Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K (including the exhibits), including statements regarding Newtek's beliefs, expectations, intentions or strategies for the future, may be forward-looking statements under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All forward-looking statements involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the plans, intentions and expectations reflected in or suggested by the forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, among others, intensified competition, operating problems and their impact on revenues and profit margins, anticipated future business strategies and financial performance, anticipated future number of customers, business prospects, legislative developments and similar matters. Risk factors, cautionary statements and other conditions which could cause Newtek's actual results to differ from management's current expectations are contained in Newtek's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Newtek undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this filing.

ITEM 1.01. Entry into a Material Written Agreement

On July 24, 2008, Newtek Business Services, Inc. entered into an Amendment to the Employment Agreement dated June 30, 2006 between Newtek and Barry Sloane ("Amendment to Sloane Employment Agreement"). The amendment extends the term of the employment agreement to December 31, 2008 and enhances the severance provisions for termination other than for cause of the agreement to two (2) times the sum of (i) Mr. Sloane's base salary in effect at the time of termination, plus (ii) the amount of any incentive compensation paid with respect to the immediately preceding fiscal year, and imposes certain covenants of non solicitation and non interference in the event that Mr. Sloane's employment with the Company terminates for any reason.

A copy of the Amendment to Sloane Employment Agreement is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.
