ITEM 8.01 Other Events

Nobility, Inc. (the Company) has completed its review of its accounting treatment regarding valuation of its inventory of pre-owned manufactured homes for prior reporting periods with the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) which it previously disclosed in March 2012.

Based upon guidance from the staff of the SEC, the Company is continuing discussions with Crowe Horwath, the Company's current independent registered accounting firm (Crowe), and McGladrey, the Company's prior independent registered accounting firm (McGladrey) regarding the accounting for various components of the Company's Finance Revenue Sharing Agreement with 21 Mortgage Corporation and the related repurchased homes.

As previously disclosed, the Company expects a net income statement charge of approximately $3.5 million. The Company is attempting to determine the appropriate periods to recognize all or portions of such a charge.
