PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended February 28, 2014 (the Form 10-K) of American Greetings Corporation (the Company) cannot be filed by the prescribed date because the Company requires additional time to finalize its financial reporting surrounding the accounting for income taxes to be included in the annual financial statements to be presented in the Form 10-K.

The principal factors contributing to the delay were as follows:

the significant complexity created as a result of the Company s recently completed going private transaction; and insufficient tax resources to properly execute the Company s review procedures required to maintain effective controls and ensure complete and accurate tax accounting, which was caused by recent staff turnovers, including during the year-end closing cycle.

Until the Company finalizes its accounting for income taxes, the Company will be unable to file the Form 10-K. The delay could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company currently anticipates that it will be able to finalize financial reporting surrounding the accounting for income tax in time for the Company to file the Form 10-K within the 15-day extension provided by Rule 12b-25. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to file the Form 10-K within such 15-day period.

In addition, the Company expects to report in the Form 10-K a material weakness in its internal control over financial reporting in connection with accounting for income tax. The Company is determining the steps necessary to remediate the material weakness.
