Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 24, 2012, Callaway Golf Company (the Company) entered into separate, privately-negotiated exchange agreements (the Exchange Agreements) under which it will exchange 982,361 shares of the Company's outstanding 7.50% Series B Cumulative Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share and liquidation preference $100 per share (the Preferred Stock), for $63,227,000 in aggregate principal amount of new 3.75% Convertible Senior Notes due 2019 (the Notes), and 5,866,821 shares (the Exchange Shares) of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the Common Stock). Following the exchange transactions, 417,639 shares of the Preferred Stock will remain outstanding. On August 24, 2012, the Company also entered into private placement purchase agreements (the Purchase Agreements) under which it will issue additional Notes in an aggregate principal amount of $49,273,000. The Notes will be issued under an indenture between the Company and Wilmington Trust, National Association, as trustee, to be entered into and dated August 29, 2012 (the Indenture).

The Notes mature in 2019 and will pay interest of 3.75% per year on the principal amount, payable semiannually in arrears in cash on February 15 and August 15 of each year, beginning February 15, 2013.

The Notes are convertible, at the option of the Noteholder, at any time on or prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding August 15, 2019, into shares of Common Stock at an initial conversion rate of 133.3333 shares per $1,000 principal amount of Notes, which is equal to a conversion price of approximately $7.50 per share, subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments. Upon the occurrence of certain change of control events of the Company, the Company will pay a premium on the Notes converted in connection with such change of control events by increasing the conversion rate on such Notes.

Under certain circumstances, the Company has the right to terminate the right of Noteholders to convert their Notes. If the Company exercises such termination right prior to August 15, 2015, each Noteholder who converts its Notes after receiving notice of such exercise will receive a make-whole payment in cash or Common Stock, as the Company may elect.

Upon the occurrence of a change of control of the Company or a termination of trading of the Common Stock, Noteholders will have the option to require the Company to repurchase for cash all or any portion of such Noteholder's Notes at a price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the repurchased Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the repurchase date.

The Notes are not redeemable by the Company prior to August 15, 2015. On or after August 15, 2015, the Notes are redeemable in whole or in part at the option of the Company at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the redemption date.

The Indenture will contain customary events of default, including (i) defaults in the payment of principal, certain repurchase obligations and interest, (ii) a default in the obligation of the Company to convert the Notes, (iii) a default with respect to any of the other covenants in the Indenture and failure to cure (or obtain a waiver of) such default, within 60 days after the Company receives a notice of such default by the trustee or by holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, (iv) certain cross-defaults and (v) certain bankruptcy events.

The Company offered the Notes and the Exchange Shares to certain holders of the Preferred Stock in the exchange transactions, and offered the Notes to certain investors in the private placement transactions, in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder.

The foregoing description of the Notes, the Indenture, the Exchange Agreements and the Purchase Agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Indenture (which includes the form of the Note), the Form of Exchange Agreement and the Form of Purchase Agreement, copies of which are included as Exhibits 4.1, 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
