Performance Update Delivering Strong Long-Term Performance 2015 was a challenging year in the energy infrastructure business, and stocks dropped sharply across the sector as a result of weakness in oil & gas markets. Although Sempra's one-year TSR lagged the market, our long-term TSR, EPS and dividend growth demonstrate superior performance compared to our peers. In February 2016, the board approved an additional 8% increase in the annual dividend to $3.02 per share. We continued to execute on our strategic goals, including the on-track development of our three-train Cameron Liquefied Natural Gas export project. Since our CEO took over on June 27, 2011, shareholders have experienced a doubling of the stock price, in addition to a strong and growing dividend. Positioned for Future Growth Our five-year capital plan includes investments in utility operations and projects in the U.S. and Latin America that are expected to provide the strong returns needed to achieve our strategy. 1-, 3-, 5-, and 10-year comparisons are as of December 31, 2015. Adjusted Earnings Per Share Growth Rates based on Adjusted Earnings Per Share are non-GAAP financial measures. On a GAAP basis, our one-year (2014-2015) Earnings Per Share Growth Rate was 16% and our three-year (2012-2015) and five year (2010-2015) CAGRs were 16% and 13%, respectively. Further, 86% of Sempra Energy’s S&P 500 Utilities Index peers have a payout of at least 25% of target at threshold; 55% have a payout of 50% of target at threshold. Includes stock options. Strong Compensation Governance Practices What we do: Incorporate shareholder feedback in our compensation program design Multiple performance measures in LTIP and STIP LTIP includes “double trigger” equity vesting Clawback policy in place Stock ownership requirements in place (6x base pay for CEO, 5x retainer for Directors)¹ Employ independent advisors to conduct risk assessment of compensation programs What we don’t do: No excise tax gross-ups for NEOs No NEO employment contracts No stock-option repricing or recycling of shares for exercising of options or SARs No hedging or pledging of shares No guaranteed bonuses or uncapped incentives Strong compensation governance and pay-for-performance alignment have led to our executive compensation program receiving an average of 94% support from investors over the past 3 years In response to shareholder feedback, in 2015 we added the requirement that executives retain a number of shares equal to at least 50% of net after-tax shares acquired through equity compensation awards until targets are achieved.
