Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 15, 2013, LSI Corporation (the Company ) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement ) by and among the Company, Avago Technologies Limited, a limited company organized under the laws of the Republic of Singapore ( Avago ), Avago Technologies Wireless (U.S.A.) Manufacturing Inc., a Delaware corporation and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Avago ( Parent ) and Leopold Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent ( Merger Sub ), providing for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company (the Merger ), with the Company surviving the Merger as an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Avago. The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Company s Board of Directors (the Board ).

At the effective time of the Merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, each share of the Company s common stock, par value $0.01 ( Company Common Stock ) issued and outstanding immediately prior to such time (other than shares of Company Common Stock held by the Company as treasury stock or directly owned by Parent or Merger Sub, which will be cancelled, and shares of the Company Common Stock with respect to which appraisal rights are properly exercised and not withdrawn under Delaware law) shall be automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive $11.15 in cash, without interest.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including without limitation (i) the required approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company s stockholders, (ii) the expiration or early termination of the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the Merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1974, as amended, and the receipt of regulatory clearance under certain foreign antitrust laws, (iii) the absence of any law or order that is in effect and restrains, enjoins or otherwise prohibits the Merger, (iv) the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties and compliance by the parties with their respective obligations under the Merger Agreement (subject to customary materiality qualifiers), (v) the conclusion of any review by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States, (vi) the absence of certain pending proceedings by a governmental authority with respect to the Merger; and (vii) the absence of any change, event or occurrence that has had or would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company.

Avago intends to fund the transaction with $1 billion of cash from the combined balance sheet and fully-committed financing from the following sources: a (i) $4.6 billion term loan from a group of banks; and (ii) $1 billion investment from Silver Lake Partners IV, L.P., which is expected to be in the form of a seven year 2% convertible note with a conversion price of $48.04 per share or preferred stock with equivalent economic terms.

The Company has made customary representations and warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement. Among other things, the Company may not solicit or initiate discussions (and has agreed to cease any existing discussions) with third parties regarding other proposals to acquire the Company and has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to respond to such proposals. In addition, until the termination of the Merger Agreement or the effective time of the Merger, the Company has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice and has agreed to certain other negative covenants.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the Company and Parent. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the Company will be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $200 million. The Merger Agreement also provides that Parent will be required to pay the Company a reverse termination fee of $400 million under certain circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement. In addition to the foregoing termination rights, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not consummated before September 23, 2014.

The representations, warranties and covenants of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement have been made solely for the benefit of Avago, Parent and Merger Sub. In addition, such representations, warranties and covenants (i) have been made only for purposes of the Merger Agreement; (ii) have been qualified by matters specifically disclosed in any reports filed by the Company with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) prior to the date of the Merger Agreement and confidential disclosures made to Avago, Parent and Merger Sub in connection with the Merger Agreement negotiations; (iii) are subject to materiality qualifications contained in the Merger Agreement that may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors; (iv) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement; and (v) have been included in the Merger Agreement for the purpose of allocating risk between the contracting parties rather than establishing matters as fact. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company or its business. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding the Company that is or will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other documents that the Company files or has filed with the SEC.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, which is incorporated herein by reference.
