Blueknight Energy Partners, L.P.

Establishes Conversion Price of Series A Preferred Units

As previously announced, on October 3, 2011 Blueknight Energy Partners, L.P. (NASDAQ: BKEP) (BKEP or the Partnership) expects to distribute detachable freely-tradable rights (each a Right and collectively the Rights) pro rata to common unitholders of record (Record Date Unitholders) as of the close of business on September 27, 2011 (the Record Date). Record Date Unitholders will receive 0.5412 Rights for every common unit owned on the Record Date. Each whole Right will entitle the holder to acquire, for an exercise price of $6.50, a newly-issued Series A Preferred Unit of the Partnership. The Partnership has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) a prospectus supplement, dated September 27, 2011 (the Prospectus Supplement), and the accompanying prospectus, dated July 26, 2011 (together with the Prospectus Supplement, the Prospectus), relating to, among other things, the rights offering.

As described in the Prospectus, the Series A Preferred Units are convertible in whole or in part into common units at the holder s election and in whole into common units by the Partnership upon the occurrence of certain events. The number of common units into which a Series A Preferred Unit is convertible is equal to (i) $6.50 divided by (ii) the Conversion Price. The Conversion Price is an amount equal to the volume-weighted average trading price per common unit during the 20 consecutive trading days ending on September 28, 2011; provided, that the Conversion Price shall be no greater than $6.50 and no lower than $5.50. The Partnership has determined that the Conversion Price is equal to $6.50. Accordingly, the Series A Preferred Units are convertible in whole or in part into common units at the holder s election (or in whole by the Partnership upon the occurrence of certain events) on the basis of one common unit for each Series A Preferred Unit, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments. Please refer to the Prospectus for more information relating to the conversion of the Series A Preferred Units and other information relating to the rights offering.

The Partnership has filed a registration statement (including a prospectus and a prospectus supplement) on Form S-3 with the SEC for the rights offering and the Series A Preferred Units that may be purchased upon exercise of the Rights to which this communication relates.
