ITEM 5: OTHER EVENTS

Scarab Systems, Inc. (the "Company") is undertaking a private placement of 1,200,000 common shares at $0.10 per share for gross proceeds of $120,000. These shares are being offered to investors who are not U.S. persons pursuant to an exemption from registration under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), pursuant to Regulation S promulgated thereunder.

All proceeds from the anticipated private placement will be used for working capital and general corporate purposes. In addition, a related party promissory note along with accrued interest totaling $51,000 was converted into 510,000 common shares with an effective exercise price of $0.10 per share.

The shares of common stock to be issued in connection with the debt conversion and proposed financing will not be registered under the Act, and may not be offered or sold in the United States unless such securities are registered under the Securities Act or offered in compliance with an applicable exemption from such registration requirements.

Forward Looking Statements: This Form 8-K contains "forward-looking statements", as that term is defined in Section 27A of the United States Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the Company's actual results, performance or achievements, to differ materially from the anticipated results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results include, among other things, the closing of the private placement financing on the terms described above or at all and the risks and uncertainties described in the Company's Form 10-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on August 1, 2003. The Company disclaims any intention or obligation
