Item 8.01. Other Events.

As previously disclosed, Rock-Tenn Company ( RockTenn ) and Smurfit-Stone Container Corporation ( Smurfit-Stone ) have entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger, which we refer to as the merger agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Smurfit-Stone will merge with and into Sam Acquisition, LLC, a wholly owned limited liability company subsidiary of RockTenn, which we refer to as the merger.

As previously disclosed, three complaints on behalf of the same putative class of Smurfit-Stone stockholders have been filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery challenging the proposed merger. The operative complaint names as defendants Smurfit-Stone, RockTenn, the individual members of the Smurfit-Stone board of directors, and Sam Acquisition, LLC. Among other things, the plaintiffs allege that the consideration agreed to in the merger agreement is inadequate and unfair to Smurfit-Stone stockholders; that the February 24, 2011 preliminary joint proxy statement/prospectus contains misleading or inadequate disclosures regarding the proposed merger; that the individual defendants breached their fiduciary duties in approving the merger agreement; and that those breaches were aided and abetted by RockTenn and Sam Acquisition, LLC. The plaintiffs moved for a preliminary injunction to enjoin the stockholder vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement scheduled for May 27, 2011. As part of the proceedings, the Delaware Court of Chancery granted Plaintiff's motion for class certification, appointing the plaintiff and his counsel to represent a class of all record and beneficial holders of Smurfit-Stone common stock as of January 23, 2011 or their successors in interest, but excluding the named defendants and any person, firm, trust, corporation or other entity related to or affiliated with any of the defendants. During argument in connection with the preliminary injunction sought by plaintiffs, the plaintiffs acknowledged that their claims concerning the adequacy of the disclosures in the February 24, 2011 preliminary joint proxy statement/prospectus were moot in light of subsequent disclosures made by Smurfit-Stone and RockTenn. On May 20, 2011, the Court denied the plaintiffs' motion for preliminary injunction, finding that the plaintiffs had failed to demonstrate a likelihood of success with respect to the merits of their claims; that the requisite showing of irreparable harm had not been made; and that the balance of the equities counseled against granting the injunction.

Also as previously disclosed, complaints asserting similar claims on behalf of the same putative class of Smurfit-Stone stockholders have been filed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, and in the Circuit Court for Cook County, Illinois. These cases remain pending.

The defendants believe that all these suits are without merit and will continue to vigorously defend against the allegations.
