Siemens AG announced today that it has been notified of an unsolicited mini-tender offer made by TRC Capital Corporation, a private Canadian company, to purchase an aggregate of up to 1,000,000 American Depositary Shares (ADS) (approximately 0.1% of the outstanding ordinary shares) of Siemens AG at a price of US$122.00 per ADS. Siemens AG is not in any way associated with TRC or with the mini-tender offer or the related offer materials. We express no opinion and remain neutral with respect to this mini-tender offer. We urge shareholders to consult their financial advisors, obtain current market quotes for their securities, make informed investment decisions and exercise caution in connection with this unsolicited offer. Since mini-tender offers do not provide the same disclosure and procedural protection of larger, more traditional tender offers, we encourage shareholders to review the advisory statement of the Securities and Exchange Commission (<http://sec.gov/investor/pubs/miniend.htm>) and the Information Memo Number 01-27 issued by the New York Stock Exchange on Sept. 28, 2001, regarding the dissemination of mini-tender offer materials, which can be found under the Market Professional Information Memos tab on the NYSE's website at www.nyse.com.

Siemens AG (Berlin and Munich) is a global powerhouse in electronics and electrical engineering, operating in the industry, energy and healthcare sectors. The company has around 400,000 employees (in continuing operations) working to develop and manufacture products, design and install complex systems and projects, and tailor a wide range of solutions for individual requirements. For over 160 years, Siemens has stood for technical achievements, innovation, quality, reliability and internationality. In fiscal 2007, Siemens had revenue of 72.4 billion and income from continuing operations of 3.9 billion (IFRS).
