On October 15, 2010, the board of directors (the “Board”) of Cardtronics, Inc. (the “Company”) designated E. Brad Conrad as the Company’s new principal accounting officer. Mr. Conrad will replace the Company’s previous principal accounting officer, Mr. Tres Thompson, who was promoted on October 15, 2010 to Executive Vice President and Division Executive for the Company’s U.S. ATM Services business unit. Mr. Conrad, 38, has served as Cardtronics’ Senior Vice President and Corporate Controller since joining the Company in April 2008. From October 2002 until April 2008, Mr. Conrad served in various roles at Consolidated Graphics, Inc., an international commercial printing company, including Vice President and Controller from December 2006 to April 2008 and the Manager/Director of Business Compliance from October 2002 to December 2006. From September 1997 to October 2002, Mr. Conrad served in several accounting roles at Peregrine Systems, Inc., an enterprise software company acquired by Hewlett Packard in 2005. Mr. Conrad began his career in July 1995 with KPMG LLP where he worked in the firm’s audit practice providing accounting and auditing services to a wide range of clients. Mr. Conrad received a Masters in Professional Accounting degree and a Bachelors of Business Administration degree from the University of Texas at Austin and is a licensed certified public accountant in the state of Texas.

There are no material relationships or transactions between Mr. Conrad and the Company or any of the Company’s directors, executive officers, or major security holders, or the immediate family members of any such person. In addition, there are no family relationships between Mr. Conrad and any director or executive officer of the Company. Finally, there is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Conrad and any other persons or entities pursuant to which Mr. Conrad was selected as principal accounting officer.

Employment Agreement with E. Brad Conrad

In connection with his appointment as principal accounting officer, Mr. Conrad entered into an employment agreement with the Company (the “Employment Agreement”), effective October 15, 2010. The Employment Agreement provides for an initial term of three years, subject to automatic one-year renewals thereafter unless the agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms. Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Conrad is entitled to receive an annual base salary of $200,000 and is eligible for an annual bonus award based on achievement of certain performance objectives established by the Board. The target amount of the annual award is 40% of Mr. Conrad’s base salary, though the ultimate payout is subject to the sole discretion of the Board (or a committee thereof). Mr. Conrad is also entitled to receive perquisite benefits made available to other senior officers, sick leave, and four weeks paid vacation time each year.

In addition to the terms summarized above, the Employment Agreement provides for severance compensation upon termination of employment. Specifically, if Mr. Conrad’s employment terminates due to (1) medical or mental disability, (2) death, (3) “Cause” (as the term is defined in the Employment Agreement), or (4) if Mr. Conrad resigns, Mr. Conrad is entitled to receive payment for all accrued but unpaid base salary and reimbursement of all accrued but unreimbursed expenses and benefits to which he is entitled. If his employment terminates due to reasons other than those set forth above, Mr. Conrad is entitled to severance that includes (1) any unpaid annual bonus for the calendar year preceding his termination; (2) 12 months of his base salary, payable in 24 equal consecutive bi-weekly installments in accordance with the Company’s standard payroll practices; and (3) if he elects to continue coverage for himself and his dependents under the Company’s group health plans under COBRA or ERISA, reimbursement on a monthly basis equal to the amount he must pay to obtain the coverage. Additionally, Mr. Conrad will be subject to certain non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions for a period of one year following the termination of his employment.

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreements, Mr. Conrad was granted 25,000 shares of restricted stock and 25,000 stock options. The forfeiture restrictions on the restricted shares lapse and the stock options vest in four equal installments on each of the first four anniversaries of Mr. Conrad’s date of hire, April 14, 2008.
