FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain matters the Company discusses in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and in other public statements may constitute forward-looking statements. You can identify forward-looking statements because they contain words such as “believes,” “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “seeks,” “intends,” “plans,” “estimates,” or “anticipates” or similar expressions that concern our strategy, plans, projections or intentions. Examples of forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, all statements we make relating to revenue, EBITDA, earnings, margins, growth rates and other financial results for future periods. Forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations and assumptions regarding our business, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Our actual results may differ materially from those contemplated by the forward-looking statements, which are neither statements of historical fact nor guarantees or assurances of future performance. While there is no assurance that any list of risks and uncertainties or risk factors is complete, important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include: (a) our high degree of leverage; (b) our ability to implement and improve processing systems to provide new products, improve functionality and increase efficiencies, including our merchant suite, Clover, Perka and Gyft solutions; (c) our ability to anticipate and respond to technological changes, particularly with respect to e-commerce and mobile commerce, (d) our merchant alliance program which involves several alliances not under our sole control and each of which acts independently of the others; (e) our ability to prevent a material breach of security of any of our systems; (f) catastrophic events that impact our or our major customers’ operating facilities, communication systems and technology; (g) adverse impacts from currency exchange rates or currency controls imposed by any government or otherwise; (h) the impact of new laws, regulations, credit card association rules or other industry standards, including new U.S. financial regulatory reform legislation and regulations; (i) our ability to successfully convert accounts under service contracts with major clients; (j) consolidation among client financial institutions or other client groups that impacts our client relationships; (k) credit and fraud risks in our business units and the merchant alliances, particularly in the context of e-commerce markets; (l) changes in the interest rate environment that increases interest on our borrowings; (m) new lawsuits, investigations or proceedings, or changes to our potential exposure in connection with pending lawsuits, investigations or proceedings, and other risks that are set forth in Part II, “Item 1A. Risk Factors” of this Form 10-Q and those that are set forth in the “Risk Factors” and “Management Discussion and Analysis of Results of Operations and Financial Condition” sections of the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2013. We do not intend to revise or update any forward-looking statement because of new information or future developments that may arise.

FIRST DATA CORPORATION
 NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

Note 1: Basis of Presentation and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Business Description

First Data Corporation (“FDC” or “the Company”) operates electronic commerce businesses providing services that include merchant transaction processing and acquiring services; credit, retail and debit card issuing and processing services; prepaid card services; and check verification, settlement and guarantee services.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements of FDC should be read in conjunction with the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013. Significant accounting policies disclosed therein have not changed.

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements are unaudited; however, in the opinion of management, they include all normal recurring adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the consolidated financial position of the Company as of September 30, 2014 and the consolidated results of its operations and comprehensive income (loss) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 and the consolidated cash flows and changes in equity for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013. Results of operations reported for interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for the entire year due in part to the seasonality of certain business units.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the Consolidated Financial Statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Presentation

Depreciation and amortization presented as a separate line item on the Company’s Consolidated Statements of Operations does not include amortization of initial payments for new contracts which is recorded as a contra-revenue within “Transaction and processing service fees.” Also not included is amortization related to equity method investments which is netted within the “Equity earnings in affiliates” line. The following table presents the amounts associated with such amortization for the periods presented:

(in millions)	Three months ended		Nine months ended
	September 30,		September 30,
	2014	2013	2014	2013
Amortization of initial payments for new contracts	$12.0	$10.4	$34.4	$30.7
Amortization related to equity method investments	$15.5	$19.7	$47.2	$59.2

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues from its processing services as such services are performed. Revenue is recorded net of certain costs such as credit and offline debit interchange fees and assessments charged by credit card associations. Debit network fees related to acquired personal identification number based debit (“PIN-debit”) transactions are recognized in the “Reimbursable debit network fees, postage and other” revenue and expense lines of the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The following table presents the amounts associated with processing services revenue for the periods presented:

(in millions)	Three months ended September 30,		Nine months ended September 30,
	2014	2013	2014	2013
Interchange fees and assessments	$5,217.7	$4,925.0	$15,091.1	$14,319.7
Debit network fees	$729.1	$727.9	$2,221.5	$2,157.0

New Accounting Guidance

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued guidance that requires companies to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of goods or services to customers in amounts that reflect the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled to in an exchange for those goods or services. It also requires enhanced disclosures about revenue, provides guidance for transactions that were not previously addressed comprehensively, and improves guidance for multiple-element arrangements. The guidance applies to any entity that either enters into contracts with customers to transfer goods or services or enters into contracts for the transfer of nonfinancial assets unless those contracts are within the scope of other standards. The guidance is effective for public companies for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016 as well as interim periods within those annual periods using either the full retrospective approach or modified retrospective approach. Early adoption is not permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impacts of the new guidance on its consolidated financial statements.

Note 2: Supplemental Financial Information

Supplemental Statement of Operations Information

The following table details the components of “Other income (expense)” on the Consolidated Statements of Operations for the periods presented:

Other income (expense)	$56.4	$(36.2)) $139.8	$(20.9)

Supplemental Cash Flow Information

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, the Company refinanced and repriced a number of debt agreements as well as completed an offer to exchange several of its senior notes for publicly traded notes having substantially identical terms and guarantees, except that the exchange notes are freely tradable. See Note 5 "Borrowings" for more information.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, the Company entered into capital leases, net of trade-ins, totaling approximately $101 million and $109 million, respectively.

Note 3: Acquisitions and Dispositions

Acquisition

In August 2014, the Company acquired Gyft, Inc. (“Gyft”), a leading digital platform that enables consumers to buy, send, manage and redeem gift cards using mobile devices. The final purchase consideration will vary based on contingent consideration which will be determined based on sales for the next three years. The acquisition will be reported as part of the Merchant Solutions segment. Refer to Note 13 "Fair Value Measurement" for additional information regarding the liability for contingent consideration.

Disposition

On May 29, 2014, the Company completed the sale of its 30% minority interest in a transportation payments business, Electronic Funds Source LLC (“EFS”), which was reported as part of the Merchant Solutions segment. During the second quarter of 2014, the Company recognized a gain on sale of $88.9 million recorded in “Other income (expense)” in the Consolidated Statements of Operations, comprised of $255.1 million in cash reduced by its investment and associated deal costs of $166.2 million, and recorded an income tax provision of $8.8 million. During the third quarter of 2014, the Company received $9.3 million in additional proceeds and recorded an incremental gain in "Other income (expense)" in the Consolidated Statements of Operations as a result of the final settlement of the sale. The Company also recorded an additional tax provision of $0.6 million related to the sale.

Note 4: Restructuring

Restructuring Charges and Reversal of Restructuring Accruals

The Company recorded restructuring charges during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, in connection with management’s alignment of the business with strategic objectives and cost savings initiatives as well as refinements of estimates. During the nine months ended September 30, 2013, the Company also recorded restructuring charges in connection with the departure of executive officers.

A summary of net pretax benefits (charges), incurred by segment, was as follows for the periods presented:

Short-Term Borrowings

As of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, FDC had approximately $175 million and $265 million available, respectively, under short-term lines of credit and other arrangements with foreign banks and alliance partners primarily to fund settlement activity. These arrangements are primarily associated with international operations and are in various functional currencies, the most significant of which are the Australian dollar, the Polish zloty and the euro. Certain of these arrangements are uncommitted, but FDC had $31.3 million and $68.6 million of borrowings outstanding against them as of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively.

Senior Secured Credit Facilities

Senior Secured Revolving Credit Facility As of September 30, 2014, FDC's senior secured revolving credit facility had commitments from financial institutions to provide approximately $1.0 billion of credit. Up to $500 million of the senior secured revolving credit facility is available for letters of credit, of which $43.4 million and $46.3 million were issued and outstanding as of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. FDC had no borrowings outstanding against this facility as of September 30, 2014 or December 31, 2013, other than the letters of credit discussed above. As of September 30, 2014, $973 million remained available under this facility after considering the outstanding letters of credit.

2014 Modifications and Amendments to the Senior Secured Term Loan Facility On January 30, 2014, FDC amended its senior secured term loan facility. Under the amendment, FDC extended the maturity of approximately $941 million of its existing U.S. dollar denominated term loans and approximately €154 million of its existing euro denominated term loans, in each case, from March 24, 2017 to March 24, 2021 (the "2021 Extended Term Loans"). The interest rate applicable to the 2021 Extended Term Loans is a rate equal to, at the Company's option, either (a) LIBOR for deposits in the applicable currency plus 400 basis points or (b) solely with respect to term loans denominated in U.S. dollars, a base rate plus 300 basis points.

The Company also incurred an aggregate principal amount of approximately $1.4 billion in new U.S. dollar denominated term loans and approximately €25 million in new euro denominated term loans maturing on March 24, 2017 (the "2017 Second New Term Loans"). The interest rate applicable to the 2017 Second New Term Loans is a rate equal to, at the Company's option, either (a) LIBOR for deposits in the applicable currency plus 350 basis points or (b) solely with respect to term loans denominated in U.S. dollars, a base rate plus 250 basis points. The Company used the proceeds from the incurrence of the 2017 Second New Term Loans to repay an equal amount of its outstanding term loan borrowings maturing on March 24, 2017.

Additionally, the Company incurred an aggregate principal amount of approximately $63 million in new U.S. dollar denominated term loans maturing on March 24, 2021 (the "2021 New Term Loans"). The interest rate applicable to the 2021 New Term Loans is a rate equal to, at the Company's option, either (a) LIBOR for deposits in U.S. dollars plus 400 basis points or (b) solely with respect to term loans denominated in U.S. dollars, a base rate plus 300 basis points. The Company used the proceeds from the incurrence of the 2021 New Term Loans to repay an equal amount of its outstanding U.S. dollar denominated term loan borrowings maturing on March 24, 2017.

On July 18, 2014, the Company incurred an aggregate principal amount of approximately $4.6 billion in new U.S. dollar denominated loans and approximately €311 million in new euro denominated loans maturing on March 24, 2018 (the "2018 New Term Loans"). The interest rate applicable to the 2018 New Term Loans is a rate equal to, at the Company's option, either (a) LIBOR for deposits in the applicable currency plus 350 basis points or (b) solely with respect to term loans denominated in U.S. dollars, a base rate plus 250 basis points. The Company used a portion of the proceeds from the incurrence of the 2018 New Term Loans to repay its outstanding term loans borrowings maturing on March 24, 2018, with approximately $350 million in remaining aggregate principal amount of 2018 New Term Loans to be used for general corporate purposes.

The Company also incurred an aggregate principal amount of approximately $1.0 billion in new U.S. dollar denominated term loans maturing on September 24, 2018 (the “2018B Second New Term Loans”). The interest rate applicable to the 2018B Second New Term Loans is a rate equal to, at the Company’s option, either (a) LIBOR for the deposits in U.S. dollars plus 350 basis points or (b) a base rate plus 250 basis points. The Company used the proceeds from the incurrence of the 2018B Second New Term Loans to repay outstanding U.S. dollar denominated term loan borrowings maturing on September 24, 2018.

The Company also modified certain other provisions of its credit agreement to provide for greater operational flexibility.

FIRST DATA CORPORATION
(Unaudited)

In connection with the modifications and amendments to the senior secured term loan facility discussed above, the Company incurred lender fees and other expenses of approximately $11 million.

11.75% Senior Unsecured Subordinated Notes Due 2021

On January 6, 2014, the Company issued $725 million aggregate principal amount of additional 11.75% senior subordinated notes due August 15, 2021. The notes were issued at 103.5% of par for a premium of $25.4 million. The additional notes were treated as a single series with the existing 11.75% notes and will have the same terms as those of the existing 11.75% notes. The additional notes and the existing 11.75% notes will vote as one class under the indenture. FDC used the proceeds from the issue and sale of the additional notes, together with cash on hand, to redeem all of its outstanding 11.25% senior subordinated notes due 2016 and to pay related fees and expenses.

In connection with the debt offering and debt repurchase discussed above, the Company incurred lender fees and other expenses of approximately $8 million.

Debt Exchange

On March 14, 2014, FDC completed an offer to exchange all of its 10.625% senior unsecured notes due 2021, 11.25% senior unsecured notes due 2021, and 11.75% senior unsecured notes due 2021 for publicly tradable notes having substantially identical terms and guarantees, except that the exchange notes are freely tradable. There was no expenditure or receipt of cash associated with this exchange, other than professional fees incurred in connection with the registration statement itself.

Debt Repurchase

On July 11, 2014, First Data Holdings Inc., the direct parent company of the Company (“Holdings”), completed a $3.5 billion issuance of its common equity in a private placement. $2.5 billion of the net proceeds were contributed to the Company as a capital contribution and the funds were used to repay certain tranches of the Company’s debt.

On July 11, 2014, the Company used proceeds from the private placement to redeem $866 million aggregate principal of its 11.75% senior unsecured subordinated notes due 2021, plus accrued and unpaid interest. In addition, on July 21, 2014, the Company redeemed $753 million aggregate principal of its 6.75% senior secured first lien notes due 2020, $285 million aggregate principal of its 10.625% senior unsecured notes due 2021, and $275 million aggregate principal of its 11.25% senior unsecured notes due 2021, plus accrued and unpaid interest. In connection with these transactions, the Company incurred debt extinguishment costs of $260.1 million.

Note 6: Segment Information

For a detailed discussion of the Company’s principles and detailed discussions regarding its operating segments refer to Note 15 “Segment Information” in the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements in “Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data” and “Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

During the first quarter of 2014, the Company renamed its Retail and Alliance Services segment to Merchant Solutions to better reflect its transformation from a processor to a solutions and technology provider.

On October 1, 2014, the Company announced the expansion of its Management Committee. The Company is evaluating the changes to its reporting that may be made as a result of the expansion, to best assist the chief operating decision maker (the Company's Chief Executive Officer) in monitoring and managing the businesses. Should the reporting change, the Company will retroactively revise its segment disclosures.

Note 8: Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is involved in various legal proceedings. Accruals have been made with respect to these matters, where appropriate, which are reflected in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company may enter into discussions regarding settlement of these matters, and may enter into settlement agreements, if it believes settlement is in the best interest of the Company. The matters discussed below, if decided adversely to or settled by the Company, individually or in the aggregate, may result in liability material to the Company's financial condition and/or results of operations.

Legal

There are asserted claims against the Company where an unfavorable outcome is considered to be reasonably possible. These claims can generally be categorized in the following areas: (1) patent infringement which results from claims that the Company is using technology that has been patented by another party; (2) merchant matters often associated with alleged processing errors, disclosure issues, underwriting issues, or claims relating to federal or state requirements regarding credit reporting or collection in connection with its check verification guarantee, and collection activities; and (3) other matters which may include issues such as employment. The Company's estimates of the possible ranges of losses in excess of any amounts accrued are $0 to $30 million for patent infringement, $0 to $60 million for merchant matters and $0 to $5 million for other matters, resulting in a total estimated range of possible losses of $0 to $95 million for all of the matters described above.

The estimated range of reasonably possible losses is based on currently available information and involves elements of judgment and significant uncertainties. As additional information becomes available and the resolution of the uncertainties becomes more apparent, it is possible that actual losses may exceed even the high end of the estimated range.

Other

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to claims and litigation, including indemnification obligations. Management of the Company believes that such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, liquidity or financial condition.

Note 9: Employee Benefit Plans

The following table provides the components of net periodic benefit expense for the Company's defined benefit pension plans for the periods presented:

The Company estimates pension plan contributions for 2014 to be approximately $15 million. During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, approximately $13 million was contributed to the United Kingdom plan and no contributions were made to the U.S. plan.

Note 10: Stock Compensation Plans

The Company's parent, Holdings, has a stock incentive plan for certain management employees of FDC and its affiliates. Stock compensation expense associated with this plan is recorded by FDC. Stock compensation expense for certain awards is only recognized upon liquidity or an employment termination event which triggers vesting. For the remaining awards that vest based solely on service conditions, expense is recognized over the requisite service period.

Total stock-based compensation expense recognized in the “Selling, general and administrative” line item of the Consolidated Statements of Operations was as follows for the periods presented:

(in millions)	Three months ended		Nine months ended
	September 30,		September 30,
	2014	2013	2014	2013
Total stock-based compensation expense (pretax)	$12.5	$5.5	$46.2	$37.1

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, $35 million of stock-based compensation expense was recognized as a result of the departure of certain executive officers. During the nine months ended September 30, 2013, $20 million of stock-based compensation was recognized as a result of granting an executive officer shares of common stock of Holdings and fully vested restricted stock units.

Stock Options

As of September 30, 2014, there was $149 million of total unrecognized compensation expense related to non-vested stock options. $2 million will be recognized over a period of approximately one year while $147 million will only be recognized upon the occurrence of certain liquidity or employment termination events.

Restricted Stock Awards and Restricted Stock Units

In the first quarter of 2014, Holdings expanded participation in the plan by granting 31 million restricted stock awards to substantially all of the Company’s employees. The restrictions on a majority of these awards will lapse upon the later of three years or following an initial public offering or upon certain employment termination events. For the remainder of these awards, the restrictions will lapse following a lock-up period after an initial public offering or upon certain employment termination events.

As of September 30, 2014, there was $174 million of total unrecognized compensation expense related to restricted stock. $3 million will be recognized over a period of approximately two years while $171 million will only be recognized upon the occurrence of certain liquidity or employment termination events.

For additional information on the Company’s Stock Compensation Plans refer to Note 13 “Stock Compensation Plans” in the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements in “Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data” of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Note 11: Investment Securities

The majority of the Company’s investment securities is a component of settlement assets and represent the investment of funds received by the Company from prior sales of payment instruments (official checks and financial institution money orders) by authorized agents. Realized gains and losses and other-than-temporary impairments (“OTTI”) on investments classified as settlement assets are recorded in the “Product sales and other” line item of the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company carried other investments which are included in the “Other current assets” and “Other long-term assets” line items of the Consolidated Balance Sheets and are discussed further below. Realized gains and losses on these investments are recorded in the “Other income” line item of the Consolidated Statements of Operations described in Note 2 “Supplemental Financial Information” of these Consolidated Financial Statements.

The Company uses specific identification to determine the cost of a security sold and the amount of gains and losses reclassified out of other comprehensive income ("OCI") into the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Unrealized gains and losses on investments carried at fair value are included as a separate component of OCI, net of any related tax effects.

Due after one year through five years	4.4

The Company also maintained investments in non-marketable securities, held for strategic purposes (collectively referred to as "cost method investments") which are carried at cost and included in "Other long-term assets" in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. These investments are evaluated for impairment upon an indicator of impairment such as an event or change in circumstances that may have a significant adverse effect on the fair value of the investment. As of September 30, 2014, there were no indicators of impairment. Where there are no indicators of impairment present, the Company estimates the fair value for the cost method investments only if it is practicable to do so. As of September 30, 2014, it was deemed impracticable to estimate the fair value on $2.8 million of cost method assets due to the lack of sufficient data upon which to develop a valuation model and the costs of obtaining an independent valuation in relation to the size of the investments.

Note 12: Derivative Financial Instruments

Risk Management Objectives and Strategies

The Company is exposed to various financial and market risks, including those related to changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates that exist as part of its ongoing business operations. The Company utilizes certain derivative financial instruments to enhance its ability to manage these risks.

The Company uses derivative instruments (i) to mitigate cash flow risks with respect to changes in interest rates (forecasted interest payments on variable rate debt), (ii) to maintain a desired ratio of fixed rate and floating rate debt, and (iii) to protect the net investment in certain foreign subsidiaries and/or affiliates and intercompany loans with respect to changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

Derivative instruments are entered into for periods consistent with related underlying exposures and do not constitute positions independent of those exposures. The Company applies strict policies to manage each of these risks, including prohibition against derivatives trading, derivatives market-making or any other speculative activities. Although most of the Company's derivatives do not qualify for hedge accounting, they are maintained for economic hedge purposes and are not considered speculative.

The Company's policy is to manage its cash flow and net investment exposures related to adverse changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. The Company's objective is to engage in risk management strategies that provide adequate downside protection.

Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

With respect to derivative instruments that qualify for hedge accounting, the effective portion of changes in the fair value of a derivative that is designated as a cash flow hedge is recorded in OCI and reclassified into earnings in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings. Changes in the fair value of a net investment hedge that qualifies for hedge accounting are recorded as part of the cumulative translation adjustment in OCI to the extent the hedge is effective. Any ineffectiveness associated with designated cash flow hedges, as well as any change in the fair value of a derivative that is not designated as a hedge, is recorded immediately in “Other income (expense)” in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

The Company formally documents all relationships between hedging instruments and the underlying hedged items, as well as its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions. This process includes linking all derivatives that have been designated as cash flow hedges to forecasted transactions and net investment hedges to the underlying investment in a foreign subsidiary or affiliate. The Company formally assesses both at inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, whether the hedge is highly effective in offsetting changes in cash flows or foreign currency exposure of the underlying hedged items. The Company also performs an assessment of the probability of the forecasted transactions on a periodic basis. If it is determined that a derivative ceases to be highly effective during the term of the hedge or if the forecasted transaction is no longer probable, the Company discontinues hedge accounting prospectively for such derivative.

Credit Risk

The Company monitors the financial stability of its derivative counterparties and all counterparties remain highly-rated (in the "A" category or higher). The credit risk inherent in these agreements represents the possibility that a loss may occur from the nonperformance of counterparty to the agreements. The Company performs a review at inception of the hedge, as circumstances warrant, and at least on a quarterly basis of the credit risk of these counterparties. The Company also monitors the concentration of its contracts with individual counterparties. The Company's exposures are in liquid currencies (primarily in U.S. dollars, euros and Australian dollars, British pounds and Canadian dollars), so there is minimal risk that appropriate derivatives to maintain the hedging program would not be available in the future.

Summary of Derivative Instruments

The Company's derivative instruments portfolio was comprised of the following:

Notional value (in millions)	As of September 30,		As of December 31,
		2014		2013
Interest rate contracts	USD	5,750.0	USD	5,750.0

Derivatives Not Qualifying for Hedge Accounting

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, the Company held certain derivative instruments that functioned as economic hedges but no longer qualified or were not designated to qualify for hedge accounting. Such instruments included cross-currency swaps held in order to mitigate foreign currency exposure on intercompany loans and a portion of the Company's net investment in its European operations, interest rate swaps held in order to mitigate the exposure to interest rate fluctuations on interest payments related to variable rate debt and a fixed to floating interest rate swap held to maintain a desired ratio of fixed and variable rate debt.

The Company holds interest rate swaps with a combined notional value of $5.8 billion. $5.0 billion of the interest rate swaps are intended to mitigate exposure to fluctuations in interest rates and will expire in September 2016. The Company also holds a $750 million fixed to floating interest rate swap in order to preserve the ratio of fixed to floating debt which expires on June 15, 2019, but is subject to a mandatory put that will result in cash settlement on June 15, 2015. The Company did not designate these swaps as hedges for accounting purposes.

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, the Company held cross-currency swaps not qualifying for hedge accounting with a total notional value of 21.5 million euro (approximately $27.4 million as of September 30, 2014).

For information on the location and amounts of derivative fair values in the Consolidated Balance Sheets, derivative gains and losses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and accumulated derivative gains and losses in OCI, refer to the tables presented below.

The estimated fair values of investment securities and derivative financial instruments are described below. Refer to Note 11 "Investment Securities" and Note 12 "Derivative Financial Instruments" of these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding the Company's investment securities and derivative financial instruments, respectively.

The estimated fair market value of FDC's long-term borrowings was primarily based on market trading prices and is considered to be a Level 2 measurement. For additional information regarding the Company's borrowings, refer to Note 5 "Borrowings" of these Consolidated Financial Statements as well as to Note 8 "Borrowings" in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements in "Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data" of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company's largest single issuer or financial institution represents approximately 35% of the total carrying value of the investment portfolio and the Company limits its derivative financial instruments credit risk by maintaining contracts with highly rated (in the "A" category or higher) counterparties. The Company periodically reviews the credit standings of these institutions.

Settlement assets - student loan auction rate securities

Due to the use of unobservable inputs, these instruments are classified as Level 3 within the fair value hierarchy at December 31, 2013. During the second quarter of 2014, the Company sold all of its SLARS investments. For additional information regarding SLARS, refer to Note 5 "Investment Securities" and Note 7 "Fair Value Measurement" in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements in "Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data" of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Settlement assets - other available-for-sale securities

Prices for the municipal and corporate securities are not quoted on active exchanges but are priced through an independent third-party pricing service based on quotations from market-makers in the specific instruments or, where appropriate, from other market inputs. Bonds were valued under a market approach using observable inputs including reported trades, benchmark yields, broker/dealer quotes, issuer spreads and other standard inputs. Commercial and municipal paper were valued under a market approach using observable inputs including maturity date, issue date, credit rating, current commercial paper rates and settlement date.

The Company's experience with these types of investments and the expectations of the current investments held is that they will be satisfied at the current carrying amount. These securities were classified as Level 2.

Other current assets - corporate bonds

Other current assets - corporate bonds primarily includes $15.5 million of a Deutsche bank administered program authorized by the Argentine Government called Certificados de deposito Argentinos. These investments were classified as Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy at September 30, 2014.

Derivative financial instruments

The Company uses derivative instruments to mitigate certain risks. The Company's derivatives are not exchange listed and therefore the fair value is estimated under an income approach using Bloomberg analytics models that are based on readily observable market inputs. These models reflect the contractual terms of the derivatives, such as notional value and expiration date, as well as market-based observables including interest and foreign currency exchange rates, yield curves and the credit quality of the counterparties. The models also incorporate the Company's creditworthiness in order to appropriately reflect non-performance risk. Inputs to the derivative pricing models are generally observable and do not contain a high level of subjectivity and, accordingly, the Company's derivatives were classified within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy. While the Company believes its estimates result in a reasonable reflection of the fair value of these instruments, the estimated values may not be representative of actual values that could have been realized or that will be realized in the near future. Refer to Note 12 "Derivative Financial Statements" of these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information regarding the Company's derivative financial instruments.

Contingent liabilities

Over the past three years, the Company completed three acquisitions in which contingent consideration was recorded. The transactions called for cash consideration as well as contingent payments for achievement of certain milestones. As part of the purchase prices, the Company recorded $29.0 million in liabilities for the contingent consideration. This fair value measurement represents a Level 3 measurement as it is based on significant inputs not observable in the market. Significant judgment is employed in determining the appropriateness of these assumptions as of the acquisition date. The primary assumption is the estimated number of merchant locations that will be using the software through 2016. There has been no change in the fair value of contingent consideration during the nine months ended September 30, 2014, other than the acquisition of Gyft.

Assets and Liabilities Measured at Fair Value on a Non-Recurring Basis

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, the Company did not perform any material non-recurring fair value measurements.

Note 14: Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rates on Loss before income taxes including Equity Earnings in affiliates were a benefit of 10.9% and an expense of 19.3% for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and expenses of 18.9% and 19.5% for the same periods in 2013. The effective tax rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 were different than the statutory rate primarily due to valuation allowances being recorded in certain tax jurisdictions against deferred tax benefits on pretax losses, while tax expense is recognized on pretax earnings in other jurisdictions. This negative adjustment was partially offset by net income attributable to noncontrolling interests from pass through entities for which there was no tax expense provided. In addition, the effective tax rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 were positively impacted by a valuation allowance release in certain foreign jurisdictions due to improved financial performance. As a result of the Company's pretax losses in each of the periods, favorable and unfavorable tax impacts have the opposite effect on the effective tax rate for these periods.

The balance of the Company's liability for unrecognized tax benefits was approximately $263 million as of September 30, 2014. The Company anticipates it is reasonably possible that its liability for unrecognized tax benefits may decrease by approximately $181 million within the next twelve months as the result of the possible closure of federal tax audits, potential settlements with certain states and foreign countries and the lapse of the statute of limitations in various state and foreign jurisdictions.

Note 15: Investment in Affiliates

Operating results include the Company's proportionate share of income from affiliates, which consist of unconsolidated investments accounted for under the equity method of accounting. The most significant of these affiliates are related to the Company's merchant bank alliance program.

As of September 30, 2014, the Company has an unconsolidated significant subsidiary that is not required to be consolidated, but represents more than 20% of the Company's pretax loss. This affiliate became significant during the second quarter and its summarized financial information is presented below for the periods indicated:

As described in Note 5 "Borrowings" of these Consolidated Financial Statements, and in Note 8 "Borrowings" in the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements in "Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, FDC's 12.625% senior notes, 11.25% senior notes, 10.625% senior notes and 11.75% senior subordinated notes are guaranteed by most of the existing and future, direct and indirect, wholly-owned, domestic subsidiaries of FDC ("Guarantors"). The Guarantors guarantee the senior secured revolving credit facility, senior secured term loan facility, the 8.875% senior secured notes, the 7.375% senior secured notes and the 6.75% senior secured notes, which rank senior in right of payment to all existing and future unsecured and second lien indebtedness of FDC's guarantor subsidiaries to the extent of the value of the collateral. The Guarantors guarantee the 8.25% senior second lien notes and 8.75%/10.00% PIK toggle senior second lien notes which rank senior in right of payment to all existing and future unsecured indebtedness of FDC's guarantor subsidiaries to the extent of the value of the collateral. The 12.625% senior note, 10.625% senior note and 11.25% senior note guarantees are unsecured and rank equally in right of payment with all existing and future senior indebtedness of the guarantor subsidiaries but senior in right of payment to all existing and future subordinated indebtedness of FDC's guarantor subsidiaries. The 11.75% senior subordinated note guarantee is unsecured and ranks equally in right of payment with all existing and future senior subordinated indebtedness of the guarantor subsidiaries.

All of the above guarantees are full, unconditional, and joint and several and each of the Guarantors is 100% owned, directly or indirectly, by FDC. None of the other subsidiaries of FDC, either direct or indirect, guarantee the notes ("Non-Guarantors"). The Guarantors are subject to release under certain circumstances as described below.

The credit agreement governing the guarantees of the senior secured revolving credit facility and senior secured term loan facility provide for a Guarantor to be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged from its guarantee obligations in certain circumstances, including under the following circumstances:

the Guarantor ceases to be a “restricted subsidiary” for purpose of the agreement because FDC no longer directly or indirectly owns 50% of the equity or, if a corporation, stock having voting power to elect a majority of the board of directors of the Guarantor;

the Guarantor is designated as an “unrestricted subsidiary” for purposes of the agreement covenants; or the Guarantor is no longer wholly owned by FDC subject to the value of all Guarantors released under this provision does not exceed (x) 10% of FDC’s Consolidated EBITDA plus (y) the amount of investments permitted under the agreement in respect of non-guarantors.

The indentures governing all of the other guarantees described above provide for a Guarantor to be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged from its guarantee obligations in certain circumstances, including upon the earliest to occur of:

- the sale, exchange or transfer of the subsidiary's capital stock or all or substantially all of its assets;
- designation of the Guarantor as an "unrestricted subsidiary" for purposes of the indenture covenants;
- release or discharge of the Guarantor's guarantee of certain other indebtedness; or
- legal defeasance or covenant defeasance of the indenture obligations when provision has been made for them to be fully satisfied.

During the first quarter of 2014, the Company corrected errors related to the presentation of cost allocations and interest on intercompany notes in the Guarantor condensed consolidating financial statements related primarily to 2008 and 2009. The Company does not believe these errors were material. The adjustments are limited to the guarantor footnote and do not affect any other reported amounts or disclosures in the Company's consolidated financial statements. Refer to Note 15 "Supplemental Guarantor Condensed Consolidating Financial Statements" in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2014 for more information.

During the third quarter of 2014, the senior secured loan facilities were amended, and three subsidiaries were removed as guarantors. Although these changes were not material and did not have an impact to the Company's consolidated financial statements, the Company adjusted prior periods to align with the new guarantor structure. These adjustments are limited to the guarantor footnote and do not affect any other reported amounts or disclosures in the Company's consolidated financial statements. Refer to Note 5 "Borrowings" for additional information on the private placement. A summary of the adjustments is as follows:

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

First Data Corporation ("FDC" or "the Company") operates electronic commerce businesses providing services that include merchant transaction processing and acquiring services; credit, retail and debit card issuing and processing services; prepaid card services; and check verification, settlement and guarantee services.

Results of Operations

Consolidated results should be read in conjunction with segment results, which provide more detailed discussions concerning certain components of the Consolidated Statements of Operations. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

Table of Contents

The following provides highlights of revenue and expense growth while a more detailed discussion is included in the “Segment Results” section below.

Operating revenues overview

Transaction and processing service fees increased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due primarily to increased card services and merchant related services revenue resulting from net new business and organic growth, both domestically and internationally. Revenue increased due to growth in transactions and volume, offset by lower rates, changes in mix and attrition. During May 2014, the Company disposed of a noncore transportation payments joint venture, Electronic Funds Source, LLC (“EFS”) resulting in approximately $13 million negative impact on revenue in the third quarter of 2014. As expected, the Company continues to experience decreases in check processing revenue primarily as a result of lower overall check volumes due to a shift toward electronic payments. Foreign currency exchange movements did not have a significant impact on the transaction and processing service fees revenue growth rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013.

Product sales and other increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to higher equipment leases and sales, as well as a benefit from the sale of an ISO portfolio. The nine months ended September 30, 2014 also benefited from portfolio growth in the leasing business, interest income and fees on terminal leases, and higher professional services revenues. The foreign currency exchange rate movements negatively impacted the product sales and other growth rate for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 by approximately 2 and 3 percentage points, respectively.

Reimbursable debit network fees, postage and other revenue and expense increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to transaction and volume growth related to debit network fees related to both new and existing customers partially offset by changes in regulated financial institution mix.

Operating expenses overview

Cost of service decreased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to the Company’s focus on operational and processing efficiencies including lower headcount and changes in compensation programs as well as lower expenses from the sale of EFS in the second quarter of 2014. For the nine months ended September 30, 2014, Cost of services benefited by a combined $21 million in the first quarter of 2014 from a tax recovery in Australia and a gain on the revaluation of settlement funds associated with the devaluation of the Argentina Peso. This was partially offset in the second quarter by a combined $20 million from the impact of a reserve for uncollectible accounts in Latin America, a legal reserve and a receivable write-off for a failed merchant. The year-over-year comparisons were also impacted by an $11 million provision for an uncollectible receivable in the third quarter of 2013. The reserve in the second quarter of 2014 for uncollectible receivables in Latin America, relates to a $41 million receivable in Latin America from debit card holders, merchants and financial institutions, which principally arose over the second half of 2013 and first half of 2014 from settlement activity. The Company believes that it will be able to collect $29 million of this amount and has initiated collection efforts.

Selling, general and administrative increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 principally due to higher use of consulting services and higher stock compensation expense related to the departure of a senior officer in the third quarter of 2014 offset by a change in compensation programs. Additionally, expenses increased for the three months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013 due to costs associated with the departure of a senior officer and costs incurred in strengthening our executive bench during the third quarter of 2014.

Depreciation and amortization decreased during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to a decrease in the amortization of certain intangible assets that are being amortized on an accelerated basis, resulting in higher amortization in 2013, and certain other assets that have become fully amortized, partially offset by amortization of new assets.

Other operating expenses, net The Company recorded restructuring charges during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, primarily related to the alignment of the business with strategic objectives, cost savings initiatives as well as refinements of estimates. During the nine months ended September 30, 2013, the Company also recorded restructuring charges in connection with the departure of executive officers. The Company expects to record additional charges in 2014 associated with the alignment of the business with strategic objectives and cost savings initiatives. Refer to Note 4 “Restructuring” of these Consolidated Financial Statements for details regarding restructuring charges.

Interest expense decreased for the three and nine months ending September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to lower outstanding debt balances as a result of debt extinguishments, lower interest rates as a result of debt exchanges and refinancing, and lower financing fees amortization. Refer to Note 5 “Borrowings” in these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Loss on Debt Extinguishment The Company incurred a $260.1 million loss on the extinguishment of $2.5 billion of outstanding debt during the third quarter of 2014. Refer to Note 5 “Borrowings” in these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Other income (expense)

Other income (expense)	$56.4	$(36.2)) $139.8	$(20.9)

Investment gains for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 relate primarily to the sale of the Company’s 30% minority interest in Electronic Funds Source LLC which resulted in a pretax gain of $98.2 million. Refer to Note 3 “Acquisitions and Dispositions” in these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Derivative financial instruments gains and (losses) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 were due to the fair value adjustments for interest rate swaps and cross currency swaps that are not designated as accounting hedges. Refer to Note 12 “Derivative Financial Instruments” in these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Non-operating foreign currency gains and (losses) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 relate to currency translations on the Company’s euro-denominated debt and its intercompany loans.

Income taxes The Company’s effective tax rates on Loss before income taxes including Equity Earnings in affiliates were a benefit of 10.9% and an expense of 19.3% for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and expenses of 18.9% and 19.5% for the same periods in 2013. The effective tax rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013 were different than the statutory rate primarily due to valuation allowances being recorded in certain tax jurisdictions against deferred tax benefits on pretax losses, while tax expense is recognized on pretax earnings in other jurisdictions. This negative adjustment was partially offset by net income attributable to noncontrolling interests from pass through entities for which there was no tax expense provided. In addition, the effective tax rates for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 were positively impacted by a valuation allowance release in certain foreign jurisdictions due to improved financial performance. As a result of the Company’s pretax losses in each of the periods, favorable and unfavorable tax impacts have the opposite effect on the effective tax rate for these periods.

The balance of the Company's liability for unrecognized tax benefits was approximately $263 million as of September 30, 2014. The Company anticipates it is reasonably possible that its liability for unrecognized tax benefits may decrease by approximately $181 million within the next twelve months as the result of the possible closure of federal tax audits, potential settlements with certain states and foreign countries and the lapse of the statute of limitations in various state and foreign jurisdictions.

Equity earnings in affiliates increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 mostly due to higher volumes and pricing initiatives.

Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests and redeemable noncontrolling interest mostly relates to the Company's consolidated merchant alliances. Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests and redeemable noncontrolling interest increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to organic growth, new revenue and lower credit losses from our alliances. Refer to Note 7 "Redeemable Noncontrolling Interests" in these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

Segment results

During the first quarter of 2014, the Company renamed its Retail and Alliance Services segment to Merchant Solutions to better reflect its transformation from a processor to a solutions and technology provider. For a detailed discussion of the Company's principles regarding its segments, refer to "Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

On October 1, 2014, the Company announced the expansion of its Management Committee. The Company is evaluating the changes to its reporting that may be made as a result of the expansion, to best assist the chief operating decision maker (our Chief Executive Officer) in monitoring and managing the businesses. Should the reporting change, the Company will retroactively revise its segment disclosures.

Acquiring revenue grew slightly during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013. Growth in merchant transactions and dollar volumes, new sales and pricing increases, primarily due to regional merchants, were mostly offset by decreases resulting from the impact of merchant mix on transaction and dollar volumes, the effects of shifts in pricing mix, and merchant attrition. The nine months ended September 30, 2014 also included a $9.5 million network incentive.

The slight increase in transaction growth during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 was driven by the Company's national and ISO merchants, which contributed to lower revenue per transaction. The lower transactions growth also reflected Walmart's shift to a dual processor strategy in the first quarter of 2014.

Check processing revenue, consistent with prior periods, decreased in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable periods in 2013 due to lower overall check volumes from continued check writer and merchant attrition.

Prepaid revenue decreased in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 primarily due to the disposition of a noncore transportation payments joint venture, Electronic Funds Source LLC ("EFS") in the second quarter of 2014, partially offset by higher transaction volumes within the open loop payroll distribution program related to existing customers and new business. The disposition occurred in late May 2014 and had an approximate $13.0 million negative impact on revenue in the third quarter of 2014. Refer to Note 3 "Acquisitions and Dispositions" for additional information.

Product sales and other revenue increased during the three months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable period in 2013 due to higher equipment leases and sales, as well as a benefit from the sale of an ISO portfolio. The nine months ended September 30, 2014 also benefited from portfolio growth in the leasing business, as well as interest income and fees on terminal leases.

Merchant Solutions Segment EBITDA remained flat during the three months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013 as expenses were relatively unchanged. The benefit of lower expenses in the third quarter of 2014 related to the sale of EFS and a provision for an uncollectible receivable in the third quarter of 2013, were partially offset by product investment costs.

Merchant Solutions segment EBITDA increased during the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013 from the impact of the revenue items noted above as well as from lower expense, primarily compensation and operations costs, as well as lower processing costs as a result of the sale of EFS. Compensation decreased as a result of lower headcount and changes in compensation programs. These decreases were partially offset by product investment costs. The decrease in operating expenses positively impacted the segment EBITDA growth rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable period in 2013 by approximately 2 percentage points. EFS contributed approximately $6.0 million in EBITDA during the third quarter of 2013.

Credit card and retail card processing revenue increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable periods in 2013 due to net new business and growth from existing customers, partially offset by price compression on contract renewals and other net pricing incentives. Domestic active card accounts on file increased due to net new account conversions and growth from existing customers.

Debit processing revenue increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable periods in 2013 due in part to internal growth, partially offset by net lost business and price compression on contract renewals. Also contributing to revenue growth in both periods was a new transaction routing program that was introduced in the first quarter of 2014, along with growth in the pinless debit offering rolled out in the fourth quarter of 2013.

Debit issuer transaction growth in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 increased due to growth from existing customers and new pinless debit product, partially offset by net lost business.

Output services revenue increased for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to growth in the print business, derived from new and existing customers, and growth in the plastics business, derived primarily from Europay, MasterCard and Visa ("EMV") personalization charges. Growth in the plastics business was also due to existing customers for the nine months ended September 30, 2014.

Financial Services Segment EBITDA increased significantly for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to the impact of the revenue items noted above. For the three months ended September 30, 2014, operating expenses partially offset growth in revenue, primarily technology costs, as a result of increased applications development, and increased sales costs. The increase in operating expenses negatively impacted the segment EBITDA growth rate for the three months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable periods in 2013 by approximately 2 percentage points. Whereas, for the nine months ended September 30, 2014, operating expenses decreased, primarily operations and technology costs and sales and executive costs, as a result of lower head count and changes in compensation programs. The decrease in operating expenses positively impacted the segment EBITDA growth rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable period in 2013 by approximately 7 percentage points.

Segment EBITDA has been adjusted to exclude the impact of $12 million reserve for uncollectible receivables in (c) Latin America. This change was made to conform with a similar change made to management's internal presentation during the current quarter.

Segment revenue in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable periods in 2013 was impacted by the items discussed below as well as by foreign currency exchange rate movements. Foreign currency exchange rate movements negatively impacted the total segment revenue growth rate during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 by 1 and 2 percentage points, respectively, compared to the same periods in 2013

Transaction and processing service fees revenue includes merchant related services and card services revenue. Merchant related services revenue encompasses merchant acquiring and processing revenue, debit transaction revenue, POS/ATM transaction revenue and fees from switching services. Card services revenue represents monthly managed service fees for issued cards. Merchant related services transaction and processing service fee revenue represented approximately 63% and card services revenue represented approximately 37% of total transaction and processing service fees revenue for the periods presented.

Transaction and processing service fees revenue increased in the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same periods in 2013 due to volume growth in the card issuing and merchant acquiring businesses. The majority of increases in the merchant acquiring businesses resulted from volumes growth in the merchant acquiring alliances, partially offset by lost processing business in Canada.

Revenue in the card issuing businesses increased primarily from transaction and volumes growth from existing customers in Argentina and new business from existing clients in the United Kingdom and Greece. Foreign currency exchange rate movements had no impact on the transaction and processing service fees revenue growth rates for the three months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. For the nine months ended September 30, 2014, foreign currency exchange rate movements negatively impacted the transaction and processing service fees revenue growth rate by approximately 1 percentage points compared to the same period in 2013.

Transaction and processing service fees revenue is driven by accounts on file and transactions. The spread between growth in these two indicators and revenue growth was driven mostly by the mix of transaction types and the impact of foreign currency exchange rate movements. International card accounts on file as of September 30, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013 increased primarily due to new portfolios of existing clients in the United Kingdom, partially offset by the removal of inactive accounts in Canada.

International Segment EBITDA was relatively flat during the three months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. The increase from the revenue items noted above was partially offset during the three months ended September 30, 2014, by business investments, principally in Latin America and Europe, and an increase in cost of sales. The segment EBITDA growth rate was adversely impacted during the third quarter of 2014 versus the comparable period in 2013 by approximately 5 percentage points as a result of these investments. The impact from foreign currency exchange rate movements negatively impacted segment EBITDA growth rates by 3 percentage points in the third quarter of 2014 compared to the same period in 2013. The nine months ended September 30, 2014 was also impacted by a combined $21 million in the first quarter of 2014 from a tax recovery in Australia and a gain on the revaluation of settlement funds associated with the devaluation of the Argentinian peso. This was partially offset in the second quarter by a combined $8 million from the impact of a legal reserve and a receivable write-off for a failed merchant. The segment EBITDA growth rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 versus the comparable period in 2013 was negatively impacted by approximately 5 percentage points from the impact of foreign currency exchange rate movements.

Capital Resources and Liquidity

FDC's source of liquidity is principally cash generated from operating activities supplemented as necessary on a short-term basis by borrowings against its revolving credit facility. The Company believes its current level of cash and short-term financing capabilities along with future cash flows from operations are sufficient to meet the needs of the business.

Over the past few years, FDC completed various amendments and modifications to certain of its debt agreements in an effort to extend its debt maturities and lower interest rates.

On July 11, 2014, First Data Holdings Inc., the direct parent company of FDC ("Holdings"), completed the issuance of $3.5 billion of its Class B common equity in a private placement. Approximately $2.5 billion of the net proceeds from the private placement were contributed to the Company as a capital contribution and the funds were used to repay approximately $2.2 billion of debt and $214 million in call premiums.

Additionally, on July 18, 2014, FDC repriced approximately $5.7 billion of 2018 term loans, reducing the interest rate by 50 basis points and saving over $25 million in annual interest expense. The debt pay down from the equity contribution proceeds, combined with the repricing and other actions by the Company, will lower annual cash interest payments by approximately $228 million. Refer to Note 5 "Borrowings" of these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information on the debt modifications and extinguishment.

Edgar Filing: FIRST DATA CORP - Form 10-Q

As of November 12, 2014, FDC's long-term corporate family rating from Moody's was B3 (positive outlook). The long-term local issuer credit rating from Standard and Poor's was B (stable). The long-term issuer default rating from Fitch was B (stable). The Company's current level of debt may impair the ability of the Company to get additional funding beyond its revolving credit facility if needed.

On October 17, 2014, the Company declared a $246 million cash dividend, which is expected to be paid to Holdings on December 2, 2014. The proceeds are expected to be used to repay Holding's remaining debt balance.

Cash and cash equivalents Investments (other than those included in settlement assets) with original maturities of three months or less (that are readily convertible to cash) are considered to be cash equivalents and are stated at cost, which approximates market value. As of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the Company held $386.4 million and $425.3 million in cash and cash equivalents, respectively.

Included in cash and cash equivalents are amounts held by subsidiaries that are not available to fund operations outside of those subsidiaries. As of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the cash and cash equivalents held by these subsidiaries totaled $157.5 million and $115.8 million, respectively. All other domestic cash balances, to the extent available, are used to fund the Company's short-term liquidity needs.

Cash and cash equivalents also includes amounts held outside of the U.S., totaling $170.1 million and $237.6 million, as of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. Approximately $20 million as of September 30, 2014 is held in Argentina where government imposed restrictions prevent any material repatriations outside of the country. As of September 30, 2014, there was approximately $60 million of cash and cash equivalents held outside of the U.S. that could be used for general corporate purposes. FDC plans to fund any cash needs throughout the remainder of 2014 within the International segment with cash held by the segment, but if necessary, could fund such needs using cash from the U.S., subject to satisfying debt covenant restrictions.

Cash flows provided by operating activities for the periods presented resulted from normal operating activities and reflect the timing of the Company's working capital requirements.

FDC's operating cash flow is significantly impacted by its level of debt. Approximately $1,497 million and $1,480 million in cash interest was paid during the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively. The increase in cash interest payments from 2013 is primarily due to extinguishing debt in the third quarter of 2014.

Cash flows from operating activities increased for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 compared to the same period in 2013 primarily due to an increase in operating income. This was partially offset by the timing of settlement arrangement prefunding and a $98.2 million net gain on the sale of the Company's minority interest, Electronic Funds Source LLC, as discussed below in "Acquisitions and dispositions" and included in Charges related to other operating expenses and other income.

FDC anticipates funding operations throughout the remainder of 2014 primarily with cash flows from operating activities and by closely managing discretionary capital and other spending; however, any shortfalls would be supplemented as necessary by borrowings against its revolving credit facility.

Acquisitions and dispositions The Company may finance acquisitions through a combination of internally generated funds, reinvestment of proceeds from asset sales, short-term borrowings and equity of its parent company. The Company may also consider using long-term borrowings subject to restrictions in its debt agreements. Although the Company considers potential acquisitions from time to time, the Company's plan for the remainder of 2014 does not include funding of material acquisitions.

In August 2014, the Company acquired Gyft, Inc. ("Gyft"), a leading digital platform that enables consumers to buy, send, manage and redeem gift cards using mobile devices, for net cash of $30.3 million. Refer to Note 3 "Acquisitions and Dispositions" of these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

On May 29, 2014, the Company completed the sale of its 30% minority interest in a transportation payments business, Electronic Funds Source LLC ("EFS") and received $255.1 million in cash. Refer to Note 3 "Acquisitions and Dispositions" of these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information on EFS. During the third quarter, the Company received approximately $9.3 million in additional proceeds and recorded an incremental gain as a result of the final settlement of the sale. The Company continues to manage its portfolio of businesses and evaluate the possible divestiture of businesses that do not match its long-term growth objectives.

Capital expenditures (Additions to property and equipment and Payments to secure customer service contracts, including outlays for conversion, and capitalized systems development costs) are anticipated to be approximately $525 million to $575 million in 2014 and are expected to be funded by cash flows from operations. If, however, cash flows from operating activities are insufficient, the Company will decrease its discretionary capital expenditures or utilize its revolving credit facility.

As of September 30, 2014, FDC's senior secured revolving credit facility had commitments from financial institutions to provide $1.0 billion of credit and matures on September 24, 2016. Besides the letters of credit discussed below, FDC had no amount outstanding against this facility as of September 30, 2014 and December 31, 2013. As of September 30, 2014, $973 million remained available under this facility. Excluding the letters of credit, the maximum amount outstanding against this facility during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 was approximately $225 million and $474 million, respectively, while the average amount outstanding during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2014 was approximately $56 million and $141 million, respectively.

FDC utilizes its revolving credit facility on a short-term basis to fund investing or operating activities when cash flows from operating activities are not sufficient. The Company believes the capacity under its senior secured revolving credit facility will be sufficient to meet its short-term liquidity needs. FDC's senior secured revolving credit facility can be used for working capital and general corporate purposes.

There are multiple institutions that have commitments under this facility with none representing more than approximately 21% of the capacity.

Proceeds from issuance of long-term debt. In July 2014, the Company received $350 million from the issuance of 2018 New Term Loans and proceeds were used for general corporate purposes.

Debt modification payments and related financing costs In conjunction with issuing debt in November 2013, FDC received $55.2 million in cash related to accrued interest on the notes which were issued mid-coupon period, which was paid in the first quarter of 2014. Additionally, FDC's debt modifications and amendments completed in 2013 and fully settled in the first quarter of 2014 were accounted for as modifications resulting in only the net effect of the transactions of $35.4 million, including payment of capitalized fees, being reflected as a use or source of cash excluding certain fees included in the Company's results of operations. Also, in July 2014, the Company incurred call premiums and deferred financing costs of $252.2 million in the third quarter of 2014 associated with certain debt repayments and new borrowings. Refer to Note 5 "Borrowings" in these Consolidated Financial Statements.

Principal payments on long-term debt During the third quarter, the Company extinguished $2.2 billion in debt. Refer to Note 5 "Borrowings" of these Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information on extinguishment of debt. Payments for capital leases totaled $54.9 million and $57.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

Distributions and dividends paid to noncontrolling interests and redeemable noncontrolling interest Distributions and dividends paid to noncontrolling interests and redeemable noncontrolling interest primarily represent distributions of earnings.

Purchase of noncontrolling interest In May 2014, the Company acquired the remaining approximately 1 percent noncontrolling interest Polish Bank Association for $1 million. In April 2013, the Company made the final payment for the purchase of the remaining noncontrolling interest in Omnipay, a provider of card and electronic payment processing services to merchant acquiring banks for 18.1 million euro ($23.7 million).

Capital transaction with parent, net FDH contributed $2.5 billion to the Company as a capital contribution and the funds were used to repay certain tranches of the Company's debt. The Company paid cash dividends of $439.9 million to FDH during the nine months ended September 30, 2014.

All letters of credit expire prior to September 27, 2015 with a one-year renewal option. FDC expects to renew most of the letters of credit prior to expiration.

As of September 30, 2014, represents $144.1 million of committed lines of credit as well as certain uncommitted lines of credit and other agreements that are available in various currencies to fund settlement and other activity for (c)the Company's international operations. FDC cannot use these lines of credit for general corporate purposes.

Certain of these arrangements are uncommitted but, as of the dates presented, FDC had borrowings outstanding against them.

In the event one or more of the aforementioned lines of credit becomes unavailable, FDC will utilize its existing cash, cash flows from operating activities or its revolving credit facility to meet its liquidity needs.

Significant non-cash transactions Refer to Note 2 "Supplemental Financial Information" of these Consolidated Financial Statements for further information on the Company's significant non-cash transactions.

Guarantees and covenants For a description of guarantees and covenants and covenant compliance, refer to the "Guarantees and covenants" and "Covenant compliance" sections in "Item 7. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013. As of September 30, 2014, the Company was in compliance with all applicable covenants, including its sole financial covenant with Consolidated Senior Secured Debt of $11.8 billion, Consolidated EBITDA of $3.0 billion and a Ratio of 3.89 to 1.00 compared to the maximum ratio allowed by the covenant of 6.00 to 1.00.

- (9) Represents costs directly associated with the strategy to have First Data operate Bank of America N.A.'s legacy settlement platform and costs associated with the termination of the Chase Paymentech alliance, both of which are considered business optimization projects, and other technology initiatives.
- (10) Represents KKR annual sponsorship fees for management, financial and other advisory services.
- (11) Debt issuance costs represent costs associated with issuing debt and modifying First Data's debt structure.
- (12) Represents settlements of litigation or regulatory matters.
- (13) Reflects cost savings and revenue enhancements projected to be realized as a result of specific actions as if they were achieved on the first day of the period. Includes cost savings initiatives associated with the business optimization projects and other technology initiatives described in Note 8, the Banc of America Merchant Services ("BAMS") alliance, operations and technology initiatives, headcount reductions and other addressable spend reductions.
- (14) Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests and redeemable noncontrolling interest in restricted subsidiaries.
- (15) Represents FDC's proportional share of income taxes, depreciation and amortization on equity method investments.
- (16) Loss incurred due to early extinguishment of debt.
- (17) Includes items such as impairments and other as applicable to the period presented.
- (18) EBITDA is defined as net income (loss) attributable to First Data Corporation before net interest expense, income taxes, depreciation and amortization. EBITDA is not a recognized term under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and does not purport to be an alternative to net income (loss) attributable to First Data Corporation as a measure of operating performance or to cash flows from operating activities as a measure of liquidity. Additionally, EBITDA is not intended to be a measure of free cash flow available for management's discretionary use as it does not consider certain cash requirements such as interest payments, tax payments and debt service requirements. The presentation of EBITDA has limitations as an analytical tool and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for analysis of First Data's results as reported under GAAP. Management believes EBITDA is helpful in highlighting trends because EBITDA excludes the results of decisions that are outside the control of operating management and can differ significantly from company to company depending on long-term strategic decisions regarding capital structure, the tax jurisdictions in which companies operate and capital investments. Management compensates for the limitations of using non-GAAP financial measures by using them to supplement GAAP results to provide a more complete understanding of the factors and trends affecting the business than GAAP results alone.

Consolidated EBITDA (or debt covenant EBITDA) is defined as EBITDA adjusted to exclude certain non-cash items, non-recurring items that First Data does not expect to continue at the same level in the future and certain items management believes will impact future operating results and adjusted to include near-term cost savings projected to be achieved within twelve months on an annualized basis (see Note 13 above). Consolidated EBITDA is further adjusted to add net income attributable to noncontrolling interests and redeemable noncontrolling interest of certain non-wholly-owned subsidiaries and exclude other miscellaneous adjustments that are used in calculating covenant compliance under the agreements governing First Data's senior unsecured debt and/or senior secured credit facilities. The Company believes that the inclusion of supplementary adjustments to EBITDA are appropriate to provide additional information to investors about items that will impact the calculation of EBITDA that is used to determine covenant compliance under the agreements governing First Data's senior unsecured debt and/or senior secured credit facilities. Since not all companies use identical calculations, this presentation of Consolidated EBITDA may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014 and 2013, the Company did not engage in any off-balance sheet financing activities other than those discussed in the “Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements” discussion in “Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Contractual Obligations

During the nine months ended September 30, 2014, there were no material changes outside the ordinary course of business in the Company’s contractual obligations and commercial commitments from those reported as of December 31, 2013 in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K, other than as outlined in Note 5 “Borrowings”.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Company’s critical accounting policies have not changed from those reported in “Item 7. Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

New Accounting Guidance

Refer to Note 1 “Basis of Presentation and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies” of these Consolidated Financial Statements for new accounting guidance issued during the nine months ended September 30, 2014.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Interest Rate Risk

There have been no material changes from the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 related to its exposure to market risk from interest rates.

Foreign Currency Risk

As discussed in “Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, the Company is exposed to changes in currency rates as a result of its investments in foreign operations, revenues generated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar and foreign currency denominated loans. Revenue and profit generated by international operations will increase or decrease compared to prior periods as a result of changes in foreign currency exchange rates.

There were no other material changes from what was reported in the Company’s 2013 Annual Report on Form 10-K related to its exposure to market risk from foreign currency.

Regulatory

Through its merchant alliances, the Merchant Solutions segment holds an ownership interest in several competing merchant acquiring businesses while serving as the electronic processor for those businesses. In order to satisfy state and federal antitrust requirements, the Company actively maintains an antitrust compliance program.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

The Company has evaluated, under the supervision of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the Executive Vice President, Director of Finance (principal financial officer), the effectiveness of disclosure controls and procedures as of September 30, 2014. This is done in order to ensure that information the Company is required to disclose in reports that are filed or submitted under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in SEC rules and forms.

Based on this evaluation, the Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice President, Director of Finance (principal financial officer) concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of September 30, 2014, due to the material weakness described in "Item 9A. Controls and Procedures" of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

Notwithstanding the material weakness, management has concluded that the consolidated financial statements included in this Form 10-Q present fairly, in all material aspects, the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Changes in internal control over financial reporting

During the first quarter of 2014, the Company commenced the migration of certain activities performed in Denver, Colorado to Atlanta, Georgia and Melville, New York and certain activities performed in the Company's Captive Shared Service Centers to a Business Process Outsourcer ("Migrations"). These Migrations continued into the third quarter of 2014 and present transitional risks to maintaining adequate internal controls over financial reporting. Other than with respect to the ongoing remediation of the material weakness pursuant to the plan described in "Item 9A: Controls and Procedures" of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 and the Migrations, there were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting identified in connection with the above evaluation that occurred during the last fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
