Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On February 3, 2014, Columbia Banking System, Inc. (Columbia or the Company) announced the appointment of Hadley Robbins, age 57, as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Columbia State Bank, effective March 1, 2014.

Mr. Robbins joined Columbia in April 2013 following the acquisition of West Coast Bancorp, when he assumed the role of Senior Vice President, Oregon and Southwest Washington Group Manager. Prior to joining Columbia, Mr. Robbins served as Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer for West Coast Bank since 2007. He has over 25 years of diverse banking experience including holding executive positions with Wells Fargo Bank, Pacific Northwest Bank, Bank of the Northwest and First Interstate Bank.

Columbia State Bank has entered into a Change in Control Agreement with Mr. Robbins, which becomes effective when he assumes his new position. The agreement has a term of five years and supersedes all prior agreements except for certain provisions of his Employment Agreement, dated April 1, 2013, relating to a retention bonus and the vesting of equity benefits.

The Change in Control Agreement provides that if Mr. Robbins employment is terminated without cause or if he resigns for good reason within a year following a change in control (as each term is defined in the agreement) or sixty days prior to the public announcement of such change, he will receive a severance benefit equal to two times his then-current annual base salary, vesting of all stock options and lapse of all restrictions on restricted stock awards. The agreement also addresses reimbursement of a relocation allowance, payment of an annual bonus for 2013 and payment under a West Coast Bancorp Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan. In the event of any severance benefit paid under the Change in Control Agreement, Mr. Robbins agrees not to compete with the Bank or the Company for a period of two years.

A copy of the Change in Control Agreement will be filed as an Exhibit to the 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K.
