On February 21, 2019, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of 1st Constitution Bancorp (the “Company”), approved and adopted an amendment (the “Amendment”) to Article II, Section 2 of the By-laws of the Company (the “By-laws”). Prior to the Amendment, Article II, Section 2 of the By-laws provided in its entirety:

“SECTION 2. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. The entire board shall consist of that number of directors, not less than one nor more than twenty-five, as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board. Directors shall be at least twenty-one years of age and need not be United States citizens or residents of New Jersey or shareholder of the Corporation. No person shall be eligible for election or reelection as a director after he had attained the age of seventy five (75) years.”

The Amendment removes the last sentence of Article II, Section 2 of the By-laws.

The foregoing description of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full-text of the Amendment, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with the Amendment and upon recommendation by the Nominating and Governance Committee, the Board also approved and adopted amendments to the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines (the “Guidelines”). Among other changes, the Guidelines were amended to provide for a director retirement policy, which provides that no person shall be eligible for election or re-election as a director after such person attains the age of seventy-five (75) years, except that the Board may waive this policy with respect to any such person upon the approval of a majority of the directors then in office.

The foregoing summary of the amendments to the Guidelines is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full-text of the Guidelines, which are available on the Company’s website at www.1stconstitution.com under “Investor Relations – Governance Documents”.
