FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS / SAFE HARBOR

This presentation contains forward-looking statements that are intended to be covered by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are not statements of historical fact, and can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as “believe,” “expect,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “project,” “plan,” “seek,” “target,” “intend” or “anticipate” or the negative thereof or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements include discussions of strategy, financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions, statements regarding plans, objectives, expectations or consequences of various transactions, and statements about the future performance, operations, products and services of 1st Constitution Bancorp and our subsidiaries. These forward-looking statements are subject to various assumptions, risks, uncertainties and other factors . These risks are detailed in documents filed by 1st Constitution Bancorp with the Securities and Exchange Commission including 1st Constitution Bancorp's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2012 and June 30, 2012 and the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 and other required filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Because of these uncertainties, risks and the possibility of changes in these assumptions, actual results could differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these statements. 1st Constitution Bancorp assumes no duty or obligation to update any forward-looking statements made in this presentation.

This presentation is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell securities.
