PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed in filings by Key Energy Services, Inc. (the Company or Key ) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ), on October 24, 2016, the Company and certain of its domestic subsidiaries (collectively, and together with the Company, the Debtors ) filed voluntary petitions (the Bankruptcy Petitions ) for reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the Bankruptcy Code ) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the Bankruptcy Court ).

Also, as previously disclosed with the SEC, on October 18, 2016, the Company closed the sale of its Mexican businesses and related assets (collectively, the Divested Businesses ). The Company is still evaluating the impacts of the filing of the Bankruptcy Petitions and the sale of the Divested Businesses on the Company's financial statements and its disclosures, and these events have the potential to impact the presentation of information and disclosures in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2016 (the Form 10-Q ). As a result, the Company is unable to file the Form 10-Q by the prescribed due date. The Company expects that it will file the Form 10-Q on or before the fifth calendar day following its prescribed due date, although there can be no assurance in this regard.

The Company expects to report revenues and net loss of approximately $102.4 million and $130.9 million, respectively, for the three months ended September 30, 2016, as compared to revenues and net loss of approximately $176.9 million and $640.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2015. The Company's revenues declined in the current period relative to the prior year period due to lower spending by its customers and lower prices for its services as a result of lower oil prices and reduced demand. The Company's net loss declined in the current period relative to the prior year period due primarily to the fact that the Company recorded significant impairments in the 2015 third quarter.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made. See disclosure under Part III above.

Cautionary Note to Investors Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 filing contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Statements that are not historical in nature or that relate to future events and conditions are, or may be deemed to be, forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on Key's current expectations, estimates and projections and its management's beliefs and assumptions concerning future events and financial trends affecting Key's financial condition and results of operations. In some cases, you can identify these statements by terminology such as may, will, should, predicts, expects, believes, anticipates, projects, continue or the negative of such terms and other comparable terminology. These statements are only predictions and are subject to substantial risks and uncertainties and are not guarantees of performance. Future actions, events and conditions and future results of operations may differ materially from those expressed in these statements. In evaluating those statements, you should carefully consider the risk factors set forth in Key's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2015 and Exhibit 99.4 to Key's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 25, 2016. Key undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this Form 12b-25 except as required by law. All of Key's written and oral forward-looking statements are expressly qualified by these cautionary statements and any other cautionary statements that may accompany such forward-looking statements.
