Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 16, 2006, Michael R. Haverty, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Kansas City Southern ("KCS"), entered into a 10b5-1 plan, including a prepaid variable forward transaction, for 350,000 shares of KCS Common Stock, representing approximately 13% of the number of shares of such stock beneficially owned by him, including shares he would own upon exercise of exercisable options owned by him. The transaction involves essentially a tax deferred forward sale of the stock with the retention by Mr. Haverty of a portion of the future appreciation if the price of KCS Common Stock increases prior to the transaction maturity date in December, 2009.

Mr. Haverty stated that he wanted to monetize a portion of his investment in KCS for diversification and to meet certain obligations, but chose to utilize a prepaid variable forward transaction because of his continued confidence in the future of KCS.

The transaction is being handled by UBS Securities, LLC and a Form 144 has been filed with the SEC and the NYSE in compliance with Rule 144.
