Adoption of 2010 Executive Bonus Program

On February 8, 2010, the Compensation and Corporate Governance Committee (the Committee) of the Board of Directors of VMware, Inc. (the Company) adopted the Company's 2010 executive bonus program (the 2010 Program) under its 2007 Equity and Incentive Plan for its executive officers, including its President and Chief Executive Officer, Paul Maritz, Carl Eschenbach and Mark Peek. The 2010 Program provides for the payment of cash incentive bonuses upon achievement of certain corporate and individual performance objectives to be established by the Committee. The 2010 Program allows the Company to recover bonus payments in the event that payment was predicated on financial results that were subject to a material restatement and the individual engaged in fraud or misconduct that caused or partially caused the need for the restatement.

For the first half of 2010, 75% of the bonus target will be tied to the achievement of corporate goals based on VMware's financial performance and 25% of the bonus target is tied to the achievement of individual Management by Objectives, or MBO, plan goals established for each officer. Bonus payments are based on semi-annual performance. If a minimum of at least 80% of the corporate performance targets are not met, then no bonus amounts will be paid. The calculated bonus amount will vary up to a maximum payment of 200% of the bonus target depending on the level of achievement of corporate and MBO goals during the performance period, subject to the discretion of the Committee to reduce the amount payable.
