Item 8.01 – Other Events.

On May 29, 2012, our subsidiary Hecla MC Subsidiary, LLC (“Hecla MC”) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement with Crown Gold Corporation and one of its subsidiaries, pursuant to which Hecla MC will purchase certain unpatented mining claims and mining leases and other assets comprising Seller’s Monte Cristo property in Esmeralda County, Nevada, for $4,500,000 in cash, plus a potential additional purchase price payment of $1,000,000 if certain conditions are met. The purchase of the assets is subject to a number of conditions, including Crown Gold obtaining shareholder and regulatory approvals, and satisfactory completion of Hecla MC’s due diligence, and is expected to close in the third quarter of 2012.

Dr. Anthony P. Taylor, a director of Hecla, is the Executive Chairman of Crown Gold. As a result, Hecla’s board of directors carefully considered this transaction before concluding that it represented a good opportunity to acquire a precious metals exploration project in Nevada. In addition, in order to fully ensure the independence of Hecla’s board, Dr. Taylor recused himself from all Hecla board meetings at which this transaction was discussed, and did not vote on the acquisition of the project by Hecla.
