Item 8.01 Other Events.

On February 14, 2018, Neurocrine Biosciences, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (the FDA) has provided guidance on the regulatory path forward to support the New Drug Application (NDA) for opicapone, an investigational drug for Parkinson's disease, after receiving meeting minutes from the January 2018 meeting with the FDA. The FDA has not requested that the Company conduct an additional Phase III study for opicapone prior to the NDA filing. As a result, the Company will proceed with plans to file the NDA for opicapone during the first half of 2019.

In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information in this Item 8.01 and Exhibit 99.1 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise subject to the liability of that section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), or the Exchange Act, except as expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Special Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act and Section 21E of the Exchange Act. These statements relate to future events and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the Company's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performances or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terms such as may, will, should, could, would, expects, plans, anticipates, believes, estimates, projects, predicts, expressions intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements reflect the Company's current views with respect to future events and are based on assumptions and subject to risks and uncertainties. Given these uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Also, these forward-looking statements represent the Company's estimates and assumptions only as of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K.
