NOVO NORDISK'S DIVESTMENT OF ITS OWNERSHIP OF DAKO'S BUSINESS ACTIVITIES HAS NOW BEEN COMPLETED

As communicated in Stock Exchange Announcement no 6 on 28 February 2007, the Board of Directors of Dako A/S decided to divest its only subsidiary Dako Denmark A/S to the private equity fund EQT V. Dako Denmark A/S was the sole owner of the global business activities for the Dako Group, one of the world's leading companies within cancer diagnostics. As previously communicated, Novo Nordisk owns 27% of Dako A/S.

The sales agreement was subject to a number of conditions. All conditions have now been fulfilled including the approval of the transaction by the relevant competition authorities and thus the divestment was completed today.

As a consequence of this transaction, and as previously communicated, Novo Nordisk expects to record a tax-exempt income of around DKK 1.5 billion in relation to Dako's sale of Dako Denmark A/S, of which around DKK 1.4 billion is now expected to be recorded in the second quarter of 2007. The remaining around DKK 100 million is subject to the outcome of certain warranty obligations and is expected to be recorded in the first half of 2008. The income from the transaction will be recorded under 'Share of profit in associated companies' in the 'net financials' part of the income statement.

Novo Nordisk is a healthcare company and a world leader in diabetes care. The company has the broadest diabetes product portfolio in the industry, including the most advanced products within the area of insulin delivery systems. In addition, Novo Nordisk has a leading position within areas such as haemostasis management, growth hormone therapy and hormone replacement therapy. Novo Nordisk manufactures and markets pharmaceutical products and services that make a significant difference to patients, the medical profession and society. With headquarters in Denmark, Novo Nordisk employs more than 23,600 employees in 79 countries, and markets its products in 179 countries. Novo Nordisk's B shares are listed on the stock exchanges in Copenhagen and London. Its ADRs are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol 'NVO'.
