CoreSite Realty Corporation Announces Sale of Common Stock by The Carlyle Group

DENVER, CO November 8, 2011 CoreSite Realty Corporation (NYSE: COR) (the Company), a U.S. provider of powerful, network-rich data centers, today announced the sale of 889,610 shares of its common stock by investment funds affiliated with The Carlyle Group to Citigroup, as sole underwriter in connection with the offering.

Upon completion of the offering, investment funds affiliated with The Carlyle Group will continue to hold 25,275,390 partnership units in the Company's operating partnership that they may elect to redeem in whole or in part for cash or, at the Company's option, the Company may elect to acquire those operating partnership units submitted for redemption in exchange for shares of its common stock on a one-for-one basis. If all such operating partnership units were tendered for redemption and, if the Company elected to acquire such units in exchange for shares of its common stock, investment funds affiliated with The Carlyle Group would own an aggregate of 54.9% of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock. The offering is expected to close and settle on November 15, 2011, subject to customary closing conditions. Neither the Company nor the Company's management is selling any shares of common stock in the offering and the Company will not receive any of the proceeds from the offering of shares by the selling stockholders.

A shelf registration statement (including a prospectus) relating to the offering of the common stock has previously been filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and became effective. Before investing, you should read the prospectus and other documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for information about CoreSite Realty Corporation and this offering. You may get these documents for free by visiting the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Forward Looking Statements

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements relate to expectations, beliefs, projections, future plans and strategies, anticipated events or trends and similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as believes, expects, may, will, should, seeks, approximately, intends, plans, pro forma, estimates or anticipates or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases that are predictions of or indicate future events or trends and that do not relate solely to historical matters. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and contingencies, many of which are beyond the Company's control, that may cause actual results to differ significantly from those expressed in any forward-looking statement. These risks include, without limitation: the timely completion of planned construction, geographic concentration of the Company's data centers in certain markets and any adverse developments in local economic conditions or the demand for data center space in these markets; fluctuations in interest rates and increased operating costs; difficulties in identifying properties to acquire and completing acquisitions; significant industry competition; the Company's failure to obtain necessary outside financing; the Company's failure to qualify or maintain our status as a REIT; financial market fluctuations; changes in real estate and zoning laws and increases in real property tax rates; and other factors affecting the real estate industry generally. All forward-looking statements reflect the Company's good faith beliefs, assumptions and expectations, but they are not guarantees of future performance. Furthermore, the Company disclaims any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement to reflect changes in underlying assumptions or factors, of new information, data or methods, future events or other changes. For a further discussion of these and other factors that could cause the Company's future results to differ materially from any forward-looking statements, see the section entitled Risk Factors in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 and other risks described in documents subsequently filed by the Company from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
