Item 5.02: Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On August 10, 2016, the Board of Directors of United Insurance Holdings Corp. (the Company) appointed Mr. Scott St. John to serve as its Chief Claims Officer beginning on August 22, 2016. Mr. St. John will be responsible for directing and leading all aspects of the Company's claims operations.

On August 10, 2016, the Company and Mr. St. John entered into an employment agreement (the St. John Employment Agreement) which will be effective on August 22, 2016. The St. John Employment Agreement provides that the Company will employ Mr. St. John on an at-will basis, for a term that begins on the effective date and continues until the first (1st) anniversary of the effective date. The St. John Employment Agreement will automatically renew for additional one-year terms unless either party provides 30 days' written notice of such party's intent to terminate Mr. St. John's employment, or unless the Company terminates Mr. St. John's employment for "cause" as such term is defined in the St. John Employment Agreement. Pursuant to the St. John Employment Agreement, Mr. St. John will receive an annual base salary of $250,000. In addition, the St. John Employment Agreement provides that Mr. St. John (1) is eligible to receive annual cash bonuses at the discretion of the Board of Directors of the Company, based on achievement of performance goals to be established by the Company's executive management team and the Board, and (2) is eligible to participate in other benefits generally available to senior executives of the Company, including equity compensation plans. The St. John Employment Agreement also provides that the Company shall negotiate and enter into a restricted stock agreement with Mr. St. John no later than 90 days following the effective date of the St. John Employment Agreement. After 90 days following the effective date of the St. John Agreement, Mr. St. John will be issued 1,500 shares of restricted stock which shall vest on the first anniversary of the effective date of the restricted stock agreement.

The St. John Employment Agreement provides that upon the termination of Mr. St. John's employment, he will refrain from soliciting any employee and certain former employees of the Company for two years following the termination of Mr. St. John's employment, unless such employee has not been employed by the Company for more than one year.

The foregoing description does not purport to be a complete description of the St. John Employment Agreement is qualified by reference to the full text of such document, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Mr. St. John, age 48, has over 25 years of industry-related experience. Since 2008, served as the Eastern Property Field Zone Leader for Farmer Insurance Group (Farmers) a diversified U.S. based property and casualty insurance group with 2015 direct written premiums of over $19 billion. While with Farmers, Mr. St. John was responsible for managing all personal lines property claims in a 27 state region. From 2006 through 2008, Mr. St. John was a Lead Manager for Farmers' national catastrophe operations and served as Branch Claims Office Manager for Farmers from 2002 until 2006.

Mr. St. Johns holds a B.S. in Business Administration from The Ohio State University, as well as Chartered Property & Casualty Underwriter (CPCU) and Associate in Claims (AIC) designations.

We have attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 a copy of our press release announcing Mr. St. John's appointment as Chief Claims Officer.
