status of the merger agreement and open issues yet to be resolved by the parties. The board of directors then reviewed its various alternatives and instructed Morgan Stanley to advise TCB that its revised proposal was not acceptable and to pursue, upon expiration of the exclusivity period on August 25, 2006, other indications of interest that had surfaced during the exclusivity period.

Messrs. Wong and Bravo had several conversations during the next two days, and TCB agreed to increase its offer price to $8.55 per share. During the week of August 25, 2006, Heller Ehrman and Kirkland & Ellis continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement. On August 25, 2006, the board of directors met and conferred with Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian, and the Company's financial advisor and legal counsel. Heller Ehrman reviewed the open issues on the merger agreement and entertained questions concerning various terms of the merger agreement and the board of directors' fiduciary duties. After further deliberations, the board of directors decided to continue discussions based on TCB's revised offer of $8.55 per share, subject to TCB's agreement to accept certain changes in the merger agreement and related documents.

On August 30, 2006, TCB advised Morgan Stanley that TCB had completed its due diligence review, including final review of the Company's capitalization and other aspects of the Company's operations. TCB informed Morgan Stanley that TCB had previously not accounted for 275,000 shares of restricted common stock that had been awarded but not issued by the Company and proposed to reduce the offer price for the Company's common stock by an amount TCB had yet to determine. The board of directors of the Company was informed of this development at a meeting scheduled for later that day. At that meeting, the directors conferred with Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian and its financial advisor and legal counsel regarding the status of the proposed transaction with TCB. Heller Ehrman reviewed the open issues on the latest draft of the merger agreement and the progress made to resolve those issues. The board was then informed that TCB had required that Messrs. Sabhlok, Lamvik and Williams enter new employment and non-competition agreements (to be effective upon completion of the merger) contemporaneously with the merger agreement, and that the terms of such agreements had been substantially agreed upon. The board was also informed that the new employment arrangements included equity incentive awards substantially similar to the employee's existing equity arrangements, except that Mr. Sabhlok would receive equity incentive awards in an aggregate amount equal to approximately 4.58% of the outstanding shares of EMBT Holdings, Inc. Further, the board was informed that Mr. Sabhlok would become President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company upon completion of the merger and that he intended to invest $300,000 of the proceeds he was to receive in the merger in capital stock of EMBT Holdings, Inc., representing approximately 0.33% of the equity capital of that company, on the same terms as the other Investors.

Between August 30, 2006 and September 1, 2006, Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian of the Company, representatives of Morgan Stanley and Mr. Bravo of TCB held various telephone conversations regarding the status of the transaction and various open issues on the merger agreement, including the price for the Company's shares. Also on September 1, 2006, Mr. Wong authorized Morgan Stanley to contact other parties that had expressed an interest in pursuing a transaction with the Company.

On September 1, 2006, Morgan Stanley contacted an additional party (which had not been previously contacted) regarding a potential transaction with the Company.

On September 5, 2006, Mr. Bravo informed Mr. Wong that TCB was prepared to go forward with the proposed transaction at a price of $8.35 per share and proposed resolutions of the other open issues on the merger agreement. Based upon his discussion with the other Embarcadero directors, Mr. Wong informed Mr. Bravo that the Company's board of directors would not entertain any further offers from TCB unless they were presented in a signed agreement from TCB and its applicable affiliates. In addition, Mr. Wong asked Mr. Bravo to consider increasing TCB's proposal to $8.40 per share. Later that day, Mr. Bravo called Mr. Wong with what Mr. Bravo said was TCB's final proposal of $8.38 per share. Mr. Bravo also agreed to deliver a signed agreement to the Company containing TCB's proposal for consideration by the Company's board of directors. On September 6, 2006, TCB delivered a form of merger agreement and signature pages to the merger agreement and related documents to be held in escrow by the Company's counsel pending the board of directors' approval of the transaction on the revised terms.

The board of directors of the Company met with Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok and Shahbazian, and its financial advisors and legal counsel on September 6, 2006 and discussed the signed agreement submitted by TCB. Mr. Wong reported on the discussions that ensued over the Labor Day weekend and the terms of the revised offer. Morgan Stanley then updated the board of directors as to its financial analysis of the proposed transaction. Morgan Stanley also provided a status report on discussions with other potential buyers, indicating that none had submitted an acquisition proposal for consideration by management or the board of directors. Morgan Stanley then informed the board of directors that it was prepared to issue its fairness opinion on the revised offer. Heller Ehrman reviewed the material terms of the merger agreement, including the provisions enabling the board of directors to accept a superior proposal, if one should be presented after signing the merger agreement, and terminate the agreement upon the payment of a termination fee. Heller Ehrman also reviewed the board of directors' fiduciary duties in the context of considering the proposed offer. Morgan Stanley then delivered its fairness opinion orally to the board of directors, which was confirmed subsequently in writing, that, as of September 6, 2006 and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations to its opinion, the merger consideration of $8.38 per share to be received by holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view. The board of directors then approved the merger agreement and related documents, and determined to recommend that our stockholders adopt the merger agreement, by a vote of five-to-one, with Mr. Frank M. Polestra voting against the matter, and authorized the chairman of the board to execute such documents on behalf of the Company.

The merger agreement and related documents were executed and delivered by the chairman of the board of directors on the evening of September 6, 2006, and the parties issued a joint press release on September 7, 2006.

Beginning shortly thereafter and continuing through September, the Company began preparing the preliminary proxy statement to be filed with the SEC in connection with the merger.

On October 2, 2006, the Federal Trade Commission, on behalf of itself and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice, informed the Company in writing that it had granted early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, with respect to the merger.

On October 4, 2006, the Company filed the preliminary proxy statement with the SEC. On October 18, 2006, the board of directors called a special meeting of stockholders for November 30, 2006, at 12 p.m., local time, at the principal executive offices of the Company, to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement, and fixed the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting at the close of business on October 18, 2006. The Company filed a definitive proxy statement with the SEC on October 24, 2006. The Company mailed the definitive proxy statement to stockholders of record on or about October 30, 2006.

Also during October 2006, in connection with the preparation of the Company's financial statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 and the associated Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, asked Company management to refine its testing and analysis of the Company's historical stock option grant practices, which testing and analysis had preliminarily begun at the request of the Audit Committee of the board of directors in July 2006. In early November 2006, Company management finished its testing and analysis, and reported the results to the Audit Committee and PricewaterhouseCoopers. After reviewing the results, PricewaterhouseCoopers suggested that two grants made in 2001 required further investigation by an independent third party.

On November 5, 2006, the Audit Committee engaged O Melveny & Myers LLP to assist it in reviewing these two option grants. Mr. Wong also held a series of conversations with representatives of TCB regarding the status of the stock option review and the engagement of O Melveny & Myers as special independent counsel to the Audit Committee.

On November 13, 2006, the Company submitted to the SEC a Notification of Late Filing pursuant to Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in respect of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 (the Third Quarter 10-Q). The Company reported that the filing had been delayed to enable the Audit Committee to evaluate the Company's accounting for certain stock option grants made in 2000 and 2001. The Company also announced that the Audit Committee had retained O Melveny & Myers.

On November 15, 2006, the Company received a Staff Determination Letter from the NASDAQ Stock Market (NASDAQ), stating that the Company was not in compliance with NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(14) because it had not filed the Third Quarter 10-Q in a timely manner. The Staff Determination Letter indicated that the Company's securities would be delisted from NASDAQ unless the Company timely requested a hearing before a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel.

On November 17, 2006, the Company announced that, based on preliminary findings, the Audit Committee had decided to expand the scope of the previously-announced review of stock option grant practices. The Company also announced that although the Audit Committee's review was in its early stages, the Audit Committee believed that it was possible that the Company would need to restate its financial statements for certain historical reporting periods in order to record additional non-cash charges for stock-based compensation expense relating to the measurement dates of certain stock option grants. The Company further announced that it had voluntarily contacted the SEC to inform them about the ongoing review, and that the SEC had requested that the Company provide them with certain information relating to the Company's stock option practices.

In late November and early December 2006, Gary Haroian, chairman of the Audit Committee, and Morgan Stanley held a series of conversations with TCB regarding the status of the Audit Committee's review. Mr. Bravo of TCB indicated that TCB desired to receive a report directly from O Melveny & Myers regarding the review. Mr. Bravo further indicated that TCB was reserving all of its rights under the merger agreement and would evaluate the impact of the review on the merger after receipt of the report.

On November 30, 2006, the Company announced that the Audit Committee had discovered evidence of backdating of stock options from 2000 to 2005, but was unable to determine the impact of such practices on the Company's historical financial statements with any degree of certainty. The Company also announced that the Audit Committee had advised the Company that the Company might need to restate its historical financial statements for the periods commencing on or after January 1, 2000 through the present, including those in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2006.

The Company also announced on November 30, 2006 that although the Company had received proxies representing a sufficient number of votes to constitute a quorum and to adopt the proposed merger agreement at the special meeting of stockholders scheduled for later that day, the Company intended to convene and then promptly move to adjourn the meeting to December 18, 2006, without a vote on the merger. The Company stated that the reason for this adjournment was to allow time for the Audit Committee to proceed with its review and for the Company to discuss the results of the review with TCB and to disseminate any supplemental proxy materials that might be required prior to the vote on the merger.

At 12 p.m., local time, on November 30, 2006, the Company convened and then promptly moved to adjourn the special meeting of stockholders to December 18, 2006 without a vote on the merger. The meeting was so adjourned.

On December 5, 2006, Mr. Bravo and other representatives of TCB and Gerald Nowak of Kirkland & Ellis met with Mr. Haroian and Stephen Ferruolo of Heller Ehrman and, pursuant to a nondisclosure agreement, received a report from O Melveny & Myers on the status of the stock option review and the findings of the Audit Committee to date.

On December 8, 2006, the board of directors formed a Special Committee for the purpose of continuing the review of the Company's stock option grant practices commenced by the Audit Committee. Also on December 8, 2006, the board of directors asked Morgan Stanley to arrange a meeting between representatives of TCB and the Company for December 13, 2006 to discuss the status of the review and its potential impact on the merger.

On December 9, 2006, Kirkland & Ellis approached Heller Ehrman regarding a request from TCB that the Company agree to extend the period of time provided in the merger agreement for notification by one party to the other party if such party believed that the other party had breached any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement that could, individually or in the aggregate, result in the failure of a closing condition under the merger agreement to occur. On December 11, 2006, the board determined that it was in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to extend the period for notification provided under the merger agreement solely as it related to the matters that were specifically the subject of the report on the status of the stock option review and the findings of the Audit Committee, and only until 5:00 p.m., Pacific time, on December 15, 2006.

On December 13, 2006, the board of directors held a meeting with representatives of Heller Ehrman and Richards, Layton & Finger, P.A., special Delaware counsel to the Company. The board and its legal advisors considered the options available to the Company under the merger agreement, and the possible scenarios that could occur, including without limitation, the possibility that the transaction might not close on or prior to December 31, 2006, in which case the merger agreement could be terminated by TCB and the Company would be obligated to pay Parent the termination fee of $8,100,000 in the event that the Company entered into a new acquisition agreement in the six months following such termination. The board and its legal advisors also discussed whether the Company could proceed with a stockholder vote on the proposed merger while the Special Committee's review was pending and given the likelihood that the Company's historical financial statements would need to be restated. After lengthy discussion of the many issues involved, the board of directors agreed that Morgan Stanley should be asked to approach TCB regarding a possible mutual termination of the merger agreement prior to December 31, 2006.

On December 14, 2006, TCB and Kirkland & Ellis had a telephonic meeting with PricewaterhouseCoopers and Heller Ehrman to discuss the status of the Special Committee's report.

During December 14 and December 15, 2006, Morgan Stanley and Messrs. Haroian and Ferruolo had a series of conversations with TCB and Mr. Nowak of Kirkland & Ellis regarding a mutual termination of the merger agreement. On December 16, 2006, TCB indicated its willingness to mutually terminate the merger agreement. Later that day, the Company entered into an agreement with Parent and Merger Sub to mutually terminate the merger agreement and whereby both the Company, on the one hand, and Parent and Merger Sub, on the other hand, agreed to release any and all claims they had against the other and further agreed that no termination fee would be paid or payable by either party. The Company announced the termination of the merger agreement on December 18, 2006, and indicated that due to the termination of the merger agreement, the special meeting of stockholders scheduled for later that day was cancelled and would not be reconvened.

Also on December 18, 2006, the Company announced that the Audit Committee had determined that the Company would need to restate its historical financial statements to record additional non-cash stock-based compensation expense related to past stock option grants having incorrect measurement dates due to backdating of stock options. The Company accordingly advised that its financial statements and related communications for the periods commencing on or after January 1, 2000 through the present, including those in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the first and second quarters of fiscal 2006, should not be relied upon. The Company announced that it had concluded that the issues underlying the restatements represented material weaknesses with respect to the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, and that as such, Company management had concluded that the Company's internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of December 31, 2005 and the Company expected to receive an adverse report from its independent registered public accounting firm that the Company's internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of December 31, 2006.

On January 11, 2007, the Company announced that Stephen Wong, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, was retiring from the Company and resigning from the board of directors effective as of January 12, 2007. The Company also announced that it had commenced a search to fill the permanent position of Chief Executive Officer, and that the board of directors had formed a Management Oversight Committee consisting of Timothy Chou and Samuel Spadafora to assist the Company's management team on business and operational matters until a new Chief Executive Officer was appointed.

On or about January 15, 2007, representatives of TCB contacted Mr. Haroian to gauge the Company's interest in reopening discussions relating to the merger. The board of directors considered the matter at its regularly scheduled meeting on January 16, 2007 and decided that, while the Company should continue to evaluate all available options, the Company should focus its available resources on moving forward as an independent company, completing the Special Committee's review of stock option grant practices and the restatement of the Company's financial statements. The board of directors instructed TCB to direct any further communications through Kirkland & Ellis and Heller Ehrman. At the same time, the Company engaged an executive recruiter, initiated the search for a new Chief Executive Officer of the Company and began interviewing potential candidates.

On January 18, 2007, the Company appeared before a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel (the Panel) to discuss the potential delisting of the Company's securities from NASDAQ for failing to timely file the Third Quarter 10-Q, in violation of NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(14).

During the week of January 22, 2007, Kirkland & Ellis contacted Heller Ehrman and requested certain updated financial information about the Company and inquired about the status of the Special Committee's review. Heller Ehrman brought such requests to the attention of the board of directors, and the board determined to have Morgan Stanley provide appropriate updated financial information to TCB. Meanwhile, the Company's search for a Chief Executive Officer continued, with additional meetings and interviews with additional potential candidates.

During the week of February 5, 2007, following TCB's receipt and review of updated financial information relating to the Company, Mr. Bravo contacted Morgan Stanley and indicated, on a preliminary basis, that TCB was prepared to make an offer in the range of $7.25 per share in cash to acquire the Company. Mr. Bravo proposed that the transaction be structured as a tender offer with a 90% tender condition. Morgan Stanley brought these discussions to the attention of the board at a scheduled meeting held on February 7, 2007. Morgan Stanley presented the board with preliminary financial analysis of the potential offer and comparable valuation metrics. The board then conferred with Heller Ehrman about the proposed tender offer transaction structure and its fiduciary duties in the context of this potential offer. The board considered the potential offer relative to Morgan Stanley's comparable valuation metrics and financial analysis, the likelihood of 90% of the Company's stockholders tendering at the price being proposed, the impact that a tender offer would have on the Company, its business, strategy, employee morale and search for a new Chief Executive Officer, particularly if the tender were to be launched and the 90% tender condition was not achieved. The board also considered the developments at the Company that had occurred between September 2006 and that time and the impact of those developments on the valuation of the Company. After considering these and other factors, the board agreed that Morgan Stanley should be instructed to inform TCB that the board did not believe that a price in the range being proposed would be acceptable to the Company's stockholders and that the board would not recommend acceptance of such an offer to the stockholders. Morgan Stanley thereafter informed TCB of the board's determination.

On February 9, 2007, the NASDAQ Panel notified the Company that the Panel had determined to continue the listing of the Company's securities on NASDAQ, provided that the Company met certain requirements. Those requirements were that the Company (i) provide NASDAQ with specified information regarding the results of the Company's review of its stock option grant practices on or about March 1, 2007, (ii) file the Third Quarter 10-Q, any other delinquent periodic reports, and any required restatements on or before April 18, 2007 and (iii) comply with all other requirements for continued listing on NASDAQ.

On February 12, 2007, Mr. Bravo sent a letter to the board of directors indicating that TCB had been notified of the board's concerns and determinations regarding the potential tender offer and that TCB was now prepared to offer $7.50 per share in cash to acquire the Company. The letter proposed that the transaction be structured as a one-step merger transaction rather than as a tender offer, in light of the board's stated concerns regarding the likelihood of a 90% tender condition being achieved. The letter was accompanied by a draft merger agreement based substantially on the previous merger agreement executed in September 2006, but reflecting the revised terms, including price.

On February 12, 2007, the board met and considered the offer proposed in Mr. Bravo's letter. The board again conferred with Morgan Stanley and Heller Ehrman regarding the revised terms and the revised transaction structure. The board considered a number of factors in the context of the revised offer, including the financial analysis and comparable valuation metrics presented by Morgan Stanley, the impact that a merger would have on the Company, its business and its strategic direction and the likelihood that the stockholders would approve a price of $7.50 per share. The board again considered and discussed the impact of the developments since September 2006 on the valuation of the Company. At this meeting, Morgan Stanley also informed the board that another potential buyer had contacted Morgan Stanley and indicated its interest in beginning preliminary discussions and due diligence regarding a potential offer to acquire the Company. The board questioned Morgan Stanley regarding the new potential buyer's level of interest, its ability to consummate a transaction and how long it would take the new potential buyer to complete its due diligence and present an offer. After discussion of TCB's revised offer and contacts with the new potential buyer, and after conferring with both Morgan Stanley and Heller Ehrman on a number of issues, the board instructed Morgan Stanley to inform TCB that its revised offer of $7.50 per share was not acceptable. The board also instructed Morgan Stanley to take appropriate steps to begin discussions with the new potential buyer, including negotiating an acceptable confidentiality agreement and arranging for due diligence meetings between the new potential buyer and Company management. The board also agreed to actively continue the search for a new Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and scheduled further meetings with the leading candidates.

On February 16, 2007, the Company announced that a stockholder derivative lawsuit related to the Company's stock option grant practices had been filed in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California on February 9, 2007. On February 26, 2007, a second stockholder derivative lawsuit related to the Company's stock option grant practices was filed in the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Francisco.

On February 23, 2007, Mr. Spadafora and Mr. Shahbazian, along with Erik Marth of Morgan Stanley and Stephen Ferruolo of Heller Ehrman, met in San Francisco with Orlando Bravo, Gerald Nowak of Kirkland & Ellis and other representatives of TCB. Mr. Roberts participated in the meeting by teleconference. The parties discussed developments at the Company, including the status of the Special Committee's review of stock option grant practices and the restatement, the Company's search for a Chief Executive Officer and TCB's continuing due diligence and the terms, structure and timing of a possible transaction. At that meeting, the parties agreed that Kirkland & Ellis and Heller Ehrman should further discuss the structure and timing of a transaction.

At a scheduled meeting of the board held on February 27, 2007, Company management reported on due diligence meetings held with the new potential buyer since the last meeting of the board. The board then conferred with Morgan Stanley and Heller Ehrman regarding appropriate next steps in the due diligence process with the new potential buyer, and the board agreed to continue to move forward in the process. The board also discussed a new written offer from Mr. Bravo that had been received earlier that day indicating that TCB was now prepared to offer $7.85 per share in cash to acquire the Company, provided that Stephen Wong agree to certain conditions relating to liabilities arising from the review of the Company's historical stock option grant practices. The board again evaluated a number of factors in the context of this revised offer, including the updated financial analysis of Morgan Stanley, the Company's business and strategic direction, the search for a new Chief Executive Officer, and whether the stockholders, including in particular Mr. Wong, would approve the revised offer. The board concluded that it was in the best interests of all of the stockholders that the board further consider TCB's revised offer and that Mr. Wong be approached to determine whether the terms of the revised offer were acceptable to him.

On or about February 28, 2007, Morgan Stanley contacted Mr. Wong and reported on TCB's revised offer to acquire the Company. Mr. Wong indicated that the terms of the revised offer were not acceptable to him. Mr. Wong's response was then relayed to representatives of TCB.

On March 1, 2007, the Company provided NASDAQ with information regarding the results of the Company's review of its stock option grant practices.

On March 2, 2007, TCB contacted Morgan Stanley and indicated that it was considering making a new proposal to acquire the Company either for $7.65 per share or $7.78 per share with certain conditions relating to liabilities arising from the review of the Company's historical stock option grant practices and the related restatements. Morgan Stanley reported to the board regarding this proposal, and the board discussed the matter at a meeting held on March 5, 2007. The board requested that Heller Ehrman talk with Kirkland & Ellis to clarify the terms of TCB's proposal and consult with special Delaware counsel and the SEC regarding various legal and regulatory issues involved with filing a proxy statement to approve a merger given the status of the Special Committee's review and the restatement.

On March 5, 2007, the Special Committee reported to the Board of Directors regarding the findings of its review, which had been substantially completed. In its report, the Special Committee recommended, among other things, that Raj Sabhlok, the Company's Senior Vice President of Operations, either resign or be terminated. On March 9, 2007, O'Melveny & Myers met with the SEC to discuss the Special Committee's review and matters relating thereto.

At a board meeting on March 12, 2007, management reported to the board on further due diligence meetings conducted with TCB. The board also conferred with Morgan Stanley, who indicated that TCB was likely to revise the terms of their potential proposal as a result of their continuing due diligence. The board discussed with Morgan Stanley the likely timing for receipt of a new offer from TCB. The board also discussed the continued search for a new Chief Executive Officer and interviews relating thereto, and began consideration of potential compensation packages in the event a particular candidate was selected.

On March 14, 2007, Mr. Bravo, Mr. Nowak of Kirkland & Ellis, and other representatives of TCB and its advisors met with O'Melveny & Myers and Heller Ehrman, pursuant to the existing nondisclosure agreement, to review the Special Committee's report regarding the findings of its review of the Company's stock option grant practices. Later that day, Kirkland & Ellis met with Heller Ehrman, the Company's litigation counsel, to discuss the stockholder derivative lawsuits filed relating to the Company's stock option grant practices.

On March 16, 2007, the Company submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission a Notification of Late Filing pursuant to Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in respect of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 (the 2006 Form 10-K). The Company reported that the filing had been delayed to enable the Special Committee of the board of directors to complete its review of the Company's historical stock option grant practices.

At a meeting of the board held on March 19, 2007, Morgan Stanley reported that TCB had indicated that it would likely be submitting a revised offer to acquire the Company for $7.55 per share, once TCB had completed final due diligence meetings scheduled for later that week. The board again discussed with Morgan Stanley the status of discussions with the new potential buyer discussed at the board meeting on February 12, 2007, and whether any other potential buyers had indicated interest in beginning discussions. Morgan Stanley reported that the new potential buyer was still at the very initial stages in the process and that no other parties had expressed serious interest in beginning discussions about potential offers to acquire the Company. The board instructed Morgan Stanley to communicate to TCB that any revised offer should be accompanied by a form of merger agreement that TCB would be prepared to sign and included a reduced breakup fee and a revised definition of material adverse effect that excluded any adverse events or consequences from the Special Committee's review or the restatement. Also on March 19, 2007, in an unrelated matter, Mr. Ferruolo moved from Heller Ehrman to Goodwin Procter LLP, and the Company engaged Goodwin Procter as its legal counsel in connection with the transaction.

On March 21, 2007, the Company received an additional Staff Determination Letter from the NASDAQ, stating that the Company was not in compliance with NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(14) because it had not filed the 2006 Form 10-K in a timely manner. The additional Staff Determination Letter indicated that the Company was required to present its views with respect to this additional deficiency to the Panel in writing no later than March 28, 2007.

On March 23, 2007, the board held a meeting and received an update from Morgan Stanley on discussions that had taken place earlier that week with TCB. Morgan Stanley reported that TCB had conducted its final due diligence meetings and had indicated that it would submit an offer to acquire the Company at $7.55 per share. Morgan Stanley also reported to the board on the transaction terms and conditions that Morgan Stanley expected TCB to include in its draft merger agreement. The board again questioned Morgan Stanley regarding the status of the new potential buyer, and Morgan Stanley reported that the new potential buyer had signed the Company's form of confidentiality agreement earlier in the week but had not followed up or scheduled any due diligence meetings with the Company. Morgan Stanley then presented the board with updated financial analysis of the anticipated offer of $7.55 per share and comparable valuation metrics at that price. The board also conferred with Goodwin Procter regarding the expected terms of the merger agreement and legal analysis relating thereto.

On March 24, 2007, Kirkland & Ellis sent a revised draft of the merger agreement to Morgan Stanley and Goodwin Procter, which reflected, among other things, an offer to acquire the Company for $7.55 per share in cash.

On March 25, 2007, the board held a meeting and received reports from Morgan Stanley and Goodwin Procter on TCB's revised offer and the terms of the draft merger agreement that had been received. Morgan Stanley again presented its financial analysis in the context of the offer of $7.55 per share, and the board discussed this analysis and a number of other factors relating to the valuation of the Company. The board also discussed the remaining open issues in the draft merger agreement, including, among others, the size of the breakup fees, the solvency opinion, the closing conditions and the definition of material adverse effect. The board agreed that Samuel Spadafora should communicate the board's position on the open issues to TCB in an effort to resolve those issues. The board also agreed that Mr. Spadafora should communicate to TCB that the board expected the terms of TCB's offer and the open issues to be finally resolved by March 27, which was the date of the next scheduled meeting of the board. Immediately following this meeting, Mr. Spadafora contacted TCB and reported the board's views.

On March 27, 2007, the board met to consider the revised offer and merger agreement from TCB. Mr. Spadafora reported that he believed that the open issues in the merger agreement had been resolved with TCB, including, among others, the size of the breakup fees, the solvency opinion, the closing conditions and the definition of material adverse effect. Mr. Spadafora also indicated that, while TCB was willing to agree to the Company's resolution of the open issues in the merger agreement, TCB had communicated that it was not willing to offer any price above $7.55 per share. Mr. Spadafora also informed the board that TCB required that the Company enter into an employment agreement with Raj Sabhlok to be effective upon the closing of the merger and that Mr. Sabhlok also be retained by the Company in his current position until closing. Morgan Stanley then updated the board as to its financial analysis of the proposed offer and the status of discussions with the new potential buyer, which had not progressed. Morgan Stanley then informed the board of directors that it was prepared to issue its fairness opinion on the revised offer of $7.55 per share. Goodwin Procter then described for the board the material terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the provisions enabling the board of directors to accept a superior proposal, if one should be presented after signing the merger agreement, and terminate the agreement upon the payment of a termination fee, which had been reduced to $5,000,000. Goodwin Procter again advised the board of its fiduciary duties in the context of considering the proposed offer. Morgan Stanley then delivered its fairness opinion orally to the board of directors, that was to be confirmed subsequently in writing, that, as of March 27, 2007 and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations to its opinion, the merger consideration of $7.55 per share to be received by holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view. The board of directors then approved the merger agreement and related documents, subject to any changes or additions thereto as approved by Michael Roberts, lead director, and determined to recommend that the Company's stockholders adopt the merger agreement, by a vote of four-to-one, with Frank M. Polestra voting against the matter. The board authorized Michael Shahbazian, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, and Timothy Chou and Samuel Spadafora, members of the Management Oversight Committee, to execute and deliver documents on behalf of the Company.

During the course of the day on March 28, 2007, Kirkland & Ellis and Goodwin Procter had a series of conversations regarding final revisions to the merger agreement and the related ancillary documents. Also discussed were severance obligations that would be payable to certain officers of the Company and certain matters relating to the agreements to be entered into with Stephen Wong. Through the course of the evening on March 28, Kirkland & Ellis and Goodwin Procter worked to finalize all of the outstanding documentation, although a few issues remained unresolved, including particularly matters relating to the agreements to be entered into with Stephen Wong. Also on March 28, 2007, the Company responded to the NASDAQ Panel in writing regarding the additional deficiency resulting from its failure to timely file the 2006 Form 10-K.

During the course of the morning on March 29, 2007, Kirkland & Ellis and Goodwin Procter continued to work to finalize the merger agreement and related documentation, and they had a series of conversations with Stephen Wong's legal counsel. As the Company's first quarter was now drawing to a close, it had also come to the attention of Company management that the projected revenues for the first quarter of fiscal 2007 were likely to be significantly lower than previously expected. Company management informed the board of directors of this development. The board of directors then instructed Company management to report these developments to representatives of TCB. The board also determined that another meeting of the board of directors was necessary so that, among other things, management could report to the board on the first quarter developments and the board could evaluate their impact on the proposed transaction.

During the afternoon of March 29, 2007, Raj Sabhlok, the Company's Senior Vice President of Operations went to the San Francisco offices of TCB to discuss the first quarter developments with TCB in person. Samuel Spadafora, as a member of the Management Oversight Committee, participated in the meeting with TCB via telephone. Messrs. Sabhlok and Spadafora presented a report to TCB on the likely revenue numbers for the first quarter, the status of certain larger transactions that had been expected to close and had not, and reviewed the sales pipeline for the rest of the first quarter and into the second quarter of fiscal 2007. At the end of this meeting, Mr. Bravo indicated to Messrs. Sabhlok and Spadafora that TCB would need to consider these developments and their impact on the proposed merger.

Later that evening, the board held a meeting to review with Company management the first quarter revenues. Messrs. Sabhlok and Spadafora repeated for the entire board the report that had been presented to TCB. The board asked questions of Company management regarding the first quarter results and reviewed in detail with Company management the status of particular customer contracts and the projected sales pipeline. The board also discussed with management the extent to which the results were affected by the Special Committee's review, the recent departure of key personnel, the merger negotiations and other extraordinary events, or whether the results reflected longer-term trends. The board also reviewed with management the prospects for the second quarter and the remainder of 2007. The board then met in executive session and consulted with Morgan Stanley about the likely impact of the first quarter results on the valuation of the Company and the proposed transaction. The board also discussed the status of discussions with the leading candidate to fill the position of Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

On April 2, 2007, the board held a meeting to discuss the status of the transaction and discussions with the leading candidate for Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Goodwin Procter reported to the board that TCB and their counsel had not communicated their position on the first quarter developments and their impact on the transaction remained uncertain. The board then discussed the steps necessary to move forward with the candidate for Chief Executive Officer of the Company. Following this discussion, the CEO candidate was invited to join the meeting and he presented his views on the state of the business, its outlook, the industry generally, and what steps he would recommend if the board determined to remain an independent company. The board then met in executive session to discuss the candidate and the strategy of remaining an independent company.

Late in the day on April 3, 2007, Kirkland & Ellis sent via email to Morgan Stanley and Goodwin Procter a revised merger agreement and revised ancillary documents that reflected an offer to acquire the Company for $7.20 per share. The revised documents were accompanied by signature pages that had been executed by TCB, to be held in escrow by the Company's counsel pending the board of directors' approval of the transaction on the revised terms. The message indicated that the offer proposed was conditioned on acceptance of all of the documents as revised, and that the offer was the final and best offer of TCB. The message further indicated that the offer would remain open for acceptance until 11:59 p.m., Pacific time, on April 4, 2007, at which time, if not accepted, the offer would be automatically withdrawn.

The board of directors then convened a meeting on April 4, 2007 to evaluate the proposed offer. Goodwin Procter again summarized for the board the material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the ancillary documents, including the price of $7.20 per share. The board discussed a number of issues and factors relating to the proposed transaction, including matters relating to the agreements to be executed by Stephen Wong. It was noted that Stephen Wong and TCB had not come to final agreement on the terms of his Voting Agreement. The board of directors then agreed that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, and for the certainty of completing the transaction, if and when agreed to by the board of directors, that these matters with Stephen Wong be resolved and that Stephen Wong agree to deliver a Voting Agreement. The board accordingly deferred action on TCB's offer pending resolution of those issues. In an unrelated matter, the board of directors also learned during this meeting that the Company had been notified earlier in the day that a third stockholder derivative lawsuit had been filed against the Company, its directors and certain current and former executive officers in connection with the Company's historical stock option grant practices. The board instructed Goodwin Procter to inform TCB and Kirkland & Ellis of the filing of this suit.

Immediately following this meeting, Goodwin Procter informed Kirkland & Ellis of the existence of the third stockholder derivative lawsuit and provided Kirkland & Ellis with a copy of the filed complaint. Kirkland & Ellis then notified Goodwin Procter that TCB's offer was temporarily withdrawn, pending their review of the filed complaint. Goodwin Procter then notified the board of directors of this development. Mr. Roberts also communicated to Stephen Wong that the board of directors would not consider approving the transaction in the absence of a Voting Agreement from Mr. Wong.

On the morning of April 5, 2007, Stephen Wong and his attorneys indicated that Mr. Wong would sign a Voting Agreement in the form proposed by TCB. Kirkland & Ellis also sent via email to Morgan Stanley and Goodwin Procter copies of the merger agreement and ancillary documents that were substantially identical to the versions sent on April 3, 2007 and continued to reflect an offer to acquire the Company for $7.20 per share in cash. The message included signature pages executed by TCB, to be held in escrow by the Company's counsel pending the board of directors' approval of the transaction on the proposed terms, and indicated that the prior offer was re-proposed and would remain open for acceptance until 5:00 p.m., Pacific time that day.

The board of directors then convened a meeting on the afternoon of April 5, 2007 to consider TCB's offer. Goodwin Procter again summarized for the board of directors the material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and the ancillary documents, which remained substantially unchanged. It was also reported that Mr. Wong had agreed to sign a Voting Agreement in the form proposed by TCB. Morgan Stanley then informed the board of directors that it had revised its financial analysis of the offer, taking into account the lower first quarter revenues and the prospects for the second quarter and the remainder of 2007. The board considered and discussed Morgan Stanley's revised financial analysis and the concerns regarding the potential for lower revenues for the balance of fiscal 2007 in light of lower recent license revenue results and projections relating thereto. Morgan Stanley then indicated to the board of directors that it was prepared to issue its fairness opinion on the revised offer. Goodwin Procter then reviewed the board of directors' fiduciary duties in the context of considering the proposed offer. Goodwin Procter also summarized the provisions in the merger agreement, including those enabling the board of directors to accept a superior proposal, if one should be presented after signing the merger agreement, and the reduced termination fee in connection therewith. Morgan Stanley then delivered its fairness opinion orally to the board of directors, which was confirmed subsequently in writing, that, as of April 5, 2007, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations to its opinion, the merger consideration of $7.20 per share to be received by holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view. The board of directors then approved the merger agreement and related documents, and determined to recommend that our stockholders adopt the merger agreement, by a vote of four-to-one, with Frank M. Polestra voting against the matter. The board authorized Michael Shahbazian, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, and Timothy Chou and Samuel Spadafora, members of the Management Oversight Committee, to execute and deliver documents on behalf of the Company.

The merger agreement and related documents were executed and delivered on behalf of the Company by Michael Shahbazian on the evening of April 5, 2007, and the parties issued a joint press release on April 6, 2007.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

Our board of directors has approved the merger agreement and related documents, and determined that the merger, on the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, is fair to, advisable and in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders. As described below under "Other Agreements - Voting Agreements," each of Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover has agreed to vote all shares of Embarcadero common stock that he currently holds and subsequently acquires in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. Our board of directors considered a number of factors, as more fully described above under "The Merger - Background of the Merger" and below under "The Merger - Reasons for the Board's Recommendation," in determining to recommend that the stockholders adopt the merger agreement. Our board of directors recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Reasons for the Board's Recommendation

In reaching its conclusion regarding the fairness of the merger to the stockholders and its decision to approve the merger agreement and recommend its adoption by our stockholders, our board of directors considered the following factors, each of which the board believes supported its conclusion but which are not listed in any relative order of importance:

the board's belief that we face several challenges in our efforts to increase stockholder value as an independent publicly-traded company, including competition from companies with substantially greater scale, declining valuation multiples in our market sector and that our long-term efforts to address these and other concerns are made more difficult by the short-term focus of the public equity markets on quarterly financial results;

concerns regarding the potential for lower revenues for fiscal 2007 in light of lower recent license revenue results and projections;

projections of the Company's future financial performance prepared by management, together with management's analysis of the Company's financial condition, results of operations and business prospects; the board's knowledge of our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects including our recent financial performance, and the board's belief that the merger is more favorable to our stockholders than any other alternative reasonably available to the Company and our stockholders, including remaining as a standalone public company;

the consideration to be received by our stockholders in the merger and a comparison of similar merger transactions;

the belief that the terms of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties and covenants, and the conditions to their respective obligations, are reasonable and were the product of extensive negotiations between the board and its advisors and TCB and its advisors;

financial analyses and pro forma and other information with respect to Embarcadero presented by Morgan Stanley to the board as discussed below under "Opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated," including Morgan Stanley's fairness opinion that, as of April 5, 2007 and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration of $7.20 per share to be received by holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair from a financial point of view;

the commitments for debt financing contained in the debt commitment letter and for equity financing by TCB and the Investors contained in the equity commitment letter described below under "The Merger Financing of the Merger," which the board believes reduce the risk that the merger will not be completed;

the fact that the merger consideration is all cash, so that the transaction allows our stockholders to realize immediately a fair value, in cash, for their investment and provides such stockholders certainty of value for their shares of Embarcadero common stock;

the fact that the $7.20 per share price to be paid pursuant to the merger represented a 9.08% premium to the average closing price of our common stock over the 30 trading day period prior to and including the date of the board's approval of the merger and a 15% premium to the average closing price of our common stock over the 30 trading day period prior to and including March 6, 2007, which was the day before Chapman Capital made its initial disclosure of its investment in Embarcadero and Chapman Capital's desire for Embarcadero to be sold;

the breadth of the Company's solicitation for indications of interest and the fact that no other proposals were received by the Company;

the fact that, subject to compliance with the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, we are permitted to terminate the merger agreement prior to the completion of the merger in order to approve any alternative transaction proposed by a third party that is a superior proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, upon the prior or concurrent payment to Parent of a $5,000,000 termination fee;

the fact that Thoma Cressey Fund VIII, L.P. has agreed to guarantee the performance by Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. of their obligations under the merger agreement, up to a maximum amount of $5,000,000;

the fact that, pursuant to the terms of their voting agreements, Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover have agreed to vote all shares of Embarcadero common stock that they currently hold or subsequently acquire in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and the related transactions and any matter required to effect those transactions;

Edgar Filing: EMBARCADERO TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEFM14A

the fact that, under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock as of the close of business on the record date of May 1, 2007 is required to adopt the merger agreement; and the availability of appraisal rights to holders of our common stock who comply with all of the required procedures under Delaware law.

The board also considered a variety of potentially negative factors concerning the merger agreement and the merger, including the following factors which are not listed in any relative order of importance:

the possibility that the merger might not be completed and the potential negative effect of public announcement of the merger on our sales and operating results and our ability to attract and retain key management, marketing and technical personnel if the merger is not completed;

the fact that an all cash transaction would be taxable to our stockholders for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

the fact that our stockholders would not participate in any future earnings or growth of Embarcadero and will not benefit from any appreciation in value of Embarcadero;

the fact that certain of our directors and officers may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of our stockholders in general;

the restrictions under the merger agreement on the conduct of our business prior to the completion of the merger; and the fact that we are entering into a merger agreement with two newly formed corporations with essentially no assets and, accordingly, that any remedy in connection with a breach of the merger agreement by Parent or EMBT Merger Corp. may be limited to the amount guaranteed by Thoma Cressey Fund VIII, L.P.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes a number of the factors considered by the board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by the board, the board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weights to the foregoing factors in reaching its conclusion. In addition, individual members of the board gave different weight to different factors and viewed some factors more positively or negatively than others. By a vote of four-to-one, with Frank M. Polestra voting against the matter, the board approved the merger agreement and related documents and determined to recommend that our stockholders adopt the merger agreement based upon the totality of the information presented to and considered by it.

Opinion of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated

Embarcadero retained Morgan Stanley to provide it with financial advisory services and a financial opinion in connection with a possible merger, sale or other business combination. Embarcadero's board of directors selected Morgan Stanley to act as its financial advisor based on Morgan Stanley's qualifications, expertise and reputation and its knowledge of the business and affairs of Embarcadero. At the meeting of the Embarcadero board of directors on April 5, 2007, Morgan Stanley rendered its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of April 5, 2007, and based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the consideration to be received by holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders other than one or more officers of Embarcadero who are investing a portion of their proceeds from the merger in shares of capital stock of EMBT Holdings, Inc.

The full text of the written opinion of Morgan Stanley, dated as of April 5, 2007, is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. The opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Morgan Stanley in rendering its opinion. We encourage you to read the entire opinion carefully. Morgan Stanley's opinion is directed to Embarcadero's board of directors and addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration to be received by holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement as of the date of the opinion. It does not address any other aspects of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Embarcadero common stock as to how to vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting of stockholders. The summary of the opinion of Morgan Stanley set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Morgan Stanley, among other things:

reviewed the merger agreement and certain related documents; and performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as it deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the information supplied or otherwise made available to Morgan Stanley by Embarcadero for the purposes of its opinion. With respect to the financial projections, Morgan Stanley assumed that they had been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best available estimates and judgments of the future financial performance of Embarcadero. Although Morgan Stanley understood that the financial statements of Embarcadero would be restated, for the purposes of this opinion Morgan Stanley reviewed and relied upon, without independent verification, the existing financial statements of Embarcadero available as of April 5, 2007. Morgan Stanley also assumed that the merger would be completed in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement without any waiver, amendment or delay of any terms or conditions including, among other things, that the Parent would obtain financing for the merger. Morgan Stanley relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment by the management of Embarcadero of the validity of, and risks associated with, Embarcadero's existing and future technologies, intellectual property, products and services, and the strategic rationale for the merger. Morgan Stanley assumed that in connection with the receipt of all the necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required for the merger, no delays, limitations, conditions or restrictions would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits expected to be derived in the merger. Morgan Stanley is not a legal, tax or regulatory advisor and relied upon, without independent verification, the assessment of Embarcadero and its legal, tax or regulatory advisors with respect to such matters. Morgan Stanley did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of Embarcadero nor was Morgan Stanley furnished with any such appraisals. Morgan Stanley's opinion was necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Morgan Stanley as of April 5, 2007. Events occurring after April 5, 2007 may affect Morgan Stanley's opinion and the assumptions used in preparing it, and Morgan Stanley has not assumed any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion.

The following is a brief summary of the material analyses performed by Morgan Stanley in connection with its oral opinion and the preparation of its written opinion letter, dated April 5, 2007. The various analyses summarized below were based on the closing price for the common stock of Embarcadero on April 5, 2007, the day of the meeting of Embarcadero's board of directors to consider and approve the merger agreement. Some of these summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses used by Morgan Stanley, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Trading Range Analysis. Morgan Stanley performed a trading range analysis to provide background and perspective with respect to the historical share prices of Embarcadero common stock. Morgan Stanley reviewed the range of closing prices of Embarcadero common stock for various periods ending on April 5, 2007. Morgan Stanley noted that the closing price of Embarcadero's common stock on April 5, 2007, the day Embarcadero's board of directors voted to approve the transaction, was $6.88. Morgan Stanley also observed that on March 7, 2007, Chapman Capital made its initial disclosure of its investment in Embarcadero and Chapman Capital's desire for Embarcadero to be sold. Morgan Stanley observed that, on March 7, 2007, Embarcadero's share price increased 5% to $6.57. Morgan Stanley noted that the unaffected price as of March 6, 2007, prior to the Chapman Capital disclosure, was $6.28.

Morgan Stanley also observed that the twelve month trading period for Embarcadero's common stock for up to and including April 5, 2007 included a period from September 7, 2006 to December 16, 2006 in which Embarcadero and TCB were parties to a merger agreement whereby Embarcadero would be acquired for $8.38 per share of common stock. Morgan Stanley noted that the trading range for Embarcadero's common stock for the twelve month period up to and including April 5, 2007, but excluding the period in which Embarcadero and TCB were parties to a merger agreement whereby Embarcadero would be acquired for $8.38 per share of common stock was $5.40 to $7.60.

The following data summarizes the historical trading range of Embarcadero's common stock, including the actual historical prices and ranges and the price and ranges adjusted to exclude trading prices and ranges incorporating (i) the period subsequent to March 7, 2007 and (ii) the period from April 5, 2006 to March 6, 2007 (Unaffected Prices):

Morgan Stanley observed the following:

Period Ending April 5, 2007	Range of Closing Prices
	Unaffected Prices		Actual
Last 30 Trading Days	$ 6.02	$6.28	$ 6.02	$7.02
Since December 16, 2006	$ 5.80	$6.38	$ 5.80	$7.02
Last 12 Months	$ 5.40	$7.60	$ 5.40	$8.33

Morgan Stanley noted that the consideration per share of $7.20 pursuant to the merger agreement reflected a 15% premium to Embarcadero's closing price on March 6, 2007 and a 15% premium to the average closing price per share of Embarcadero common stock for the 30 trading days prior to and including March 6, 2007. In addition, Morgan Stanley noted that the aggregate value of Embarcadero, defined as market capitalization plus total debt less cash and cash equivalents, based on the consideration per share of $7.20, represented a 26% premium to Embarcadero's aggregate value as of March 6, 2007.

Historical Financial Performance. Morgan Stanley reviewed certain historical annual and quarterly financial results for Embarcadero, excluding certain non-cash expenses and nonrecurring items. Morgan Stanley observed the following:

Financial Statistic	Revenues	Operating	Earnings Per Share
	($ in millions)	Income	($)
CY 2005	$ 57.6	$ 8.7	$ 0.25
CY 2006	$ 60.0	$ 11.8	$ 0.34
Q1 2007	$ 13.3	$ 1.8	$ 0.06

Morgan Stanley observed that this data excluded expenses related to the investigation of Embarcadero's stock option granting practices and associated restatement of Embarcadero's financial results. Including estimates of these expenses, Morgan Stanley noted that Embarcadero's earnings per share for calendar year 2006 and the first quarter of calendar year 2007 were $0.31 and $0.00, respectively.

Table of Contents

Morgan Stanley also observed Embarcadero's historical quarterly license revenues for the last nine quarters up to and including the quarter ended March 31, 2007. A summary of this data is as follows:

License Revenue Statistic

Calendar Year	($ in millions)
Q1 2005	$ 6.1
Q2 2005	$ 6.5
Q3 2005	$ 7.1
Q4 2005	$ 7.8
Q1 2006	$ 6.6
Q2 2006	$ 6.7
Q3 2006	$ 6.4
Q4 2006	$ 6.9
Q1 2007	$ 4.8

Morgan Stanley noted that Embarcadero's license revenue for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 represented a decline of 31% from the license revenue for the quarter ended December 31, 2006 and a 28% decline from the license revenue for the quarter ended March 31, 2006. Morgan Stanley also noted that the license revenue for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 was the lowest of the nine historical quarters reviewed.

Morgan Stanley further noted that Embarcadero's EBITDA, defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (excluding certain non-cash expenses and nonrecurring items), was $13.4 million for the twelve month period ended March 31, 2007. Giving effect to the exclusion of certain costs related to Embarcadero's status as a publicly-traded company on a pro forma basis, Embarcadero's Pro Forma EBITDA would have been $15.4 million for the same twelve month period.

Review of Projected Financial Performance. Morgan Stanley reviewed two cases of Embarcadero's expected future financial performance for calendar year 2007 provided by Embarcadero's management. The Revised Management Case assumed substantial growth in quarterly license revenues for the remainder of calendar 2007 relative to the license revenue for the quarter ended March 31, 2007. The Sensitivity Case assumed more modest growth in quarterly license revenues for the remainder of calendar year 2007 relative to the license revenue for the quarter ended March 31, 2007. Morgan Stanley noted that Embarcadero management's forecast as of April 5, 2007 of license revenue for the quarter ending June 30, 2007 was consistent with the Sensitivity Case Forecast. A summary of the two cases is set forth in the following table:

Ariba, Inc.

Borland Software Corp.

Interwoven, Inc.

IONA Technologies Plc

For purposes of this analysis, Morgan Stanley analyzed the following statistics of each of these companies for comparison purposes:

the ratio of aggregate value, as defined above, to estimated calendar year 2007 revenue (based on publicly available equity research estimates);

the ratio of aggregate value, as defined above, to estimated calendar year 2007 EBITDA (based on publicly available equity research estimates);

the ratio of price to estimated cash earnings per share, defined as net income excluding certain non-cash and non-recurring expenses divided by fully-diluted shares outstanding, for calendar year 2007 (based on publicly available equity research estimates); and the ratio of aggregate value, as defined above, to calendar year 2007 unlevered earnings, defined as earnings before interest and taxes (excluding certain non-cash expenses and nonrecurring items) less the tax that would be paid on such amount based on an estimated effective tax rate.

Based on the analysis of the relevant metrics for each of the comparable companies, Morgan Stanley selected representative ranges of financial multiples and other statistics of the comparable companies and applied this range of multiples and statistics to the relevant Embarcadero financial statistic. For purposes of estimating revenues, EBITDA, unlevered earnings per share and cash earnings per share for calendar year 2007, Morgan Stanley utilized the management Sensitivity Case and Revised Management Case estimates as of April 5, 2007. Morgan Stanley also based its calculations on calendar year 2007 forecasts that both included and excluded restatement expenses related to investigation. Based on Embarcadero's outstanding shares and options as of April 5, 2007, Morgan Stanley estimated the implied value per Embarcadero common share as of April 5, 2007 as follows:

No company utilized in the comparable company analysis is identical to Embarcadero. In evaluating comparable companies, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Embarcadero, such as the impact of competition on the businesses of Embarcadero and the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition and prospects of Embarcadero or the industry or in the financial markets in general. Mathematical analysis (such as determining the average or median) is not in itself a meaningful method of using comparable company data.

Discounted Equity Value Analysis. Morgan Stanley performed a discounted equity value analysis, which is designed to provide insight into the estimated future value of a company's common equity as a function of the company's estimated future earnings and its current forward price to earnings ratio. The resulting value is subsequently discounted to arrive at a present value for such company's stock price. In connection with this analysis, Morgan Stanley calculated a range of present equity values per share of the Common Stock on a standalone basis. To calculate the discounted equity value, Morgan Stanley utilized two calendar year 2008 forecasts based on extrapolations from Revised Management Case and Sensitivity Case estimates. The calendar 2008 forecast was based on two scenarios with assumptions for revenue growth and operating margin. One scenario assumed that Embarcadero revenue in calendar 2008 would be equivalent to revenue in 2007 and that Embarcadero would have a 27% margin of operating income to revenue. The other scenario assumed that Embarcadero's revenue in calendar 2008 would be 10% greater than revenue in 2007 and that Embarcadero would have a 20% margin of operating income to revenue. Morgan Stanley applied a range of price to earnings multiples to these estimates and applied a discount rate of 12% to derive ranges of future values per share.

The following table summarizes Morgan Stanley's analysis:

Calendar Year 2008E	Earnings Per Share	Comparable Company Multiple Range		Implied Value Per Share of Embarcadero
Sensitivity Case
2008E Earnings Per Share (0% Revenue Growth / 27% Operating Margin)	$ 0.45	15.0x	17.0x	$ 6.06	$6.87

For each transaction noted above, Morgan Stanley reviewed the aggregate value to last twelve months EBITDA defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (excluding certain non-cash expenses and nonrecurring items) of the subject company. Morgan Stanley applied a range of these ratios to Embarcadero's last twelve months EBITDA, both excluding and including expenses related to restatement. The following table summarizes Morgan Stanley's analysis:

Precedent Transaction Financial Statistic	Reference Range		Implied Value Per Share		Embarcadero Merger Statistic
Aggregate Value to Last Twelve Months EBITDA excluding restatement expenses	7.0x	14.0x	$ 6.09	$9.33	9.4x
Aggregate Value to Last Twelve Months EBITDA including restatement expenses	7.0x	14.0x	$ 5.19	$7.59	12.8x

No company or transaction utilized in the precedent transaction analysis is identical to Embarcadero or the merger. In evaluating the precedent transactions, Morgan Stanley made judgments and assumptions with regard to general business, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of Embarcadero, such as the impact of competition on the business of Embarcadero or the industry generally, industry growth and the absence of any adverse material change in the financial condition of Embarcadero or the industry or in the financial markets in general, which could affect the public trading value of the companies and the aggregate value of the transactions to which they are being compared.

Leveraged Buyout Analysis. Morgan Stanley also analyzed Embarcadero from the perspective of a potential purchaser that was primarily a financial buyer that would effect a leveraged buyout of Embarcadero using a ratio of debt to last twelve months EBITDA consistent with the ratio of debt to last twelve months EBITDA expected upon completion of the merger. Morgan Stanley observed the transaction prices per share that would be necessary for an acquirer to achieve certain internal rates of return assuming a 2011 exit of the investor's investment. The analysis assumed (i) the Sensitivity Case and Revised Management Case through calendar year 2007, and extrapolations to the Sensitivity Case and Revised Management Case for calendar years 2008 to 2011, (ii) realization of the equity investment through the sale of 100% of Embarcadero at the end of calendar 2011 at a valuation of 7.0x - 9.0x 2011 EBITDA for both the Sensitivity Case and the Revised Management Case, and (iii) an investor's targeted internal rate of return of 20% - 30% for the Sensitivity Case and the Management Upside Case assuming a 2011 exit of the investor's investment. These ranges are detailed below:

Leveraged Buyout Analysis Forecast Case	Internal Rate of Return Range		Implied Value Per Share of Embarcadero
Sensitivity Case	20%	30%	$ 6.43	$7.41
Revised Management Case	20%	30%	$ 6.52	$7.55

In connection with the review of the merger by Embarcadero's board of directors, Morgan Stanley performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses for purposes of rendering its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Morgan Stanley considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor it considered. Morgan Stanley believes that selecting any portion of its analyses, without considering all analyses as a whole, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, Morgan Stanley may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors, and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Morgan Stanley's view of the actual value of Embarcadero. In performing its analyses, Morgan Stanley made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters. Many of these assumptions are beyond the control of Embarcadero. Any estimates contained in Morgan Stanley's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates.

Morgan Stanley conducted the analyses described above solely as part of its analysis of the fairness of the consideration pursuant to the merger agreement from a financial point of view to holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock and in connection with the delivery of its opinion, dated April 5, 2007, to Embarcadero's board of directors. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which shares of common stock of Embarcadero might actually trade.

The consideration was determined through arm's length negotiations between Embarcadero and the Parent and was approved by Embarcadero's board of directors. Morgan Stanley provided advice to Embarcadero's board of directors during these negotiations. Morgan Stanley did not, however, recommend any specific merger consideration to Embarcadero or its board of directors or that any specific merger consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger.

Morgan Stanley's opinion and its presentation to Embarcadero's board of directors was one of many factors taken into consideration by Embarcadero's board of directors in deciding to approve the merger agreement. Consequently, the analyses as described above should not be viewed as determinative of the opinion of Embarcadero's board of directors with respect to the merger consideration or of whether Embarcadero's board of directors would have been willing to agree to a different merger consideration. The foregoing summary describes the material analyses performed by Morgan Stanley but does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Morgan Stanley.

Embarcadero's board of directors retained Morgan Stanley based upon Morgan Stanley's qualifications, experience and expertise. Morgan Stanley is an internationally recognized investment banking and advisory firm. Morgan Stanley, as part of its investment banking and financial advisory business, is continuously engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate, estate and other purposes. In the ordinary course of Morgan Stanley's trading and brokerage activities, Morgan Stanley or its affiliates may at any time hold long or short positions, may trade or otherwise effect transactions, for its own account or for the account of customers in the equity and other securities of Embarcadero, TCB or any other parties, commodities or currencies involved in the merger. In addition, Morgan Stanley, its affiliates, directors or officers, including individuals working with Embarcadero in connection with the merger, may have committed and may commit in the future to invest in private equity funds managed by affiliates of TCB.

Under the terms of its engagement letter, Morgan Stanley provided Embarcadero financial advisory services and a financial opinion in connection with the merger, and Embarcadero has agreed to pay Morgan Stanley a fee of approximately $3.0 million for its services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Embarcadero has also agreed to reimburse Morgan Stanley for other expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in performing its services. In addition, Embarcadero has agreed to indemnify Morgan Stanley and any of its affiliates, their respective directors, officers, agents and employees and each person, if any, controlling Morgan Stanley or any of its affiliates against certain liabilities and expenses, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws, relating to or arising out of Morgan Stanley's engagement and any related transactions.

Financing of the Merger

TCB estimates that the total amount of funds required to pay the aggregate merger consideration in connection with the merger will be approximately $200,000,000. TCB expects this amount, together with the related working capital requirements of Embarcadero following the completion of the merger, to be provided through a combination of the proceeds of the following:

an aggregate cash equity investment in EMBT Holdings, Inc. by TCB, Thoma Cressey Fund VIII, L.P. and other potential co-investors (which may include other affiliates of TCB), which we refer to in this proxy statement as the Investors, of up to approximately $52,000,000;

new senior secured credit facilities in the aggregate amount of $100,000,000, consisting of two term loans in the amounts of $65,000,000 and $25,000,000, respectively, and a $10,000,000 revolving credit facility; and cash and cash equivalents held by Embarcadero and its subsidiaries.

The shares of EMBT Merger Corp. will convert into shares of the surviving corporation as a result of the merger.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Stock Options

All outstanding options to purchase Embarcadero common stock, including those held by our directors and executive officers, will accelerate and become fully vested immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and in the case of any options having an exercise price less than $7.20 per share, will entitle the holder thereof to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Embarcadero common stock subject to the option, multiplied by (ii) the excess of $7.20 over the exercise price per share, less applicable withholding taxes. Certain options granted to our directors and executive officers were repriced in connection with the Special Committee's review of the Company's stock option grant practices, and these options were cancelled in connection with the execution of the merger agreement. In addition, at the request of Parent, our board of directors amended our Amended and Restated 2000 Nonemployee Directors Stock Option Plan in April 2007 to suspend scheduled quarterly grants of stock options to nonemployee directors until such time as the merger is completed or the merger agreement is terminated. See Beneficial Ownership of the Company's Stock on page 66.

Restricted Stock

All outstanding shares of restricted Embarcadero common stock, including 25,000 shares held by Mr. Sabhlok and 43,750 shares held by Mr. Shahbazian, will accelerate and become fully vested immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and any repurchase option will lapse, after which each such share will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest.

Change in Control Benefits

In October 2005, we entered into an employment agreement with Michael Shahbazian, our Chief Financial Officer. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Shahbazian received inducement grants of an option to purchase, at $6.53 per share, 200,000 shares of our common stock and 100,000 shares of restricted common stock, subject to certain time-based vesting provisions. Under the terms of the employment agreement, all unvested stock options and restricted common stock held by Mr. Shahbazian will become fully vested upon the completion of the merger and the termination of his employment as Chief Financial Officer after the merger. In addition, the Company will continue to pay Mr. Shahbazian's base salary, which is currently set at $240,000 per year, for a period of 12 months following his termination, and COBRA health care insurance during such 12 month period. Mr. Shahbazian will also be entitled to receive a pro rata portion of his annual target bonus up to the date of termination. On April 5, 2007, in connection with the approval of the merger agreement, our board of directors also approved the payment by the Company to Mr. Shahbazian of a one-time transaction bonus in the amount of $100,000 in cash, which will be payable in full upon the consummation of the merger.

In February 2007, we adopted a Change of Control Policy (the Policy) that currently applies to Wayne Williams, our Chief Technology Officer, Greg Davoll, our Vice President of Marketing, Greg Keller, our Vice President of Product Management, and Scott Schoonover, our Vice President, Worldwide Sales. As applied to Mr. Williams, the Policy provides that if the Company terminates his employment for any reason other than for cause, or if Mr. Williams terminates his employment for good reason, as defined in the Policy, within twelve months following the consummation of the merger, the Company will be required to provide Mr. Williams with one year annual base salary, immediate vesting upon the termination date of any outstanding equity awards, and continued medical benefits for up to twelve months following the termination date. As applied to any of Messrs. Davoll, Keller and Schoonover, the Policy provides that if the Company terminates his employment for any reason other than for cause, or if any of Messrs. Davoll, Keller or Schoonover terminates his employment for good reason, as defined in the Policy, within twelve months following the consummation of the merger, the Company will be required to provide him with six months base salary, immediate vesting upon the termination date of any outstanding equity awards, and continued medical benefits for up to six months following the termination date.

Indemnification and Insurance

As a condition to the consummation of the merger, Parent or the surviving corporation is required to obtain a directors and officers insurance policy that provides for coverage for acts or omissions of the existing directors and executive officers of the Company occurring prior to the effective time of the merger. As the surviving corporation, Embarcadero is also required after completion of the merger to maintain this insurance policy and certain indemnification policies applicable to such existing directors and executive officers of the Company for a period of six years following the effective time of the merger. See The Merger Agreement Indemnification beginning on page 57.

Positions with the Surviving Corporation

In connection with the merger agreement, Raj Sabhlok, our current Senior Vice President of Operations, has entered into a new employment agreement that will become effective upon completion of the merger. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Sabhlok will become the Chief Executive Officer of the surviving corporation. In its report to the Company's board of directors regarding its review of the Company's historical stock option grant practices, the Special Committee recommended, among other things, that Mr. Sabhlok either resign or be terminated, and the board accepted this recommendation. Parent required the Company to continue to employ Mr. Sabhlok as a condition to entering into the merger agreement and also required the Company to enter into the employment agreement with Mr. Sabhlok that is to become effective upon consummation of the merger. On May 23, 2007, the Company's board of directors determined that Mr. Sabhlok should either resign or be terminated upon the earlier of the termination of the merger agreement or July 16, 2007, in the event that the merger has not been consummated by that date.

The employment agreement provides, among other things, for severance payments to Mr. Sabhlok in the event of termination of his employment under certain circumstances. In addition, Mr. Sabhlok will be entitled, subject to various time-based and performance-based conditions, to receive equity incentive awards in EMBT Holdings, Inc. upon completion of the merger. We expect that Mr. Sabhlok will also enter into a non-competition agreement with the surviving corporation prior to completion of the merger. We also expect that Scott Schoonover, Greg Davoll, Greg Keller and Wayne Williams, our Vice President, Worldwide Sales, Vice President, Marketing, Vice President, Product Management, and Chief Technology Officer respectively, will enter into employment agreements and non-competition agreements with the surviving corporation prior to the completion of the merger and that each will continue to serve in such positions with the surviving corporation following the merger. See Other Agreements Employment Agreements on page 62 and Other Agreements Non-Competition Agreements on page 63. We further expect that Michael Shahbazian, our Chief Financial Officer, will resign following the merger and will not continue to serve with the surviving corporation. Upon the termination of Mr. Shahbazian's employment, he will be entitled to receive certain benefits. See The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger Change in Control Benefits on page 37.

Equity Investment in EMBT Holdings, Inc.

Pursuant to his employment agreement, upon completion of the merger, Mr. Sabhlok is entitled to invest $720,000 of his proceeds from the merger in shares of capital stock of EMBT Holdings, Inc., representing approximately 1.28% of the equity capital of that company, on the same terms as TCB and the other Investors. See Other Agreements Employment Agreements on page 62.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discusses, subject to the limitations stated below, the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders of Embarcadero common stock whose shares of common stock are converted into the right to receive cash pursuant to the merger (whether upon the receipt of the merger consideration or pursuant to the proper exercise of appraisal rights). Non-U.S. holders of our common stock may have different tax consequences than those described below and are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the tax treatment to them under U.S. and non-U.S. tax laws. We base this summary on the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the Code, applicable current and proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations, judicial authority, and administrative rulings and practice. All of the above are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis, and we do not undertake to advise you of any changes in applicable law that occur after the date of the merger.

This summary does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular stockholders in light of their individual circumstances, nor to certain types of holders who are subject to special treatment under the federal income tax laws, such as tax-exempt organizations; insurance companies; financial institutions; persons subject to alternative minimum tax; broker-dealers; persons who do not hold their shares of Embarcadero common stock as a capital asset; persons who hold stock as part of a hedge, appreciated financial position, straddle or conversion transaction; persons whose functional currency is not the United States dollar; persons who acquired their Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation; and persons who are not U.S. holders. In addition, the following discussion does not address foreign, state or local tax considerations, the tax consequences of transactions effected before or subsequent to or concurrently with the merger (whether or not these transactions are in connection with the merger), including transactions in which shares of EMBT Holdings, Inc. are acquired by any stockholder or former stockholder. Accordingly, holders of shares of Embarcadero common stock are urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of the merger in light of their particular circumstances, including the applicable federal, state, local and foreign tax laws.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of Embarcadero common stock that is:

a citizen or individual resident of the U.S. for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the U.S. or any State or the District of Columbia;

a trust if it (1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the U.S. and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

The U.S. federal income taxes of a partner in a partnership holding our common stock will depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partners in a partnership holding shares of our common stock should consult their own tax advisors.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the merger (whether as merger consideration or pursuant to the proper exercise of appraisal rights) by U.S. holders of our common stock will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In general, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, a U.S. holder of our common stock will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between:

the amount of cash received in exchange for such common stock and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such common stock.

Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss. If the holding period of the common stock surrendered in the merger is greater than one year as of the date of the merger, the gain or loss on that stock will be long-term capital gain or loss. The deductibility of a capital loss recognized on the exchange is subject to limitations under the Code. Certain U.S. holders, including individuals, are eligible for preferential rates of U.S. federal income tax in respect of long-term capital gains. If you acquired different blocks of our common stock at different times and different prices, you must calculate your gain or loss and determine your adjusted tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of our common stock.

Under the Code, as a U.S. holder of our common stock, you may be subject to information reporting on the cash received pursuant to the merger unless an exemption applies. Backup withholding may also apply (currently at a rate of 28%) with respect to the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger. In general, backup withholding is not required if you provide us with a valid taxpayer identification number, and otherwise comply with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be refunded or credited against your U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that you furnish the required information to the Internal Revenue Service in a timely manner.

Accounting Treatment

The merger is intended to be accounted for as a purchase under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Accordingly, it is expected that the basis of Embarcadero in its assets and liabilities will be adjusted to fair market value on completion of the merger, including the establishment of goodwill.

Regulatory Approvals

The Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 and related rules, or the HSR Act, provide that transactions such as the merger may not be completed until certain information has been submitted to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Embarcadero and the parent of EMBT Merger Corp. made the required filings with the Antitrust Division and the Federal Trade Commission on September 22, 2006, and we received notice of earlier termination of the applicable waiting period on October 2, 2006. Such notice of earlier termination of the applicable waiting period from the Federal Trade Commission is effective for a period of 12 months from receipt thereof.

At any time before or after completion of the merger, the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice or the Federal Trade Commission may, however, challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. Private parties could take antitrust action under the antitrust laws and seek an injunction prohibiting or delaying the merger, divestiture or damages under certain circumstances. Additionally, at any time before or after completion of the merger, notwithstanding the expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period, any state could take action under its antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger will not be made or that, if a challenge is made, Embarcadero and EMBT Merger Corp. will prevail.

Except as noted above with respect to the required filings under the HSR Act and the filing of a certificate of merger in Delaware at or before the effective date of the merger, we are unaware of any material federal, state or foreign regulatory requirements or approvals required for the execution of the merger agreement or completion of the merger.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Time, Place and Purpose of the Special Meeting

This proxy statement is being furnished to our stockholders as part of the solicitation of proxies by our board of directors for use at the special meeting to be held on Friday, June 22, 2007, at 10:00 a.m., local time, at Embarcadero's principal executive offices located at 100 California Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111. The purpose of the special meeting is for our stockholders to consider and vote upon a proposal to adopt the merger agreement, to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the meeting to adopt the merger agreement and to act upon other matters and transact other business, as may properly come before the meeting. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A. This proxy statement, the notice of the special meeting and the enclosed form of proxy are first being mailed to our stockholders on or about May 31, 2007.

Record Date, Quorum and Voting Power

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of Embarcadero common stock at the close of business on May 1, 2007, the record date for the special meeting. Each outstanding share of Embarcadero common stock on the record date entitles the holder to one vote on each matter submitted to stockholders for approval at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were 26,134,970 shares of Embarcadero common stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting.

The holders of a majority of the outstanding common stock on the record date, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for purposes of the special meeting. A quorum is necessary to hold the special meeting. Once a share is represented at the special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum at the special meeting and any adjournment of the special meeting. However, if a new record date is set for the adjourned special meeting, then a new quorum will have to be established.

Required Vote

For us to complete the merger, stockholders holding at least a majority of the shares of Embarcadero common stock outstanding at the close of business on the record date must vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. The proposal to adjourn the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote on the matter at the special meeting.

In order for your shares of Embarcadero common stock to be included in the vote, if you are a stockholder of record, you must cause your shares to be voted by returning the enclosed proxy, by submitting a proxy over the Internet or by telephone, as indicated on the proxy card, or by voting in person at the special meeting.

If your shares are held in street name by your broker, you should instruct your broker how to vote your shares using the instructions provided by your broker. If you have not received such voting instructions or require further information regarding such voting instructions, contact your broker and it can give you directions on how to vote your shares. A broker non-vote generally occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares on your behalf does not vote on a proposal because the nominee has not received your voting instructions and lacks discretionary power to vote the shares. Broker non-votes and abstentions will not count as votes cast on a proposal, but will count for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

Broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the adoption of the merger agreement. Abstentions will also have the same effect as a vote against the adjournment of the meeting. Broker non-votes will not have an effect on the vote with respect to the adjournment.

Voting by Directors and Executive Officers

As of May 1, 2007, the record date, the directors and executive officers of Embarcadero held and are entitled to vote, in the aggregate, 305,955 shares of Embarcadero common stock, representing approximately 1.17% of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock. Stephen Wong, Embarcadero's former Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer held, as of the record date, and is entitled to vote 4,385,000 shares of Embarcadero common stock, representing approximately 16.78% of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock. Pursuant to the terms of the voting agreements described elsewhere in this proxy statement, each of Stephen Wong, Raj Sabhlok, Embarcadero's Senior Vice President of Operations, Michael Shahbazian, Embarcadero's Chief Financial Officer, Wayne Williams, Embarcadero's Chief Technology Officer and Scott Schoonover, Embarcadero's Vice President, Worldwide Sales, has agreed to vote, or cause to be voted or consented, all of his shares of Embarcadero common stock currently held or subsequently acquired, if any, in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. As of the record date, the voting agreements executed by Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover cover an aggregate of 4,775,955 shares of Embarcadero common stock, representing approximately 18.27% of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock. In addition to the shares Messrs. Wong, Sabhlok, Shahbazian, Williams and Schoonover have agreed to vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement pursuant to the voting agreements, the affirmative vote of holders of Embarcadero common stock representing at least 8,291,531 shares of Embarcadero common stock, or approximately 31.73% of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock, will be required to adopt the merger agreement.

Proxies; Revocation

If you submit a signed proxy, or submit a proxy over the Internet or by telephone as indicated on the proxy card, your shares will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions given. If no instructions are indicated on your signed proxy card, your shares will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and FOR adjournment of the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the meeting to adopt the merger agreement, and in accordance with the recommendations of the board of directors on any other matters properly brought before the meeting for a vote.

You may revoke your proxy at any time before the vote is taken at the special meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must either advise our Corporate Secretary in writing, deliver a new proxy or submit another proxy over the Internet or by telephone, in each case dated after the date of the proxy you wish to revoke, or attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person. Attendance at the special meeting will not by itself constitute revocation of a proxy.

If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares, the above-described options for revoking your proxy do not apply and instead you must follow the directions provided by your broker to change these instructions.

Embarcadero does not expect that any matter other than the proposal to adopt the merger agreement will be brought before the special meeting (other than adjournment of the meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the meeting to adopt the merger agreement). If, however, another matter is properly presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, the persons appointed as proxies will vote the shares in accordance with the recommendation of our board of directors.

Proxy Solicitation; Expenses of Proxy Solicitation

Embarcadero will pay the cost of this proxy solicitation. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, directors, officers and employees of Embarcadero may solicit proxies personally and by telephone, facsimile, Internet or other electronic means of communication. These persons will not receive additional or special compensation for such solicitation services. Embarcadero will, upon request, reimburse brokers, banks and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners and obtaining their voting instructions.

Adjournments

Any adjournment may be made without notice by an announcement made at the special meeting by the chairman of the meeting, subject to applicable law. If persons named as proxies by you are asked to vote for one or more adjournments of the meeting for matters incidental to the conduct of the meeting, such persons will have the authority to vote in accordance with the recommendation of our board of directors on such matters. However, if persons named as proxies by you are asked to vote for one or more adjournments of the meeting to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the meeting to adopt the merger agreement, such persons will only have the authority to vote on such matter as instructed by you or your proxy, or, if no instructions are provided on your signed proxy card, in favor of such adjournment. Any adjournment of the special meeting for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies will allow Embarcadero stockholders who have already sent in their proxies to revoke them at any time prior to their use.

PROPOSAL NO. 1 THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Effective Time

The merger will become effective at the effective time. The term "effective time" means the date and time at which the certificate of merger is filed with the Delaware Secretary of State, or at a later date and time agreed upon by us, EMBT Merger Corp. and Parent and specified in the certificate of merger. Embarcadero intends that the filing of the certificate of merger will occur as soon as practicable after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the merger described in the merger agreement.

Structure

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, at the effective time of the merger, EMBT Merger Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent and a party to the merger agreement, will merge with and into Embarcadero, and each issued and outstanding share of common stock of EMBT Merger Corp. will be converted into one share of common stock of the surviving corporation. Embarcadero will survive the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. The merger will have the effects described in the merger agreement and in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

Treatment of Stock and Options

If the merger is completed, each share of Embarcadero common stock issued and outstanding immediately before the effective time of the merger will be cancelled and converted automatically into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest, except for shares held by us or any of our subsidiaries, or shares held by Parent, which shares will be cancelled without payment, and shares held by stockholders who are entitled to and who properly exercise and perfect appraisal rights in compliance with all of the required procedures under Delaware law.

Immediately prior to the effective time, each outstanding option to purchase shares of Embarcadero common stock, including unvested options, will accelerate and become fully vested. At the effective time, any options having an exercise price equal to or greater than $7.20 per share will be cancelled without payment, and any options having an exercise price less than $7.20 per share will entitle the holder of such options to receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (i) the total number of shares of Embarcadero common stock subject to the option, multiplied by (ii) the excess of $7.20 over the exercise price per share of Embarcadero common stock underlying such option, less any applicable withholding taxes. Each of the Company's equity incentive plans will be terminated upon completion of the merger, and Embarcadero has agreed to ensure that no participant in any of the Company's equity incentive plans will have any right to acquire any equity securities of the Company, the surviving corporation or any of its respective subsidiaries after completion of the merger.

Treatment of Restricted Stock

If any share of restricted Embarcadero common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger is unvested or subject to a repurchase option, then, effective immediately prior to the completion of the merger, any such share of restricted common stock will accelerate and become fully vested and any repurchase option will lapse. Thereafter, each such share will be converted into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

At the effective time of the merger, Parent will deposit an amount of cash sufficient to pay the merger consideration to each holder of shares of Embarcadero common stock with Mellon Investor Services LLC, which we refer to as the "paying agent." As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, the paying agent will mail a letter of transmittal and instructions to each holder of Embarcadero common stock. The letter of transmittal and instructions will tell the stockholders how to surrender their Embarcadero common stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration.

Stockholders will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration until they surrender their Embarcadero common stock certificate or certificates to the paying agent, together with a duly completed and executed letter of transmittal and any other documents as the paying agent may reasonably require. The merger consideration may be paid to a person other than the person in whose name the corresponding certificate is registered if the certificate is presented to the paying agent, accompanied by documents evidencing such transfer of ownership and the payment of transfer taxes.

No interest will be paid or will accrue on the cash payable upon surrender of the certificates. Each of the paying agent and the surviving corporation will be entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable taxes from the merger consideration otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement to any holder of common stock of Embarcadero and holders of Embarcadero stock options and pay such withholding amount over to the appropriate taxing authority.

After the effective time of the merger, our share transfer books will be closed, and there will be no further registration of transfers of outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock. If, after the effective time of the merger, certificates are presented to the surviving corporation for any reason, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration, subject to the applicable Delaware law.

None of Parent, the surviving corporation or EMBT Merger Corp. will be liable to any holder of shares of Common Stock of Embarcadero for any part of the merger consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any portion of the merger consideration deposited with the paying agent that remains unclaimed by holders of any such shares for two years after the effective time of the merger or at such earlier date immediately before the time at which such amounts would otherwise escheat to, or become property of, any governmental entity, to the extent permitted by applicable law, will become property of the surviving corporation.

If any stockholder has lost a certificate, or if it has been stolen or destroyed, then the stockholder will be required to make an affidavit of that fact, and may be required to post a bond in a reasonable amount or execute an indemnity agreement, at the reasonable direction of Parent or the surviving corporation, before the stockholder will be entitled to receive the merger consideration.

Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

At the effective time of the merger, the certificate of incorporation of Embarcadero will be amended to read as set forth in Exhibit B to the merger agreement, which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A, and as so amended will be the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation. In addition, at the effective time of the merger, the bylaws of the surviving corporation will read as set forth in Exhibit C to the merger agreement. The name of the surviving corporation will continue to be Embarcadero Technologies, Inc.

Directors and Officers

At the effective time of the merger, the directors of EMBT Merger Corp. will become the directors of the surviving corporation. Raj Sabhlok, our current Senior Vice President of Operations, will become Chief Executive Officer of the surviving corporation effective upon completion of the merger. We expect that Scott Schoonover, Greg Davoll, Greg Keller and Wayne Williams, our Vice President, Worldwide Sales, Vice President, Marketing, Vice President, Product Management, and Chief Technology Officer respectively, will enter into employment agreements with the surviving corporation prior to the completion of the merger and that each will continue to serve in such positions with the surviving corporation following the merger. We also expect that Michael Shahbazian, our Chief Financial Officer, will resign following the merger and will not continue to serve with the surviving corporation. Upon the termination of Mr. Shahbazian's employment, he will be entitled to certain benefits. See The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger Change in Control Benefits on page 37.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that Embarcadero, Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. have made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Annex A and which is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement are complicated and not easily summarized. You are urged to read carefully and in their entirety the sections of the merger agreement entitled Representations and Warranties of the Company and Representations and Warranties of Parent and Merger Sub in Annex A to this proxy statement.

The assertions embodied in the representations and warranties are qualified by information in a confidential disclosure schedule that Embarcadero provided to Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. in connection with the signing of the merger agreement. While Embarcadero does not believe that the confidential disclosure schedule contains information that is required to be disclosed under applicable securities laws, other than information that has already been so disclosed, the disclosure schedule contains information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as current characterizations of factual information about us, because they were made as of specific dates, may be intended merely as a risk allocation mechanism between Embarcadero, Parent and EMBT Merger Sub, and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedule.

Parent has also agreed to keep us informed regarding the status of the financing. Parent will notify us promptly, and in any event within two business days, if at any time before completion of the merger (i) either the debt financing letter or the equity financing letter with respect to the financing of the merger should expire or be terminated for any reason or (ii) any financing source that is a party to the debt financing letter or the equity financing letter notifies Parent or EMBT Merger Corp. that such source no longer intends to either provide or underwrite financing to EMBT Merger Corp. on the terms set forth in such financing letter. No Solicitation of Transactions

We have agreed that so long as the merger agreement remains in effect, we (and our affiliates, officers, directors and agents) will not:

solicit, initiate or intentionally encourage the submission of an alternative proposal (as defined below); or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish any non-public information or data about us to any third party (other than Parent and EMBT Merger Corp.) for the purpose of knowingly facilitating, inducing or encouraging any proposal that is, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an alternative proposal.

The above restrictions on solicitation contained in the merger agreement do not prevent our board of directors from, prior to the special meeting of stockholders, complying with Rules 14-d(9) and 14-e(2) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or engaging in discussions, participating in negotiations with or furnishing non-public information to, a third party making an unsolicited, bona fide alternative proposal if our board of directors determines in good faith (after consulting with an outside financial advisor) that the acquisition proposal is, or presents a reasonable possibility of resulting in, a superior proposal. Furthermore, we may enter into discussions or negotiations with, or furnish non-public information to, a third party only if the following conditions are satisfied:

we receive from the third party an executed confidentiality agreement having terms and conditions no less favorable to us than the Confidentiality Agreement, dated July 13, 2006, between TCB and us;

promptly upon furnishing any non-public information to the third party, we furnish this non-public information to Parent, to the extent not previously provided; and we do not provide any non-public information or other confidential information that would result in competitive harm or detriment to our ability to effectively compete in any of our businesses.

In addition to the restrictions on solicitation described above, we are required to promptly notify Parent of:

receipt of any alternative proposal, any request for information (including non-public information) by any third party that has made an alternative proposal, receipt of an amendment to a previously disclosed alternative proposal, and any determination that an alternative proposal constitutes a superior proposal;

the identity of the person or group making any alternative proposal; and the material terms and conditions of the alternative proposal.

In addition, if we receive a superior proposal, we are required, during the two business days following notice of such proposal to Parent, to negotiate in good faith with Parent to revise the merger agreement if and to the extent our board of directors determines that such negotiations would be consistent with its fiduciary duties.

Our board of directors may, in response to a superior proposal by a third party, withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation to our stockholders to vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, if both of the following conditions are met:

a superior proposal has been made and has not been withdrawn; and our board of directors has determined in good faith, after consulting its outside legal advisors, that there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the board's failure to effect a change of recommendation in light of the superior proposal would result in a reasonable possibility of a breach of its fiduciary duties to our stockholders under applicable law.

Table of Contents

Our board of directors may accept and enter into an agreement for a superior proposal and terminate the merger agreement immediately prior to, or immediately after, its acceptance of the superior proposal if all of the following conditions are met:

a superior proposal has been made and has not been withdrawn;

we have not taken any action with respect to the superior proposal for three business days after delivery of a written notice to Parent setting forth our intention to take such action;

we shall have complied in all material respects with the provisions contained in the merger agreement relating to restrictions on solicitation; and in the event we terminate the merger agreement and enter into an alternative acquisition agreement for a superior proposal, we pay a termination fee of $5,000,000 to Parent or its designee concurrently with the termination of the merger agreement.

Under the merger agreement:

The term alternative proposal means any written inquiry, proposal or offer from any third party relating to any merger, consolidation or other business combination involving the Company or any acquisition or similar transaction (including a tender offer or exchange offer) involving the purchase of:

50% of our assets, or

50% or more of our outstanding common stock.

The term superior proposal means any bona fide written alternative proposal that our board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial advisors and outside counsel, contains terms that are more favorable to our stockholders than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Indemnification

Under the merger agreement, the surviving corporation will, for a period of six years after completion of the merger, indemnify, advance expenses to, and hold harmless all of our past and present officers and directors against acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the completion of merger, except that, in the case of advancement of expenses, any person to whom expenses are advanced will undertake to repay such expenses to the extent required by Delaware law if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. The surviving corporation will indemnify these individuals to the same extent and in the same manner as such persons were indemnified as of the date of the merger agreement by us pursuant to (i) the existing indemnification agreements between us and our directors and officers, (ii) the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and (iii) our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the completion of the merger.

The certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation will contain provisions with respect to indemnification, advancement of expenses and exculpation of our present and former directors and officers that are at least as favorable to such indemnified persons as those contained in our current certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The indemnification provisions in the surviving corporation's certificate of incorporation and bylaws will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified in any manner adverse to our present and former directors and officers for a period of not less than six years following the completion of the merger, unless required by law.

As a condition to the consummation of the merger, Parent or the surviving corporation is required to obtain a directors and officers insurance policy that provides for coverage for acts or omissions of the existing directors and executive officers of the Company occurring prior to the effective time of the merger. The merger agreement further requires that Parent cause the surviving corporation to maintain this insurance policy in effect for a period of six years after the completion of the merger and for so long thereafter as any claim for insurance coverage asserted on or prior to the end of such six-year period has not been adjudicated. The merger agreement also provides that this directors and officers insurance policy must be in an amount and scope at least as favorable as our policies existing on the date of the merger agreement; provided, however, that the surviving corporation shall not be required to pay an annual premium for such insurance in excess of $640,000, but in such case shall purchase as much coverage as possible for such amount. The Company has received commitments for such insurance coverage and this coverage will be in place prior to the completion of the merger.

The obligations described above regarding directors and officers indemnification and insurance must be assumed by any successor of the surviving corporation or Parent as a result of any consolidation, merger or transfer of all or substantially all properties and assets of the surviving corporation or Parent.

Employee Benefits

Under the merger agreement, Parent has acknowledged that it expects that it will cause our employee benefit plans (other than option plans) in effect on the date of the merger agreement to remain in effect for one year after completion of the merger or, to the extent that such benefit plans are not continued, cause us to provide benefit plans that are substantially comparable, in the aggregate, to the benefit plans (other than option plans) in effect on the date of the merger agreement.

With respect to any benefit plans maintained by the surviving corporation after the merger in which any of our employees will participate, Parent has acknowledged that it expects to use commercially reasonable efforts to:

recognize all service performed for us by our employees prior to the completion of the merger for eligibility and vesting purposes;

waive any pre-existing condition exclusions (other than pre-existing conditions that, as of the completion of the merger, have not been satisfied under any of our benefit plans); and provide that any deductible, coinsurance or out-of-pocket expenses incurred on or before the completion of the merger during the plan year in which the merger occurs under any of our applicable benefit plans will be taken into account for purposes of satisfying applicable deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket provisions after the completion of the merger under the applicable health plan that provides benefits to our employees.

Upon the completion of the merger, our stock option plans will terminate and the provisions in any other plan, program or arrangement providing for the issuance or grant of any other interest in respect of our capital stock will be canceled. Upon the completion of the merger, no participant in our option plans or other plans, programs or arrangements will have the right under these plans to acquire any equity securities of Embarcadero, the surviving corporation or any subsidiary thereof.

Agreement to Take Further Action and to Use Commercially Reasonable Efforts

Each party to the merger agreement has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to fulfill all conditions applicable to such party pursuant to the merger agreement and to expeditiously complete the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Among other things, each party has committed to use such efforts to cooperate with each of the other parties to:

take all commercially reasonable acts necessary to cause the conditions to completion of the merger (as described in the merger agreement) to be satisfied; obtain all necessary, proper or advisable actions or non-actions, waivers, consents, qualifications and approvals from governmental entities and make all necessary, proper or advisable registrations, filings and notices and take all reasonable steps as may be necessary to obtain an approval, waiver or exemption from any governmental entity (including under the HSR Act);

promptly inform each other of any material communication concerning the HSR Act or other antitrust laws to or from any governmental entity regarding the merger, and assist each other in connection with any filing or other act taken to comply with the HSR Act and any other antitrust laws.

Conditions to the Merger

The obligations of all parties to complete the merger are subject to the following conditions:

the adoption of the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Embarcadero common stock;

the absence of any law or order that prevents or prohibits completion of the merger;

the receipt from all governmental authorities of all consents, approvals and authorizations legally required to be obtained to complete the merger;

the expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under applicable U.S. and non-U.S. antitrust laws, and the receipt of any approvals required thereunder; and the purchase by Parent or the surviving corporation of a directors and officers insurance policy that provides coverage for acts and omissions of our existing directors and executive officers occurring prior to the effective time of the merger.

The obligations of Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. to complete the merger are subject to the following additional conditions:

the truth and correctness of our representations and warranties without reference to any materiality qualification, such that the aggregate effect of any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties will not have a material adverse effect on us as of the date of the closing (or as of the date made in the case of representations and warranties made as of a specific date);

The obligations of the Company to complete the merger are subject to the following additional conditions:

the truth and correctness of Parent's representations and warranties without reference to any materiality qualification, such that the aggregate effect of any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties will not have a material adverse effect on Parent as of the date of the closing (or as of the date made in the case of representations and warranties made as of a specific date);

the performance or compliance, in all material respects, by Parent with all agreements and covenants required by the merger agreement to be performed or complied with on or prior to the completion of the merger;

the delivery by Parent of a certificate with respect to the satisfaction of the foregoing conditions relating to representations, warranties, agreements and covenants; and the receipt by Parent of a signed solvency opinion addressed to our board of directors.

Termination

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger may be abandoned at any time before the completion of the merger, whether or not stockholder approval has been obtained:

by the mutual written consent of the parties;

by Parent or Embarcadero (i) if a governmental entity issues an order or takes any other action to permanently enjoin the merger, (ii) if Embarcadero's stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement (giving effect to any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting), (iii) if the merger shall not have been consummated by July 16, 2007 (the "Outside Date"), or (iv) if the other party breaches any of its representations or warranties in the merger agreement such that the aggregate effect of such breaches has a material adverse effect, or the other party breaches, in a material respect, its covenants or agreements in the merger agreement, and, in each case, such breach is not, or is not reasonably capable of being, cured by the Outside Date; or by Parent (i) if the board of directors of Embarcadero withdraws or adversely modifies its approvals or recommendations of the merger, (ii) the board of directors of Embarcadero fails to reaffirm its approvals or recommendations of the merger or the merger agreement within ten business days after Parent requests that it do so following the public announcement of an alternative proposal, (iii) the board of directors of Embarcadero (A) recommends that our stockholders approve or accept an alternative proposal or (B) determines to accept a superior proposal, (iv) Embarcadero breaches its covenant to convene the special meeting of its stockholders or breaches its covenant not to solicit an alternative proposal, or (v) a third party commences a tender or exchange offer or other alternative proposal and Embarcadero does not send a statement to its stockholders recommending rejection of such offer within ten business days after such offer is first published, sent or given.

Embarcadero may also terminate the merger agreement in the event it approves or accepts a superior proposal and pays the termination fee to Parent described below.

Fees and Expenses

Embarcadero has agreed to pay Parent or such other persons designated in writing by Parent a termination fee in the amount of $5,000,000 if:

Embarcadero terminates the merger agreement in connection with an acquisition agreement for a superior proposal; or

Table of Contents

Parent terminates the merger agreement for any of the reasons set forth in the third bullet point above under Termination. In addition, if Embarcadero or Parent terminate the merger agreement because:

the stockholders fail to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting; or the merger has not been completed before July 16, 2007; then Embarcadero will be obligated to pay Parent or its designee the termination fee of $5,000,000 if Embarcadero enters into an acquisition agreement with a third party within six months after termination of the merger agreement.

If all of the conditions to Parent's obligation to complete the merger have been satisfied and Parent fails to close the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, Embarcadero may terminate the merger agreement and Parent will be obligated to pay Embarcadero a termination fee in the amount of $5,000,000 within five business days of notice of termination.

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties in writing by action of their respective boards of directors at any time before or after the merger agreement has been adopted by our stockholders and prior to the filing of the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. However, after the merger agreement has been adopted by our stockholders, no amendment, modification or supplement will be made to the merger agreement which by law requires the further approval of our stockholders without such further approval. The merger agreement also provides that, at any time prior to the completion of the merger, each of Embarcadero, Parent and EMBT Merger Corp. may extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties, waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement or waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions of the other parties contained in the merger agreement.

On April 5, 2007, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the merger, the closing price of Embarcadero common stock was $6.88 per share. On May 22, 2007, the most recent practicable date, the closing price of Embarcadero common stock was $7.04 per share.

We have never declared or paid any cash dividends on our capital stock. We currently intend to retain future earnings, if any, for development of our business and do not anticipate that we will declare or pay cash dividends on our capital stock in the foreseeable future.

Table of ContentsBENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP OF THE COMPANY S STOCK

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of Embarcadero common stock as of May 1, 2007 by each of the following:

each person or entity who is known by us to own beneficially 5% or more of our outstanding common stock;

each of our directors;

each of our current executive officers; and all of our directors and executive officers as a group.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission which generally attribute beneficial ownership of securities to persons who possess sole or shared voting power or investment power with respect to those securities. In computing the number of shares beneficially owned by a person and the percent of ownership of that person, shares of common stock subject to options or warrants held by that person which are currently exercisable or will become exercisable within 60 days after May 1, 2007, are deemed outstanding, while the shares are not deemed outstanding for purposes of computing percent ownership of any other person.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, or DGCL, you have the right to demand an appraisal of your shares in connection with the merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of your common stock of Embarcadero as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, as determined by the court, in lieu of the consideration you would otherwise be entitled to pursuant to the merger agreement. These rights are known as appraisal rights. Our stockholders electing to exercise appraisal rights must comply with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL in order to perfect their rights. Embarcadero will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures in connection with the merger.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed by a stockholder in order to perfect appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and should be read in conjunction with Section 262 of the DGCL, the full text of which appears in Annex C to this proxy statement. Failure to precisely follow any of the statutory procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL may result in a termination or waiver of your appraisal rights.

Section 262 requires that stockholders be notified that appraisal rights will be available not less than 20 days before the stockholders' meeting to vote on the merger. A copy of Section 262 must be included with such notice. This proxy statement constitutes our notice to you of the availability of appraisal rights in connection with the merger in compliance with the requirements of Section 262. If you wish to consider exercising your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 contained in Annex C since failure to timely and properly comply with the requirements of Section 262 will result in the loss of your appraisal rights under Delaware law.

If you elect to demand appraisal of your shares, you must satisfy each of the following conditions:

You must deliver to Embarcadero a written demand for appraisal of your shares before the vote with respect to the merger is taken. This written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or voting against the adoption of the merger agreement. Voting against or failing to vote for the adoption of the merger agreement by itself does not constitute a demand for appraisal within the meaning of Section 262.

You must not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. A vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement, by proxy, over the Internet, by telephone or in person, will constitute a waiver of your appraisal rights in respect of the shares so voted and will nullify any previously filed written demands for appraisal.

If you fail to comply with either of these conditions and the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive the cash payment for your shares of Embarcadero common stock as provided for in the merger agreement, but you will have no appraisal rights with respect to your shares of Embarcadero common stock.

All demands for appraisal should be addressed to Embarcadero Technologies, Inc., 100 California Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111, Attention: Chief Financial Officer, and must be delivered before the vote on the merger agreement is taken at the special meeting, and should be executed by, or on behalf of, the record holder of the shares of Embarcadero common stock. The demand must reasonably inform Embarcadero of the identity of the stockholder and the intention of the stockholder to demand appraisal of his, her or its shares.

To be effective, a demand for appraisal by a holder of Embarcadero common stock must be made by, or in the name of, such registered stockholder, fully and correctly, as the stockholder's name appears on his or her stock certificate(s). Beneficial owners who do not also hold the shares of record may not directly make appraisal demands to Embarcadero. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the registered owner, such as a broker or other nominee, submit the required demand in respect of those shares. If shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of a demand for appraisal should be made by or for the fiduciary; and if the shares are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for the record owner. A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares as a nominee for others, may exercise his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares held in the name of the record owner.

If you hold your shares of Embarcadero common stock in a brokerage account or in other nominee form and you wish to exercise appraisal rights, you should consult with your broker or the other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the nominee.

Within 10 days after the effective time of the merger, the surviving corporation must give written notice that the merger has become effective to each Embarcadero stockholder who has properly filed a written demand for appraisal and who did not vote in favor of the merger agreement. At any time within 60 days after the effective time, any stockholder who has demanded an appraisal has the right to withdraw the demand and to accept the cash payment specified by the merger agreement for his or her shares of Embarcadero common stock. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger, the surviving corporation or any stockholder who has complied with Section 262 shall, upon written request to the surviving corporation, be entitled to receive a written statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal rights have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Within 120 days after the effective time, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. Upon the filing of the petition by a stockholder, service of a copy of such petition shall be made upon the surviving corporation. The surviving corporation has no obligation to file, and has no intention to file, such a petition in the event there are dissenting stockholders. Accordingly, the failure of a stockholder to file such a petition within the period specified could nullify the stockholder's previously written demand for appraisal.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Chancery Court with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving corporation. After notice to dissenting stockholders who demanded appraisal of their shares, the Chancery Court is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition, and to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights provided thereby. The Chancery Court may require the stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with that direction, the Chancery Court may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

After determination of the stockholders entitled to appraisal of their shares of the Company's common stock, the Chancery Court will appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any. When the value is determined, the Chancery Court will direct the payment of such value, with interest thereon accrued during the pendency of the proceeding, if the Chancery Court so determines, to the stockholders entitled to receive the same, upon surrender by such holders of the certificates representing those shares.

In determining fair value, the Chancery Court is required to take into account all relevant factors. You should be aware that the fair value of your shares as determined under Section 262 could be more than, the same as, or less than the value that you are entitled to receive under the terms of the merger agreement.

Costs of the appraisal proceeding (which do not include attorneys' fees or the fees and expenses of experts) may be imposed upon the surviving corporation and the stockholders participating in the appraisal proceeding by the Chancery Court as the Chancery Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon the application of a stockholder, the Chancery Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all shares entitled to appraisal. Any stockholder who had demanded appraisal rights will not, after the effective time of the merger, be entitled to vote shares subject to that demand for any purpose or to receive payments of dividends or any other distribution with respect to those shares, other than with respect to payment as of a record date prior to the effective time; however, if no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the effective time of the merger, or if the stockholder delivers a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal and an acceptance of the terms of the merger within 60 days after the effective time of the merger, then the right of that stockholder to appraisal will cease and that stockholder will be entitled to receive the cash payment for shares of his, her or its Embarcadero common stock pursuant to the merger agreement. Any withdrawal of a demand for appraisal made more than 60 days after the effective time of the merger may only be made with the written approval of the surviving corporation. In addition, no appraisal proceeding may be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Chancery Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Chancery Court deems just.

In view of the complexity of Section 262, if you wish to pursue appraisal rights with respect to the merger, then you should consult your legal advisor.

PROPOSAL NO. 2 ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

If at the special meeting of the stockholders, the number of shares of Embarcadero common stock present or represented and voting in favor of adoption of the merger agreement is insufficient to adopt that proposal, we intend to move to adjourn the special meeting in order to enable our board of directors to solicit additional proxies in respect of such proposal. In that event, we will ask our stockholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal, and not the proposal regarding the adoption of the merger agreement.

In this proposal, we are asking you to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by our board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy or attorney-in-fact to adjourn the special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If the stockholders approve the adjournment proposal, we could adjourn the special meeting and any adjourned session of the special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from stockholders that have previously voted. Among other things, approval of the adjournment proposal could mean that, even if we had received proxies representing a sufficient number of votes against the adoption of the merger agreement to defeat that proposal, we could adjourn the special meeting without a vote on the merger agreement and seek to convince the holders of those shares to change their votes to votes in favor of adoption of the merger agreement.

Under the DGCL and our Amended and Restated Bylaws, we may also adjourn the special meeting of stockholders for reasons other than to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement. Any such adjournment may be made without notice (if the adjournment is not for more than thirty days), provided an announcement is made at the special meeting of the time, date and place of the adjourned meeting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL.

HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has approved a rule governing the delivery of disclosure documents. This rule allows the Company to send a single copy of this proxy statement to any household at which two or more stockholders of the Company reside, if it believes that the stockholders are members of the same family. Some banks, brokers and other intermediaries may be participating in this practice of householding proxy statements and annual reports. This rule benefits both the Company and its stockholders as it reduces the volume of duplicate information received at a stockholder's house and helps reduce the Company's expenses. Each stockholder, however, will continue to receive individual proxy cards or voting instructions forms.

Stockholders that have previously received a single set of disclosure documents may request their own copy by contacting their bank, broker or other nominee record holder. The Company will also deliver a separate copy of this proxy statement to any stockholder upon written request to Embarcadero Technologies, Inc., 100 California Street, 12th Floor, San Francisco, California 94111, Attention: Investor Relations, or upon oral request by calling (415) 834-3131.

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

Section 1.1 The Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time, the Company and the Parent shall consummate the Merger pursuant to which (a) Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company and the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall thereupon cease, (b) the Company shall be the successor or surviving corporation in the Merger and shall continue to be governed by the Section 1.2 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Closing will take place at 10:00 a.m., local time, as promptly as practicable but in no event later than the second Business Day after the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions) set forth in Article VI (the Closing Date), at the offices of Kirkland & Ellis LLP, 555 California Street, San Francisco, California 94104, unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by the parties.

The Merger shall become effective at the Effective Time. If the Delaware Secretary requires any changes in the Certificate of Merger as a condition to filing or issuing a certificate to the effect that the Merger is effective, Merger Sub and the Company shall execute any necessary revisions incorporating such changes, provided such changes are not inconsistent with and do not result in any material change in the terms of this Agreement.

Section 1.4 Conversion of the Shares. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Parent, Merger Sub, the Company or the holders of any of the following securities:

(a) Except as provided in Section 1.4(b), each share of Company Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding Dissenter Shares) (the Shares) shall be canceled and shall by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof be converted automatically into the right to receive $7.20 in cash, without interest (the Merger Consideration), upon surrender of the certificate representing such Shares as provided in Article II. All such Shares, when so converted, shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and shall cease to exist, and each holder of a certificate theretofore representing such Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration into which such Shares have been converted, as provided herein.

(b) Each Share that is owned by the Company (or any Subsidiary of the Company) as treasury stock or otherwise and each Share owned by Parent shall be canceled and cease to exist and no payment or distribution shall be made with respect thereto.

(c) Each share of common stock of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Surviving Corporation and shall constitute the only outstanding shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 1.5 Organizational Documents.

Thereafter, as so amended, the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation may be amended or repealed in accordance with their terms and the Certificate of Incorporation of the Surviving Corporation and as provided by Law.

(a) At the Effective Time, each then-outstanding Company Stock Option, including unvested Company Stock Options, shall be cancelled, (i) in the case of a Company Stock Option having a per share exercise price less than the Merger Consideration, for the right to receive from the Surviving Corporation for each share of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time an amount (subject to any applicable withholding tax) in cash equal to the product of (A) the number of shares of Company Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time and (B) the amount by which the Merger Consideration exceeds the per share exercise price of such Company Stock Option, or (ii) in the case of any unexercised Backdated Company Stock Option granted to a current director or officer of the Company or any Company Stock Option having a per share exercise price equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration, without the payment of cash or issuance of other securities in respect thereof. The cancellation of a Company Stock Option as provided in the immediately preceding sentence shall be deemed a release of any and all rights the holder thereof had or may have had in respect of such Company Stock Option.

(b) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take such actions as may be necessary to give effect to the transactions contemplated by this Section 1.7, including, but not limited to, satisfaction of the requirements of Rule 16b-3(e) under the Exchange Act.

Section 1.10 Dissenter Shares.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any Dissenter Shares shall not be converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration, unless such holder fails to perfect or withdraws or otherwise loses his or her right to appraisal. A holder of Dissenter Shares shall be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of such Shares held by him or her in accordance with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL, unless, after the Effective Time, such holder fails to perfect or withdraws or loses his or her right to appraisal, in which case such Shares shall be converted into and represent only the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without interest thereon, upon surrender of the Certificate or Certificates representing such Shares pursuant to Article II.

(b) The Company shall give the Parent prompt notice of any written demands for appraisal of any Shares, attempted withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments served pursuant to the DGCL.

EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

Section 2.1 Paying Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint the Paying Agent to act as paying agent for the payment of the Merger Consideration upon surrender of the Certificates pursuant to this Article II. At the Effective Time, Parent shall deposit or cause to be deposited with the Paying Agent on a timely basis, if and when needed for the benefit of the Company Stockholders and for payment in accordance with this Article II through the Paying Agent, cash in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate Merger Consideration (such cash being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund), payable pursuant to Section 1.4 in exchange for outstanding Shares. The Exchange Fund may only be invested temporarily pending its use as set forth herein in U.S. Government securities or in funds investing solely in such securities. Any income from investment of the Exchange Fund, which shall be in accordance with the instructions of Parent, will be payable solely to Parent. The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

Section 2.2 Exchange Procedures.

(a) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, the Paying Agent shall mail to each holder of record of a Certificate or Certificates that, immediately prior to the Effective Time, represented outstanding Shares subsequently converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, as set forth in Section 1.4: (i) a letter of transmittal (a Letter of Transmittal) that (A) shall specify that delivery shall be effected and risk of loss and title to the Certificates shall pass only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Paying Agent (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof, together with any bond or indemnity agreement, as contemplated by Section 2.6) and (B) shall be in such form and have such other provisions as the Surviving Corporation may reasonably specify; and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the applicable Merger Consideration.

(b) Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Paying Agent, together with a Letter of Transmittal, duly completed and executed, and any other documents reasonably required by the Paying Agent or the Surviving Corporation, (i) the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a check representing the applicable amount of cash that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 1.4 and (ii) the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. No interest will be paid or accrued on the cash payable upon surrender of the Certificates. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2, each such Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the applicable Merger Consideration.

(c) In the event of a transfer of ownership of Shares that is not registered in the transfer records of the Company, the appropriate amount of the Merger Consideration may be paid to a transferee if the Certificate representing such Shares is presented to the Paying Agent properly endorsed or accompanied by appropriate stock powers and otherwise in proper form for transfer and accompanied by all documents reasonably required by the Paying Agent to evidence and effect such transfer and to evidence that any applicable Taxes have been paid.

Section 2.3 No Further Ownership Rights. All Merger Consideration paid upon the surrender for exchange of the Certificates representing Shares in accordance with the terms hereof shall be deemed to have been paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Shares and, after the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers on the transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of the Shares that were outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this Article II, subject to applicable Law in the case of Dissenter Shares.

Section 2.4 Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund (including any interest and other income received with respect thereto) that remains undistributed to the former Company Stockholders on the date 365 days after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation upon demand, and any former holder of Shares who has not theretofore received any applicable Merger Consideration to which such Company Shareholder is entitled under this Article II shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws) for payment of claims with respect thereto and only as a general creditor thereof.

Section 2.5 No Liability. None of Parent, the Surviving Corporation or Merger Sub shall be liable to any holder of Shares for any part of the Merger Consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by holders of any such Shares two (2) years after the Effective Time or at such earlier date as is immediately prior to the time at which such amounts would otherwise escheat to, or become property of, any Governmental Entity shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law or Order, become the property of the Surviving Corporation free and clear of any claims or interest of any such holders or their successors, assigns or personal representatives previously entitled thereto.

Section 2.6 Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by and at the discretion of Parent or the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent or the Surviving Corporation may reasonably direct, or the execution and delivery by such Person of an indemnity agreement in such form as Parent or the Surviving Corporation may reasonably direct, in each case as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Paying Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the appropriate amount of the Merger Consideration.

Section 2.7 Withholding of Tax. Parent, the Surviving Corporation, any Affiliate thereof or the Paying Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Shares and or Company Stock Options such amount as Parent, the Surviving Corporation, any Affiliate thereof or the Paying Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code or any provision of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Surviving Corporation or the Paying Agent, such withheld amounts shall be (a) paid over to the applicable Governmental Entity in accordance with applicable Law or Order and (b) treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the former holder of a Certificate or Company Stock Option in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

All Taxes due and owing by the Company and each of its Subsidiaries (whether or not shown on such Tax Returns) have been timely paid and, in the case of Tax Returns to be filed, will be timely paid. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries has incurred any Tax Liability since December 31, 2005 other than a Tax Liability in the ordinary course of business.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub do not, and the performance of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub will not, require any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or filing with or notification to, or registration or qualification with, any Governmental Entity, except for applicable requirements, if any, of the Securities Act, the Exchange Act, or state securities laws or blue sky laws and the HSR Act.

have a Parent Material Adverse Effect and neither Parent nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to any Order of any Governmental Entity which, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.5 Financing. Attached hereto as Exhibit D and Exhibit E are true and correct copies of (i) the commitment letter, dated April 4, 2007, by and between Wells Fargo Foothill, Inc., and Thoma Cressey Bravo, Inc., pursuant to which Wells Fargo Foothill, Inc. has committed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to provide or cause to be provided debt financing of up to $90,000,000.00 in connection with the Merger (the Debt Financing Letter and the financing contemplated thereby, the Debt Financing), and (ii) the commitment letter, dated April 5, 2007, by and between Parent and Thoma Cressey Fund VIII, L.P., pursuant to which Thoma Cressey Fund VIII, L.P. has committed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to provide or cause to be provided equity financing of up to $52,000,000.00 (the Equity Financing Letter and the financing contemplated thereby, the Equity Financing and together with the Debt Financing the Financing). Each of the Debt Financing Letter and the Equity Financing Letter (collectively, the Financing Letters) in the form so delivered, is, as of the date hereof, in full force and effect and is a legal, valid and binding obligation of Parent and Merger Sub and to the knowledge of Parent, the other parties thereto. As of the date hereof, no event has occurred which, with or without notice, lapse of time or both, would constitute a default or breach on the part of Parent or Merger Sub under any term or condition of the Financing Letters other than to the extent that any term or condition requires any action by, or otherwise relates to, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Assuming the accuracy of the Company's representations contained herein, as of the date hereof, Parent and Merger Sub have no reason to believe that they will be unable to satisfy on a timely basis any term or condition of closing to be satisfied by them contained in the Financing Letters. Merger Sub has fully paid any and all commitment fees or other fees required by the Financing Letters to be paid on or before the date of this Agreement. Subject to its terms and conditions, the Financing, when funded in accordance with the Financing Letters, will provide Parent and Merger Sub with acquisition financing at the Effective Time sufficient to consummate the Merger upon the terms contemplated by this Agreement and pay all related fees and expenses. Parent's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby is not contingent on Parent's ability to complete any public offering or private placement of equity or debt securities or to obtain any other type of financing prior to consummating the Merger.

Section 4.6 Brokers. Other than Morgan Stanley, whose fees and expenses will be borne solely by Parent, no broker, finder or investment banker is entitled to any brokerage, finder's or other fee or commission in connection with this Agreement, the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Parent or Merger Sub or any of their respective directors, officers or employees, for which the Company may become liable.

Section 4.7 Merger Sub. Merger Sub was formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and, prior to the Effective Time, Merger Sub will have engaged in no business and have no Liabilities or obligations other than in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The authorized capital stock of Merger Sub consists of 1,000 shares of common stock, all of which shares are validly issued and outstanding, fully paid and nonassessable and are owned by Parent free and clear of any or all Encumbrances. On the date hereof, Merger Sub has, and at all times through the Effective Time, Merger Sub will continue to have, no obligations or Liabilities of any nature except for nominal liabilities associated with Merger Sub's organization and liabilities arising under or in connection with this Agreement.

Section 4.8 Information Supplied. Neither the written information supplied, or to be supplied, by or on behalf of Parent or Merger Sub for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or any other documents to be filed by Parent, Merger Sub or the Company with the SEC or any other Governmental Entity in connection with the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, will, on the date of its filing or, in the case of the Proxy Statement, at the date it is mailed to Company Stockholders and at the time of the Company Stockholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

Section 5.5 Company Stockholders Meeting.

(a) Subject to the Company's right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 5.6(c) and Article VII hereof, the Company, acting through the Company Board of Directors, shall take all actions in accordance with applicable law, the Company Certificate of Incorporation, the Company Bylaws and the rules of Nasdaq to duly call, give notice of, convene and hold as promptly as practicable the Company Stockholders Meeting for the purpose of considering and voting upon the adoption of this Agreement. Except as permitted by Section 5.6(b), (i) the Company Board of Directors shall recommend adoption of this Agreement by the Company Stockholders and include such recommendation in the Proxy Statement and (ii) neither the Company Board of Directors nor any committee thereof shall withdraw or modify, or propose or resolve to withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Parent, the recommendation of the Company Board of Directors that the Company Stockholders vote in favor of the adoption of this Agreement. Unless this Agreement has been duly terminated in accordance with the terms herein (including payment of any termination fees payable under Article VII), subject to the right of the Company Board of Directors to modify its recommendation in a manner adverse to Parent under certain circumstances as specified in Section 5.6(b), the Company shall take all lawful action to solicit from the Company Stockholders proxies in favor of the proposal to adoption of this Agreement and take all other action necessary or advisable to secure the vote or consent of the Company Stockholders that are required by the rules of Nasdaq or the DGCL. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company, after consultation with Parent, may adjourn or postpone the Company Stockholders Meeting to the extent necessary to ensure that any legally required supplement or amendment to the Proxy Statement is provided to the Company Stockholders or, if as of the time for which the Company Stockholders Meeting is originally scheduled (as set forth in the Proxy Statement), there are insufficient shares of Company Common Stock (i) represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Company Stockholders Meeting or (ii) voted to adopt this Agreement.

(b) The Company agrees that none of the information included or incorporated by reference in the Proxy Statement will (except to the extent revised or superseded by amendments or supplements contemplated hereby), at the date the Proxy Statement is filed with the SEC or mailed to the Company Shareholders or at the time of the Company Shareholders Meeting, or at the time of any amendment or supplement thereof, contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to any information included or incorporated by reference in or omitted from the Proxy Statement based upon information supplied by Parent or Merger Sub. The Proxy Statement will comply in all material respects with the requirements of the Exchange Act.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, except as otherwise permitted hereby, the Company agrees (i) that it shall not, and it shall not permit its Affiliates or Representatives to, solicit, initiate or intentionally encourage the submission of any Alternative Proposal or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish any non-public information or data to any Third Party to knowingly facilitate, induce or encourage the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Alternative Proposal; and (ii) that it will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any Third Party with respect to any of the foregoing; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 5.6 shall prohibit the Company Board of Directors or any of the Company's Representatives from (A) authorizing a communication with any party that is limited to making such party aware of the provisions of this Section 5.6(a); (B) furnishing information to (but only pursuant to a confidentiality agreement having terms and conditions with respect to confidentiality no less favorable to the Company than the Confidentiality Agreement and provided that the Company (i) shall promptly provide Parent with copies of any non-public information concerning the Company provided to any other party if and to the extent such information has not otherwise been previously provided to Parent, (ii) shall take reasonable precautions to protect such non-public information, and (iii) shall not provide any non-public or other confidential information that would result in any competitive harm or detriment to the Company's ability to effectively compete in any of the Company's or its Subsidiaries' businesses as currently conducted or as currently proposed to be conducted) or entering into discussions or negotiations with any Third Party that makes an unsolicited bona fide Alternative Proposal, if the Company Board of Directors determines in good faith (after consulting with an outside financial advisor) that the Alternative Proposal is or presents a reasonable possibility of resulting in a Superior Proposal; and (C) to the extent required, taking and disclosing to the Company's stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act with regard to an Alternative Proposal, or making any other disclosure to the Company's stockholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Company Board of Directors, after consulting with outside counsel, there is a reasonable basis to conclude that disclosure is required under applicable Law. The Company will promptly notify Parent after (i) receipt of an Alternative Proposal (including the identity of the Third Party making such Alternative Proposal and the material terms and conditions of such Alternative Proposal), (ii) any request for information relating to the Company (including non-public information) or for access to the properties, books or records of the Company by any Third Party that has made an Alternative Proposal, or (iii) receipt of an amendment to a previously disclosed Alternative Proposal (including the terms of such amendment). The Company shall promptly (and in any event, within 48 hours) inform Parent of any change in the price, structure or form of consideration or terms and conditions of such Alternative Proposal. Promptly upon determination by the Company Board of Directors that an Alternative Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal, the Company shall notify Parent that the Company Board of Directors has received a Superior Proposal, specifying in detail the terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and the identity of the Person making such Superior Proposal. The Company agrees, during the two (2) Business Day period following Parent's receipt of a notice of a Superior Proposal, to negotiate in good faith with Parent to revise this Agreement if and to the extent that the Company Board of Directors determines that such negotiations would be consistent with its fiduciary duties.

(b) Neither the Company nor the Company Board of Directors shall withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, in any manner adverse to Parent, the approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Merger, or, except as contemplated by this Section 5.6, propose publicly to approve or recommend an Alternative Proposal unless the Board of Directors determines, in its good faith judgment (after consulting with outside legal counsel) that there is a reasonable basis to conclude that the failure to take such action would result in a reasonable possibility of a breach of the Board of Directors' fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

(c) Subject to the provisions of this Section 5.6, the Parties acknowledge and agree that the Company may accept a Superior Proposal, enter into an agreement for such Superior Proposal and terminate this Agreement immediately prior to, or immediately after, such acceptance of a Superior Proposal pursuant to the terms of Section 7.1(d) hereof, provided, however, that the Company shall take no action under this Section 5.6(c) for three Business Days after delivery of a written notice to Parent setting forth its intention to take such action.

(d) For purposes of this Agreement, Alternative Proposal shall mean any written inquiry, proposal or offer from any Third Party relating to any merger, consolidation or other business combination including the Company or any acquisition or similar transaction (including, without limitation, a tender or exchange offer) involving the purchase of (i) 50% of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries, if any, on a consolidated basis, or (ii) 50% or more of the outstanding Company Common Stock. For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal shall mean any bona fide written Alternative Proposal that the Company Board of Directors determines (after consultation with an outside financial advisor and outside counsel), in its good faith judgment, contains terms that are more favorable to the Company's stockholders than the Merger.

Section 5.7 Public Announcements. The Company and Parent shall consult with each other before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements with respect to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other party, issue such press release or make such public statement as may be required by Law or Order or the applicable rules of Nasdaq or any listing agreement if it has used its commercially reasonable efforts to consult with the other party and to obtain such party's consent but has been unable to do so prior to the time such press release or public statement is so required to be issued or made.

Section 5.9 Employee Matters.

(b) With respect to the plans in which the Company's employees participate following the Effective Time, Parent acknowledges that it expects to use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) recognize all service performed for the Company prior to the Effective Time for eligibility and vesting purposes, (ii) waive any pre-existing condition exclusions (other than pre-existing conditions that, as of the Effective Time, have not been satisfied under any Company Benefit Plan) and (iii) provide that any deductible, coinsurance or out-of-pocket expenses incurred on or before the Effective Time during the plan year in which the Effective Time occurs under any applicable Company Benefit Plan providing health benefits will be taken into account for purposes of satisfying applicable deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket provisions after the Effective Time under the applicable health plan that provides benefits to Company employees.

Section 5.10 Directors and Officers Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) For a period of six years from and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall indemnify, advance expenses to, and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of the Company (Indemnified Persons) to the same extent and in the same manner such persons are indemnified as of the date of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to any indemnification agreements between the Company and its directors and officers as of the date hereof, the DGCL, the Company Certificate of Incorporation and the Company Bylaws for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, in the case of advancement of expenses, any person to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking, to the extent required by the DGCL, to repay such advance if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. Parent shall guarantee the indemnification, insurance, advancement and other obligations of the Surviving Corporation set forth in this Section 5.10. The Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation will contain provisions with respect to exculpation, advancement and indemnification that are at least as favorable to the Indemnified Persons as those contained in the Company Certificate of Incorporation and the Company Bylaws as in effect on the date hereof, which provisions will not be amended, repealed or otherwise modified for a period of not less than six years from the Effective Time in any manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of individuals who, immediately prior to the Effective Time, were directors, officers, employees or agents of the Company, unless such a modification is required by Law.

(b) For a period of six years from the Effective Time and for so long thereafter as any claim for insurance coverage asserted on or prior to the end of such six-year period has not been adjudicated, Parent shall cause the Surviving Corporation to maintain in effect (or Parent may instead elect to maintain pursuant to Parent's policy or policies) for the benefit of the Indemnified Persons' insurance and indemnification policy that provides coverage for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time that is substantially equivalent to the Company's existing policy on terms with respect to coverage individually and in the aggregate no less favorable than those of such policy in effect on the date hereof, or, if substantially equivalent insurance coverage is unavailable, the best available coverage; provided, however, that the Surviving Corporation shall not be required to pay an annual premium for such insurance in excess of $640,000.00, but in such case shall purchase as much coverage as possible for such amount.

(c) This Section 5.10 shall survive the consummation of the Merger, is intended to benefit the Company, the Surviving Corporation and each Indemnified Person, shall be binding on all successors and assigns of the Surviving Corporation and Parent, and shall be enforceable by the Indemnified Persons. The provisions of this Section 5.10 are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each Indemnified Person, his or her heirs, and his or her representatives and are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such Person may have by contract or otherwise.

(d) In the event Parent, the Surviving Corporation or any of their successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provisions shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Corporation, as the case may be, shall assume its obligations set forth in this Section 5.10.

Section 5.11 Conveyance Taxes. The Company and Parent shall cooperate in the preparation, execution and filing of all returns, questionnaires, applications or other documents regarding any real property transfer or gains, sales, use, transfer, value added, stock transfer and stamp taxes, any transfer, recording, registration and other fees, and any similar taxes which become payable in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that are required or permitted to be filed on or before the Effective Time.

Section 5.12 Delisting. Each of the parties agrees to cooperate with each other in taking, or causing to be taken, all actions necessary to delist the Company Common Stock from Nasdaq and terminate registration under the Exchange Act, provided that such delisting and termination shall not be effective until or after the Effective Time.

Section 5.13 Opinion as to Solvency. The Parties shall engage, at the expense of Parent, an appraisal firm to deliver an opinion (the Solvency Opinion) addressed to the Company Board of Directors (and on which the Company Board of Directors shall be entitled to rely) (a) indicating that immediately after the Effective Time, and after giving effect to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents, the Surviving Corporation (i) will not be insolvent and will have assets sufficient to pay its debts and other obligations as they become due, and (ii) will not have unreasonably small capital with which to engage in its business, and (b) addressing any other related matter that the Company Board of Directors shall request.

Section 5.14 No Control of Other Party's Business. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to give Parent, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the Company's or its Subsidiaries' operations prior to the Effective Time, and nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to give the Company, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct Parent's or its Subsidiaries' operations. Prior to the Effective Time, each of Parent and the Company shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

Section 5.15 Financing. Parent and Merger Sub shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all commercially reasonable things necessary, proper or advisable to arrange the Financing on the terms and conditions described in the Financing Letters, including using commercially reasonable efforts to (i) maintain in effect the Financing Letters, (ii) satisfy on a timely basis all conditions applicable to Parent and Merger Sub to obtaining the Financing set forth therein, (iii) enter into definitive agreements with respect thereto on or before the Closing Date on the terms and conditions contemplated by the Financing Letters or on other terms as Parent determines reasonably and in good faith are not materially less beneficial to Merger Sub, including with respect to conditionality, and (iv) consummate the Financing at or prior to Closing. In the event any portion of the Debt Financing becomes unavailable on the terms and conditions contemplated in the Debt Financing Letters, Parent and Merger Sub shall use their commercially reasonable efforts to arrange to obtain alternative debt financing from alternative sources in an amount sufficient to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement on terms Parent determines reasonably and in good faith are not materially less beneficial to Merger Sub as promptly as practicable following the occurrence of such event. Parent shall keep the Company reasonably informed with respect to all material activity concerning the status of the Financing and shall give the Company prompt notice of any material adverse change with respect to the Financing. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent agrees to notify the Company promptly, and in any event within two business days, if at any time prior to the Closing Date, (i) any Financing Letter shall expire or be terminated for any reason or (ii) any financing source that is a party to any Financing Letter notifies Parent or Merger Sub that such source no longer intends to either provide or underwrite financing to Merger Sub on the terms set forth therein. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate, and to cause its Subsidiaries and Representatives to cooperate, with Parent and Representatives of Parent in connection with the Financing.

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Parent contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct without reference to any qualification as to materiality or Parent Material Adverse Effect, such that the aggregate effect of any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties will not have a Parent Material Adverse Effect, as of the Closing Date, except for changes contemplated by this Agreement and except that the accuracy of representations and warranties that by their terms speak as a specified date will be determined as of such date. The Company shall have received a certificate signed by an executive officer of Parent on its behalf to the foregoing effect.

(b) Agreements and Covenants. Parent shall have performed or complied in all material respects with all agreements and covenants required by this Agreement to be performed or complied with by it on or prior to the Effective Time. Table of Contents

(b) by the Company or Parent, if any Governmental Entity shall have issued an Order or taken any other action permanently enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting the Merger or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby or by any of the Transaction Documents, and such Order or other action shall have become final and nonappealable; provided, however, that the party seeking to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this clause (b) shall not have initiated such proceeding or taken any action in support of such proceeding;

(c) by either Parent or the Company, if at the Company Stockholders Meeting (giving effect to any adjournment or postponement thereof), the Company Required Vote shall not have been obtained; provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(c) shall not be available to the Company if the Company has materially breached any of its obligations under Section 5.6;

(d) by the Company in order to enter into an Acquisition Agreement for a Superior Proposal; provided, however, that this Agreement may not be so terminated unless (i) the Company Board of Directors shall have complied with the procedures set forth in Sections 5.6(b) and (c) and (ii) the payment required by Section 7.2 has been made in full to Parent;

(e) by Parent if (i) the Company Board of Directors shall have withdrawn or adversely modified its approvals or recommendations of the Merger or the transactions contemplated thereby or by the Transaction Documents (it being understood, however, that for all purposes of this Agreement, the fact that the Company has supplied any Person with information regarding the Company or has entered into discussions or negotiations with such Person as permitted by this Agreement, or the disclosure of such facts, shall not be deemed in and of itself a withdrawal or modification of such approvals or recommendations), (ii) the Company Board of Directors has failed to reaffirm its approvals and recommendations of the Merger or this Agreement within ten Business Days after Parent has requested in writing that it do so following public announcement of an Alternative Proposal, (iii) the Company Board of Directors shall have (A) recommended to the Company Stockholders that they approve or accept an Alternative Proposal or (B) determined to accept a proposal or offer for a Superior Proposal, (iv) the Company shall have materially breached any of its obligations under Section 5.5 or Section 5.6 or (v) any Third Party shall have commenced a tender or exchange offer or other transaction constituting an Alternative Proposal and the Company shall not have sent to its security holders pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Securities Act, within ten (10) Business Days after such tender or exchange offer is first published, sent or given, a statement disclosing that the Company recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer;

(f) by either Parent or the Company, if the Merger shall not have been consummated prior to July 16, 2007 (the Outside Termination Date); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 7.1(f) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement has been the cause of, or results in, the failure of the Merger to occur on or before such date;

(g) by Parent, if (i) there has been a breach by the Company of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement that would, individually or in the aggregate, result in a failure of a condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.2(b) if continuing on the Closing Date and (ii) such breach (A) shall not have been cured (or is not capable of being cured) before the Outside Termination Date, (B) such breach is not reasonably capable of being cured before the Outside Termination Date, or (C) the Company does not within ten days after receipt of written notice thereof initiate and sustain commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach (it being understood that Parent may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(g) if such breach by the Company is so cured); or

(h) by the Company, if (i) there has been a breach by Parent of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement that would, individually or in the aggregate, result in a failure of a condition set forth in Section 6.3(a) or Section 6.3(b) if continuing on the Closing Date and (ii) such breach (A) shall not have been cured before the Outside Termination Date, (B) is not reasonably capable of being cured before the Outside Termination Date, or (C) Parent does not within ten days after receipt of written notice thereof initiate and sustain commercially reasonable efforts to cure such breach (it being understood that the Company may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(h) if such breach by Parent is so cured).

The party desiring to terminate this Agreement pursuant to subsection (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g) or (h) of this Section 7.1 shall give written notice of such termination to the other party in accordance with Section 8.2, specifying the provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is effected. The right of any party hereto to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of any investigation made by or on behalf of any party hereto, or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives, whether prior to or after the execution of this Agreement.

Section 7.2 Expenses.

(a) Expense Allocation. Except as otherwise specified in this Section 7.2 or agreed in writing by the parties, all out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Transaction Documents, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such cost or expense; provided, however, that Parent and the Company shall share equally all fees and expenses, other than attorneys and accountants' fees and expenses, incurred in connection with filings required under the HSR Act (including the HSR filing fee).

(b) Company Termination Fee. If this Agreement is terminated (i) by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(d) or (ii) by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(e) or (iii) by Parent or the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(c) or Section 7.1(f), the Company shall promptly, and in any event within five Business Days after the date of such termination (except as provided in the proviso below), pay Parent the Company Termination Fee by wire transfer of immediately available funds; provided, however, that in the case of a termination pursuant to clause (iii) above: (A) such payment shall be made only if the Company enters into an Acquisition Agreement with a party other than Parent within six (6) months following such termination, and (B) such payment shall be made promptly, but in no event later than five (5) Business Days, after the entering into of such Acquisition Agreement.

(c) Parent Termination Fee. If (i) the conditions to Closing set forth in Section 6.1 and 6.2 have been satisfied, and (ii) Parent fails to close the transactions contemplated herein, including the Merger, the Company may terminate this Agreement by delivering a notice of termination to Parent in accordance with Section 8.2. In the event the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to the preceding sentence, Parent shall promptly, and in any event within five Business Days after delivery of Company's notice of termination, pay the Company the Parent Termination Fee by wire transfer of immediately available funds.

(d) The parties acknowledge that the agreements contained in Section 7.2(b) and Section 7.2(c) are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, the parties would not enter into this Agreement. The parties further agree that the damages resulting from the termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 7.2(b) or Section 7.2(c) are uncertain and incapable of accurate calculation and that the amounts payable pursuant to Section 7.2(b) and Section 7.2(c) are reasonable forecasts of the actual damages that may be incurred by the respective parties under such circumstances. The amounts payable pursuant to Section 7.2(b) and Section 7.2(c) constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty and shall be the sole monetary remedy in the event that a Company Termination Fee or a Parent Termination Fee, as applicable, is paid in connection with a termination of this Agreement on the bases specified in Section 7.2(b) or Section 7.2(c). The parties acknowledge that in no event shall either party be responsible for paying the Company Termination Fee or the Parent Termination Fee, as applicable, more than once.

Section 7.3 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either the Company or Parent as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability or obligation on the part of Parent and Merger Sub or the Company, except that (a) the provisions of Section 7.1, Section 7.2, this Section 7.3 and Article VIII shall survive termination and (b) nothing herein shall relieve any party from liability for damages (including, in the case of the Company, damages based on the Merger Consideration payable to the Company Stockholders pursuant to this Agreement) for any willful breach of this Agreement or for fraud.

Section 7.4 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties in writing by action of their respective Boards of Directors at any time before or after the Company Required Vote has been obtained and prior to the filing of the Certificate of Merger with the Delaware Secretary; provided, however, that, after the Company Required Vote shall have been obtained, no such amendment, modification or supplement shall be made which by Law requires the further approval of the Company Stockholders without such further approval. This Agreement may not be amended, changed or supplemented or otherwise modified except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of all of the parties.

Section 7.5 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, each of the Company, Parent and Merger Sub may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in this Agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to this Agreement, or (c) subject to the provisions of Section 7.4, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions of the other parties contained in this Agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of those rights.

ARTICLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 8.1 Nonsurvival of Representations and Warranties. None of the representations and warranties in this Agreement or in any instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time. This Section 8.1 shall not limit any covenant or agreement of the parties in this Agreement that by its terms contemplates performance after the Effective Time.

Section 8.5 Entire Agreement; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement (including the documents and instruments referred to herein, including the Confidentiality Agreement) (a) constitutes the entire agreement, and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement and (b) is not intended to and does not confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto any rights or remedies hereunder, other than the Indemnified Persons intended to benefit from the provisions of Section 5.10 and, as of the Effective Time, the Company Stockholders under Article I hereof, who shall have the right to enforce such provisions directly.

Section 8.8 Enforcement. Except as otherwise provided herein, any and all remedies herein expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred hereby, or by law or equity upon such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. The parties agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any state or federal court sitting in the State of Delaware, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at Law or in equity.

Section 8.9 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provision hereof. If the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction declares that any term or provision hereof is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the parties hereto agree that the court making such determination shall have the power to limit the term or provision, to delete specific words or phrases, or to replace any invalid, illegal or unenforceable term or provision with a term or provision that is valid, legal and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the invalid, illegal or unenforceable term or provision, and this Agreement shall be enforceable as so modified. In the event such court does not exercise the power granted to it in the prior sentence, the parties hereto agree to replace such invalid, illegal or unenforceable term or provision with a valid, legal and enforceable term or provision that will achieve, to the extent possible, the economic, business and other purposes of such invalid, illegal or unenforceable term.

Section 8.10 Consent to Jurisdiction; Venue.

Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any action shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by law.

(b) Each of the parties hereto irrevocably consents to the service of any summons and complaint and any other process in any other action relating to the Merger, on behalf of itself or its property, by the personal delivery of copies of such process to such party. Nothing in this Section 8.9 shall affect the right of any party hereto to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by Law.

Section 8.11 Waiver of Trial by Jury. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) EACH SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) EACH SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) EACH SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 8.11.

EXHIBIT A

VOTING AGREEMENT

This Voting Agreement (the Agreement) is made and entered into as of April 5, 2007, between EMB Holding Corp., a Delaware corporation (Parent), Embarcadero Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the Company), and the undersigned stockholder of the Company (Holder).

RECITALS

Pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of April 5, 2007 (the Merger Agreement) by and among Parent, EMBT Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and the Company, Merger Sub is merging with and into the Company (the Merger) and the Company, as the surviving corporation of the Merger, will thereby become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. Concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and as a condition and inducement to Parent and Merger Sub to enter into the Merger Agreement, Parent has required that Holder enter into this Agreement. The Holder is the record and beneficial owner (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act) of such number of shares of the outstanding Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share, of the Company as is indicated beneath Holder's signature on the last page of this Agreement (the Shares). Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement.

AGREEMENT

The parties agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Retain Shares.

(a) Transfer. (1) Except as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and except as provided in Section 1(b) below, during the period beginning on the date hereof and ending on the earlier to occur of (i) the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and (ii) the Expiration Date (as defined below), Holder agrees not to, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, exchange or otherwise dispose of (including by merger, consolidation or otherwise by operation of law) the Shares or any New Shares (as defined below), (2) Holder agrees not to, directly or indirectly, grant any proxies or powers of attorney, deposit any of such Holder's Shares into a voting trust or enter into a voting agreement with respect to any of such Holder's Shares, or enter into any agreement or arrangement providing for any of the actions described in this clause (2), and (3) Holder agrees not to, directly or indirectly, take any action that could reasonably be expected to have the effect of preventing or disabling Holder from performing Holder's obligations under this Agreement at any time prior to the earlier to occur of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the Expiration Date. As used herein, the term Expiration Date shall mean the earlier to occur of (i) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with the terms and provisions thereof and (ii) the date on which the Company's Board of Directors withdraws or modifies in a manner adverse to Parent or Merger Sub its approval or recommendation of the Merger or the transactions contemplated thereby or by the Transaction Documents.

(b) Permitted Transfers. Section 1(a) shall not prohibit a transfer of Shares or New Shares by Holder to (i) any family member, trust for the benefit of any family member so long as the assignee or transferee agrees to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and executes and delivers to the parties hereto a written consent memorializing such agreement or (ii) to charities, so long as such transfers do not exceed 125,000 Shares.

(c) New Shares. Holder agrees that any shares of the Company Common Stock that Holder purchases or with respect to which Holder otherwise acquires record or beneficial ownership after the date of this Agreement and prior to the earlier to occur of (i) the Effective Time and (ii) the Expiration Date (New Shares) shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement to the same extent as if they constituted Shares.

Table of Contents

(d) Stop Transfer. From and after the date of this Agreement through the term of this Agreement, the Company will not register or otherwise recognize the transfer (book-entry or otherwise) of any Shares or any certificate or uncertificated interest representing any of Holder's Shares, except as permitted by, and in accordance with, Section 1(b).

2. Agreement to Vote Shares.

(a) Until the earlier to occur of the Effective Time and the Expiration Date, at every meeting of the stockholders of the Company called with respect to any of the following, and at every adjournment thereof, and on every action or approval by written consent of the stockholders of the Company with respect to any of the following, Holder shall appear at such meeting (in person or by proxy) and shall vote or consent the Shares and any New Shares (i) in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated thereby and (ii) against any proposal for any recapitalization, merger, sale of assets or other business combination (other than the Merger) between the Company and any person or entity other than Parent or any other action or agreement that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of the Company under the Merger Agreement or Holder under this Agreement or which would reasonably be expected to result in any of the conditions to the Company's obligations under the Merger Agreement not being fulfilled. This Agreement is intended to bind Holder as a stockholder of the Company only with respect to the specific matters set forth herein. Except as set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 2, Holder shall not be restricted from voting in favor of, against or abstaining with respect to any other matter presented to the stockholders of the Company. Prior to the termination of this Agreement, Holder covenants and agrees not to enter into any agreement or understanding with any person to vote or give instructions in any manner inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

(b) Holder further agrees that, until the termination of this Agreement, Holder will not, and will not permit any entity under Holder's control to, (A) solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in Rule 14A under the Exchange Act) with respect to an Opposing Proposal (as defined below), (B) initiate a stockholders' vote with respect to an Opposing Proposal or (C) become a member of a group (as such term is used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of the Company with respect to an Opposing Proposal. For the purposes of this Agreement, an Opposing Proposal means any action or proposal described in clause (ii) of Section 2(a) above.

(c) Subject to the provisions set forth in Section 5 hereof and as security for Holder's obligations under Section 2(a), Holder hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints Parent and its or his designees as his attorney and proxy in accordance with the DGCL, with full power of substitution and resubstitution, to cause the Shares to be counted as present at the Company Stockholders Meeting, to vote his Shares at the Company Stockholders Meeting, however called, and to execute consents in respect of his Shares as and to the extent provided in Section 2(a). SUBJECT TO THE PROVISIONS SET FORTH IN SECTION 5 HEREOF, THIS PROXY AND POWER OF ATTORNEY IS IRREVOCABLE AND COUPLED WITH AN INTEREST. Upon the execution of this Agreement by Holder, Holder hereby revokes any and all prior proxies or powers of attorney given by Holder with respect to voting of the Shares on the matters referred to in Section 2(a) and agrees not to grant any subsequent proxies or powers of attorney with respect to the voting of the Shares on the matters referred to in Section 2(a) until after the Expiration Date. Holder understands and acknowledges that Parent is entering into the Merger Agreement in reliance upon the Holder's execution and delivery of this Agreement and Holder's granting of the proxy contained in this Section 2(c). Holder hereby affirms that the proxy granted in this Section 2(c) is given in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and that such proxy is given to secure the performance of the duties of Holder under this Agreement.

3. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of Holder. Holder hereby represents, warrants and covenants to Parent that Holder (i) is the record and beneficial owner of the Shares, which, at the date of this Agreement and at all times up until the earlier to occur of (A) the Effective Time and (B) the Expiration Date, and will be free and clear of any liens, claims, options, charges or other encumbrances, and (ii) does not own of record or

This Agreement (including the proxy granted in section 2(c) above) has been duly and validly executed and delivered by Holder and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Holder, enforceable against Holder in accordance with its terms, subject to (a) laws of general application relating to bankruptcy, insolvency and the relief of debtors and (b) rules of law governing specific performance, injunctive relief and other equitable remedies.

4. Additional Documents. Holder hereby covenants and agrees to execute and deliver any additional documents reasonably necessary to carry out the purpose and intent of this Agreement.

5. Termination. This Agreement and the proxy delivered in connection herewith shall terminate and shall have no further force and effect as of the earlier to occur of (i) the Expiration Date and (ii) the date following the date of the Company Stockholders Meeting, including any adjournment or postponement thereof.

6. Fiduciary Duties. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary: (i) Holder makes no agreement or understanding herein in any capacity other than in Holder's capacity as a record holder and beneficial owner of the Shares, (ii) nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit or affect any action or inaction by Holder acting in his capacity as a director or fiduciary of the Company, and (iii) Holder shall have no liability to Parent, Merger Sub or any of their Affiliates under this Agreement as a result of any action or inaction by Holder acting in his capacity as a director or fiduciary of the Company.

7. Miscellaneous.

(a) Amendments and Waivers. Any term of this Agreement may be amended or waived with the written consent of the parties or their respective successors and assigns. Section 1. Place and Time of Meetings. An annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held each year within one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of the immediately preceding fiscal year of the corporation for the purpose of electing directors and conducting such other proper business as may come before the meeting. The date, time and place of the annual meeting shall be determined by the president of the corporation; provided, that if the president does not act, the board of directors shall determine the date, time and place of such meeting.

If no designation is made, or if a special meeting be otherwise called, the place of meeting shall be the principal executive office of the corporation.

Section 4. Notice. Whenever stockholders are required or permitted to take action at a meeting, written or printed notice stating the place, date, time, and, in the case of special meetings, the purpose or purposes, of such meeting, shall be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the date of the meeting. All such notices shall be delivered, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the board of directors, the president or the secretary, and if mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the stockholder at his, her or its address as the same appears on the records of the corporation. Attendance of a person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when the person attends for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

such meeting arranged in alphabetical order, showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten (10) days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting or, if not so specified, at the place where the meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present.

Section 6. Quorum. The holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of capital stock, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the stockholders, except as otherwise provided by statute or by the certificate of incorporation. If a quorum is not present, the holders of a majority of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting, and entitled to vote at the meeting, may adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place.

Section 7. Adjourned Meetings. When a meeting is adjourned to another time and place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting the corporation may transact any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. If the adjournment is for more than thirty (30) days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 8. Vote Required. When a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the stockholders, unless the question is one upon which by express provisions of an applicable law or of the certificate of incorporation a different vote is required, in which case such express provision shall govern and control the decision of such question.

Section 9. Voting Rights. Except as otherwise provided by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or by the certificate of incorporation of the corporation or any amendments thereto and subject to Section 3 of Article VI hereof, every stockholder shall at every meeting of the stockholders be entitled to one (1) vote in person or by proxy for each share of common stock held by such stockholder.

Section 10. Proxies. Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for him or her by proxy, but no such proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three (3) years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A duly executed proxy shall be irrevocable if it states that it is irrevocable and if, and only as long as, it is coupled with an interest sufficient in law to support an irrevocable power. A proxy may be made irrevocable regardless of whether the interest with which it is coupled is an interest in the stock itself or an interest in the corporation generally. Any proxy is suspended when the person executing the proxy is present at a meeting of stockholders and elects to vote, except that when such proxy is coupled with an interest and the fact of the interest appears on the face of the proxy, the agent named in the proxy shall have all voting and other rights referred to in the proxy, notwithstanding the presence of the person executing the proxy. At each meeting of the stockholders, and before any voting commences, all proxies filed at or before the meeting shall be submitted to and examined by the secretary or a person designated by the secretary, and no shares may be represented or voted under a proxy that has been found to be invalid or irregular.

Section 11. Action by Written Consent. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of incorporation, any action required to be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the corporation, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of such stockholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent or consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken and bearing the dates of signature of the stockholders who signed the consent or consents, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted and shall be delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in the state of Delaware, or the corporation's principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book or books in which proceedings of meetings of the stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested provided, however, that no consent or consents delivered by certified or registered mail shall be deemed delivered until such consent or consents are actually received at the registered office. All consents properly delivered in accordance with this section shall be deemed to be recorded when so delivered. No written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein unless, within sixty (60) days of the earliest dated consent delivered to the corporation as required by this section, written consents signed by the holders of a sufficient number of shares to take such corporate action are so recorded. Prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing. Any action taken pursuant to such written consent or consents of the stockholders shall have the same force and effect as if taken by the stockholders at a meeting thereof.

Section 2. Number, Election and Term of Office. The number of directors which shall constitute the first board shall be three (3). Thereafter, the number of directors shall be established from time to time by resolution of the board. Each director elected shall hold office until a successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal as hereinafter provided.

Section 3. Removal and Resignation. Any director or the entire board of directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. Whenever the holders of any class or series are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the corporation's certificate of incorporation, the provisions of this section shall apply, in respect to the removal without cause of a director or directors so elected, to the vote of the holders of the outstanding shares of that class or series and not to the vote of the outstanding shares as a whole. Any director may resign at any time upon written notice to the corporation.

Section 4. Vacancies. Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Each director so chosen shall hold office until a successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier death, resignation or removal as herein provided.

Section 5. Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of each newly elected board of directors shall be held without other notice than this by-law immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of stockholders.

Section 7. Quorum, Required Vote and Adjournment. A majority of the total number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The vote of a majority of directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors. Section 8. Committees. The board of directors may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole board, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the directors of the corporation, which to the extent provided in such resolution or these by-laws shall have and may exercise the powers of the board of directors in the management and affairs of the corporation except as otherwise limited by law. The board of directors may designate one or more directors as alternate members of any committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the board of directors. Each committee shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and report the same to the board of directors when required.

Section 9. Committee Rules. Each committee of the board of directors may fix its own rules of procedure and shall hold its meetings as provided by such rules, except as may otherwise be provided by a resolution of the board of directors designating such committee. Unless otherwise provided in such a resolution, the presence of at least a majority of the members of the committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum. In the event that a member and that member's alternate, if alternates are designated by the board of directors as provided in Section 8 of this Article III, of such committee is or are absent or disqualified, the member or members thereof present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the board of directors to act at the meeting in place of any such absent or disqualified member.

Members of the board of directors or any committee thereof may participate in and act at any meeting of such board or committee through the use of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in the meeting pursuant to this section shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 11. Waiver of Notice and Presumption of Assent. Any member of the board of directors or any committee thereof who is present at a meeting shall be conclusively presumed to have waived notice of such meeting except when such member attends for the express purpose of objecting at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Such member shall be conclusively presumed to have assented to any action taken unless his or her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless his or her written dissent to such action shall be filed with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall be forwarded by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to any member who voted in favor of such action.

Section 12. Action by Written Consent. Unless otherwise restricted by the certificate of incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors, or of any committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee.

ARTICLE V

INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS, DIRECTORS AND OTHERS

Section 1. Right to Indemnification. Each person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a proceeding), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or an officer of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to an employee benefit plan (hereinafter an indemnitee), whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the corporation to the fullest extent authorized by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the corporation to provide broader indemnification rights than such law permitted the corporation to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such indemnitee in connection therewith; provided, however, that, except as provided in Section 3 of this Article V with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification, the corporation shall indemnify any such indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such indemnitee only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the board of directors of the corporation.

Section 2. Right to Advancement of Expenses. The right to indemnification conferred in Section 1 of this Article V shall include the right to be paid by the corporation the expenses (including attorney's fees) incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition (hereinafter an advancement of expenses); provided, however, that, if the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware requires, an advancement of expenses incurred by an indemnitee in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such indemnitee, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) shall be made only upon delivery to the corporation of an undertaking (hereinafter an "undertaking"), by or on behalf of such indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined by final judicial decision from which there is no further right to appeal (hereinafter a "final adjudication") that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified for such expenses under this Section 2 or otherwise. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses conferred in Sections 1 and 2 of this Article V shall be contract rights and such rights shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the indemnitee's heirs, executors and administrators.

Section 3. Right of Indemnitee to Bring Suit. If a claim under Section 1 or 2 of this Article V is not paid in full by the corporation within 60 days after a written claim has been received by the corporation, except in the case of a claim for an advancement of expenses, in which case the applicable period shall be 20 days, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. If successful in whole or in part in any such suit, or in a suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting or defending such suit. In (i) any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification hereunder (but not in a suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to an advancement of expenses) it shall be a defense that, and (ii) in any suit brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the corporation shall be entitled to recover such expenses upon a final adjudication that, the indemnitee has not met any applicable standard for indemnification set forth in the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. Neither the failure of the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such suit that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, nor an actual determination by the corporation (including its board of directors, independent legal counsel, or its stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct or, in the case of such a suit brought by the indemnitee, be a defense to such suit. In any suit brought by the indemnitee to enforce a right to indemnification or to an advancement of expenses hereunder, or brought by the corporation to recover an advancement of expenses pursuant to the terms of an undertaking, the burden of proving that the indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified, or to such advancement of expenses, under this Article V or otherwise shall be on the corporation.

Section 4. Article Not Exclusive. The rights to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in defending a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article V shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the certificate of incorporation, by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

Section 5. Insurance. The corporation may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

Section 6. Employees and Agents. The corporation may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the board of directors, grant rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses to any employee or agent of the corporation to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article V with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors and officers of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

CERTIFICATES OF STOCK

Section 1. Form. Every holder of stock in the corporation shall be entitled to have a certificate, signed by, or in the name of the corporation by the president or a vice-president and the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation, certifying the number of shares of a specific class or series owned by such holder in the corporation. If such a certificate is countersigned (1) by a transfer agent or an assistant transfer agent other than the corporation or its employee or (2) by a registrar, other than the corporation or its employee, the signature of any such president, vice-president, secretary, or assistant secretary may be facsimiles. In case any officer or officers who have signed, or whose facsimile signature or signatures have been used on, any such certificate or certificates shall cease to be such officer or officers of the corporation whether because of death, resignation or otherwise before such certificate or certificates have been delivered by the corporation, such certificate or certificates may nevertheless be issued and delivered as though the person or persons who signed such certificate or certificates or whose facsimile signature or signatures have been used thereon had not ceased to be such officer or officers of the corporation. All certificates for shares shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified. The name of the person to whom the shares represented thereby are issued, with the number of shares and date of issue, shall be entered on the books of the corporation. Shares of stock of the corporation shall only be transferred on the books of the corporation by the holder of record thereof or by such holder's attorney duly authorized in writing, upon surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates for such shares endorsed by the appropriate person or persons, with such evidence of the authenticity of such endorsement, transfer, authorization, and other matters as the corporation may reasonably require, and accompanied by all necessary stock transfer stamps. In that event, it shall be the duty of the corporation to issue a new certificate to the person entitled thereto, cancel the old certificate or certificates, and record the transaction on its books. The board of directors may appoint a bank or trust company organized under the laws of the United States or any state thereof to act as its transfer agent or registrar, or both in connection with the transfer of any class or series of securities of the corporation.

Section 2. Lost Certificates. The board of directors may direct a new certificate or certificates to be issued in place of any certificate or certificates previously issued by the corporation alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming the certificate of stock to be lost, stolen, or destroyed. When authorizing such issue of a new certificate or certificates, the board of directors may, in its discretion and as a condition precedent to the issuance thereof, require the owner of such lost, stolen, or destroyed certificate or certificates, or his or her legal representative, to give the corporation a bond sufficient to indemnify the corporation against any claim that may be made against the corporation on account of the loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of such new certificate.

Section 3. Fixing a Record Date for Stockholder Meetings. In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment thereof, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors, and which record date shall not be more than sixty (60) nor less than ten (10) days before the date of such meeting. If no record date is fixed by the board of directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be the close of business on the next day preceding the day on which notice is given, or if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the meeting is held. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the board of directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

Section 4. Fixing a Record Date for Action by Written Consent. In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors, and which date shall not be more than ten (10) days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the board of directors. If no record date has been fixed by the board of directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the board of directors is required by statute, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered to the corporation by delivery to its registered office in the State of Delaware, its principal place of business, or an officer or agent of the corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders are recorded. Delivery made to the corporation's registered office shall be by hand or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. If no record date has been fixed by the board of directors and prior action by the board of directors is required by statute, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting shall be at the close of business on the day on which the board of directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

Section 5. Fixing a Record Date for Other Purposes. In order that the corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment or any rights or the stockholders entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purposes of any other lawful action, the board of directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted, and which record date shall be not more than sixty (60) days prior to such action. If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the board of directors adopts the resolution relating thereto.

Section 6. Registered Stockholders. Prior to the surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates for a share or shares of stock with a request to record the transfer of such share or shares, the corporation may treat the registered owner as the person entitled to receive dividends, to vote, to receive notifications, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner. The corporation shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person, whether or not it shall have express or other notice thereof.

Section 7. Subscriptions for Stock. Unless otherwise provided for in the subscription agreement, subscriptions for shares shall be paid in full at such time, or in such installments and at such times, as shall be determined by the board of directors. Any call made by the board of directors for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the same class or as to all shares of the same series. In case of default in the payment of any installment or call when such payment is due, the corporation may proceed to collect the amount due in the same manner as any debt due the corporation.

The loan, guaranty or other assistance may be with or without interest, and may be unsecured, or secured in such manner as the board of directors shall approve, including, without limitation, a pledge of shares of stock of the corporation. These by-laws may be amended, altered, or repealed and new by-laws adopted at any meeting of the board of directors by a majority vote. COMMITMENT LETTER

$100 MILLION SENIOR SECURED CREDIT FACILITIES

Gentlemen:

As we, Wells Fargo Foothill, Inc. (WFF or we), understand, Thoma Cressey Bravo, Inc. (the Sponsor or you) has formed or will be forming an acquisition entity, EMBT Merger Corp. (Newco) in order to acquire (the Acquisition) Embarcadero Technologies, Inc. (the Company). The acquisition is expected to be accomplished pursuant to the terms of a merger agreement between an affiliate of Sponsor, Newco, and the Company (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which Newco will merge (the Merger) with and into Company, with Company as the survivor of such merger. WFF further understands that Sponsor is desirous of obtaining financing in order to (a) finance a portion of the consideration payable in connection with the consummation of the Acquisition, (b) refinance certain of Company's existing indebtedness, (c) finance working capital, capital expenditures, and the general corporate purposes (including Permitted Acquisitions (to be defined in the final loan documentation for the Facilities)) of the Company, and each of its domestic subsidiaries, and (d) pay costs, fees and expenses associated with the transactions contemplated hereby (the Transaction).

Based upon information known to us today concerning the Transaction, we are pleased to provide you with this commitment letter, and the term sheet attached hereto (the Term Sheet), which establish the terms and conditions under which WFF commits to provide to Company senior secured credit facilities in the aggregate amount of $100,000,000 (the Facilities). The parties acknowledge that the Term Sheet and this commitment letter (1) summarize all of the substantive conditions precedent to the Facilities, and (2) do not purport to summarize all of the covenants, representations, warranties and other provisions that will be contained in definitive legal documentation for the Facilities. The parties hereto agree that such covenants, representations, warranties and other provisions (to the extent not already addressed in the Term Sheet or this commitment letter) will be customary for transactions of this type or otherwise acceptable to the Sponsor and WFF.

Syndication

While WFF has provided a commitment for the entire amount of the Facilities subject to the terms and conditions of this commitment letter and the Term Sheet, WFF may syndicate (in consultation with the Sponsor (it being understood that in no event shall WFF be required to obtain the Sponsor's consent with respect to all or any portion of such syndicate)) the financing for the Transaction to additional lenders with a corresponding reduction in WFF's share of the Facilities. WFF will manage all aspects of any syndication, including the timing of all offers to potential lenders and the allocation and acceptance of commitments, the amount offered, and the compensation provided and titles. The Sponsor also agrees that no lender will receive any compensation for its participation in the Facilities except as expressly agreed to and offered by WFF.

If WFF elects to syndicate the Facilities, Sponsor agrees to cooperate in such syndication process and use commercially reasonable efforts to assist WFF in forming a syndicate acceptable to WFF (in reasonable consultation with the Sponsor (it being understood that in no event shall WFF be required to obtain the Sponsor's consent with respect to all or any portion of such syndicate)). Such assistance shall include but not be limited to (a) using commercially reasonable efforts to make senior management and representatives of Company available to participate in meetings and to provide information to potential lenders and participants at such reasonable times and places as WFF may reasonably request upon reasonable prior notice; and (b) using commercially reasonable efforts to provide all information reasonably deemed necessary by WFF to complete the syndication, subject to confidentiality agreements in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Sponsor and WFF. In addition, Sponsor agrees that WFF shall have the right to provide information concerning the Facilities to loan syndication and reporting services.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to § 228 or § 253 of this title, then either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation or the surviving or resulting corporation within 10 days thereafter shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

- (i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.
- (j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.
- (k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.
- (l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.
