Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As reported in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by RTI International Metals, Inc. (NYSE: RTI) (the Company or RTI) on June 25, 2014 (the Initial 8-K), the Company announced that, effective July 1, 2014, Michael G. McAuley would assume the title of Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company. At the time of filing of the Initial 8-K, the Company noted that it expected to enter into an employment agreement with Mr. McAuley that was substantively identical to the letter agreements previously entered into between the Company and its other executive officers. Item 5.02 of the Initial 8-K is hereby amended to add the information provided below regarding the terms of Mr. McAuley's letter agreement and related documents.

(e) On July 1, 2014, the Company entered into a letter agreement setting forth the initial terms of Mr. McAuley's employment (the Employment Agreement). The Employment Agreement has an initial term of two (2) years and thereafter will be extended automatically for one (1) additional year unless written notice is timely given. Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. McAuley's initial base salary will be $375,000 per year, which may be increased from time to time in the Company's sole discretion, and he will be eligible for annual bonuses and participation in the Company's stock incentive plan. Mr. McAuley will participate in all other elements of the Company's executive compensation and benefit programs as described in the Company's 2014 proxy statement.

The Company may terminate Mr. McAuley's employment for any reason, including for cause, by providing written notice. In the event of termination for cause or voluntary termination by Mr. McAuley, the right to receive compensation under the Employment Agreement will terminate and no further compensation will be paid, other than accrued and unpaid base salary. In the event of termination without cause, Mr. McAuley is entitled to the benefits under the Company's Non-Change in Control Severance Policy, on the same terms as described in the Company's 2014 proxy statement.

Under the Employment Agreement, the Company has the right to terminate Mr. McAuley's employment for cause in the event of (i) any material breach of the Employment Agreement; (ii) gross misconduct; (iii) gross neglect of duties with the Company or insubordination; (iv) commission, indictment, conviction, guilty plea, or plea of nolo contendere to a crime that constitutes a felony, or a misdemeanor that substantially impairs the performance of duties, act of moral turpitude, or intentional or willful securities law violation, including Sarbanes-Oxley law violations; (v) an act of theft or dishonesty injurious to the Company; or (vi) violation of any Company policy.

As with the Company's other executive officers, Mr. McAuley will be subject to the Company's Executive Non-Change in Control Severance Policy and its Executive Change in Control Severance Policy, on the same terms as described in the Company's 2014 proxy statement, except that he is not entitled to receive payment of certain gross-up payments under the Executive Change in Control Severance Policy for any excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Mr. McAuley will be subject to noncompetition and nonsolicitation restrictions for eighteen (18) months following the period of his employment; however, such restrictions will not apply if Mr. McAuley's employment is terminated following a Change in Control of the Company (as defined in the Company's Executive Change in Control Severance Policy).

The foregoing does not constitute a complete summary of the terms of the Employment Agreement, and reference is made to the complete text of the Employment Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated by reference herein. Mr. McAuley also became a party to the Indemnification Agreement in place between the Company and its directors and certain executive officers, which provides enhanced indemnification protection as it relates to his position with the Company.
