Item 8.01 Other Events.

Jones Soda Co. ("Jones Soda") today announced that shareholder litigation involving Jones Soda and Peter van Stolk, its former Chief Executive Officer, former Chairman of the Board, and former director, has been dismissed.

On June 22, 2009, the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington issued an order denying plaintiffs' motion for leave to amend a consolidated securities class action complaint brought against Jones Soda and Mr. van Stolk, dismissing the case with prejudice, and directing the court clerk to enter judgment in favor of defendants.

The consolidated action, In re Jones Soda Company Securities Litigation, Case No. 07-cv-1366-RSL, was purportedly commenced on behalf of all individuals who purchased Jones Soda common stock from January 10, 2007 to May 1, 2008, and generally alleged violations of federal securities laws based on, among other things, false and misleading statements and omissions about agreements with retailers, allocation of resources, and business prospects. Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint on July 7, 2008. After hearing oral argument on February 3, 2009, the Court issued an order granting the motion to dismiss in its entirety on February 9, 2009. Plaintiffs filed a motion for leave to file an amended complaint on March 25, 2009, and defendants opposed the motion on April 17, 2009. On June 22, 2009, the Court issued an order denying plaintiffs' motion for leave to amend, dismissing the case with prejudice, and directing the court clerk to enter judgment in favor of defendants. Plaintiffs may appeal the ruling within thirty days.

Shareholder derivative actions based on the same basic allegations of fact as in the federal securities class action and filed in both the Superior Court for King County, Washington (In re Jones Soda Co. Derivative Litigation, Lead Case No. 07-2-31254-4 SEA) and in the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington (Sexton v. van Stolk, et al., Case No. 07-1782RSL), remain pending.
