CALCULATION OF FILING FEE

Transaction Valuation(1)
$18,351,638,353

Amount of Filing Fee(2)
$1,308,472

- (1) Estimated for purposes of calculating the filing fee only. The transaction valuation was calculated by adding: (i) the product of (x) 254,839,847 (the number of shares of common stock of the subject company (Shares) issued and outstanding as of July 31, 2010) and (y) $69.00 (the per Share offer price); and (ii) the product of (x) 37,230,306 (the number of Shares issuable upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights as of December 31, 2009) and (y) $20.62 (the difference between the $69.00 per Share offer price and $48.38, the weighted-average exercise price of such options, warrants and rights). The number of outstanding Shares is reported in the subject company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2010, and the number and weighted-average exercise price of the subject company's options, warrants and rights is reported in the subject company's Definitive Proxy Statement filed April 26, 2010.
- (2) The filing fee was calculated in accordance with Rule 0-11 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 by multiplying the transaction value by 0.00007130.

This Amendment No. 4 (this Amendment) amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on October 4, 2010 (which, together with any amendments and supplements thereto, collectively constitute the Schedule TO) and is filed by (i) GC Merger Corp., a Massachusetts corporation (the Purchaser), and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sanofi-Aventis, a French société anonyme (Parent) and (ii) Parent. The Schedule TO relates to the offer by the Purchaser to purchase all of the outstanding shares of common stock, $0.01 par value per share (the Shares), of Genzyme Corporation, a Massachusetts corporation (Genzyme), at a purchase price of $69.00 per Share net to the sellers in cash, without interest thereon and less any required withholding taxes, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Offer to Purchase dated October 4, 2010 (which, together with any amendments and supplements thereto, collectively constitute the Offer to Purchase) and in the related Letter of Transmittal (which, together with any amendments or supplements thereto, collectively constitute the Offer). The Schedule TO (including the Offer to Purchase) contains important information about the Offer, all of which should be read carefully by Genzyme shareholders before any decision is made with respect to the Offer.

Documentation relating to the Offer has been mailed to Genzyme shareholders and may be obtained at no charge at the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov and may also be obtained at no charge by directing a request by mail to MacKenzie Partners, Inc., 105 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10016, or by calling toll-free at (800) 322-2885.

All information set forth in the Offer to Purchase and the related Letter of Transmittal is incorporated by reference in answer to Items 1 through 12 in the Schedule TO, except those items as to which information is specifically provided herein. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Offer to Purchase.

Amendments to the Offer to Purchase

Items 1 to 11.

The Offer to Purchase and Items 1 through 11 of the Schedule TO, to the extent such Items incorporate by reference the information contained in the Offer to Purchase, are hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

The sub-section captioned Litigation in Section 15 (Certain Legal Matters; Regulatory Approvals) is hereby amended by appending the following language at the end of the sub-section:

On August 31, 2010, David Shade, who also purports to be a Genzyme shareholder, filed a putative class action complaint against Genzyme and its Board of Directors in Massachusetts state court (Middlesex County), Docket No. 10-3276 (the Shade Action). Like the complaint in the Chester County Action, the complaint in the Shade Action alleged that Genzyme's directors are breaching their fiduciary duties to Genzyme's public shareholders by, among other things, failing to engage in good faith negotiations with Parent or any other bidder to obtain the best possible offer for Genzyme and its shareholders. The complaint sought, among other things, an order certifying a plaintiff class consisting of all public Genzyme shareholders, an order enjoining Genzyme's directors from instituting defensive measures that would inhibit their ability to maximize shareholder value, damages in an unspecified amount, and an award of attorneys' fees and costs of litigation.

On September 2, 2010, the Louisiana Municipal Police Employees Retirement System, which also purports to be a Genzyme shareholder, filed a putative class action complaint against Genzyme and its Board of Directors in Massachusetts state court (Middlesex County), Docket No. 10-3327 (the LAMPERS Action). Like the complaints in the Chester County and Shade Actions, the complaint in the LAMPERS Action alleged that Genzyme's directors are breaching their fiduciary duties to Genzyme's public shareholders by, among other things, failing to engage in good faith negotiations with Parent or any other bidder to obtain the best possible offer for Genzyme and its shareholders. The complaint sought, among other things, a declaration that the action is properly maintainable as a class action, a declaration that Genzyme's directors are breaching their fiduciary duties to Genzyme's public shareholders by refusing to negotiate with Parent, damages in an unspecified amount, and an award of attorneys' fees and costs of litigation.

On October 5, 2010, the plaintiffs in the Chester County, Kahn, Shade and LAMPERS Actions (collectively, the State Court Actions) filed a motion to consolidate their respective actions, which motion was granted the same day. On October 18, 2010, the plaintiffs in the State Court Actions filed a Consolidated Class Action Complaint against Genzyme and its Board of Directors, which, among other things, adds allegations that the Schedule 14D-9 that Genzyme filed with the SEC on October 7, 2010 fails to disclose all material information and is otherwise materially misleading. The Consolidated Class Action Complaint seeks, among other things, a declaration that the action is properly maintainable as a class action, a declaration that Genzyme's directors are breaching their fiduciary duties to Genzyme's public shareholders by refusing to negotiate with Parent, an order requiring Genzyme's directors to disclose all material information regarding the Schedule 14D-9, damages in an unspecified amount, and an award of attorneys' fees and costs of litigation. The defendants have not yet answered or otherwise responded to the Consolidated Class Action Complaint.

On October 12, 2010, the plaintiff in the Morelos Revocable Trust action filed a notice of voluntary dismissal of its complaint as to Parent.

On October 18, 2010, Warren Pinchuck, who also purports to be a Genzyme shareholder, filed a putative class action complaint against Genzyme and the Individual Defendants in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, Case No. 1:10-cv-11776 (the Pinchuck Action). Like the complaints in the Chester County, Malina, Resendes and Field Actions, the complaint in the Pinchuck Action alleges that the Individual Defendants are breaching their fiduciary duties to Genzyme's public shareholders by, among other things, failing to engage in good faith negotiations with Parent or any other bidder to obtain the best possible offer for Genzyme and its shareholders. The complaint further alleges that the Schedule 14D-9 that Genzyme filed with the SEC on October 7, 2010 is materially false and misleading. The complaint seeks, among other things, an order certifying a plaintiff class consisting of all public Genzyme shareholders, an order enjoining the Individual Defendants from breaching their fiduciary duties to Genzyme's public shareholders by refusing to respond to Parent in good faith and for the purpose of maximizing shareholder value, an order enjoining the Individual Defendants from initiating any anti-takeover devices that would inhibit their ability to maximize shareholder value, damages in an unspecified amount, and an award of attorneys' fees and costs of litigation. The defendants have not yet answered or otherwise responded to the complaint.
