Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

The Board of Trustees (the “Board”) of Chesapeake Lodging Trust (the “Trust”) values the input and insights of the Trust’s shareholders and believes that effective shareholder engagement strengthens the Board’s role as an informed and engaged fiduciary. The Board meaningfully integrates the feedback it receives from shareholders into the Board’s review and assessment of the Trust’s corporate governance policies.

In response to a shareholder’s non-binding proposal that was approved at the Trust’s 2015 annual meeting of shareholders (the “2015 Annual Meeting”), on September 17, 2015, the Board approved and adopted a wholly new article of the Trust’s amended and restated bylaws, as amended (the “Bylaws”), fully implementing the requested action recommended by the Trust’s shareholders at the 2015 Annual Meeting. New ARTICLE IX of the Bylaws generally provides that the Trust shall not adopt, amend, extend or renew any shareholder rights plan, rights agreement or any other form of “poison pill” making it more difficult or expensive to acquire large holdings of the Trust’s shares without prior approval by a majority of shares voted unless the Board is compelled by its fiduciary duties to adopt such a poison pill. New ARTICLE IX also provides that any poison pill adopted, amended, extended or renewed on the grounds of fiduciary duty shall expire within 12 months unless approved by holders of a majority of the shares voted or a court has determined further extension is reasonably required in the exercise by the Board of its fiduciary duties. The foregoing summary of new ARTICLE IX of the Trust’s Bylaws is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the Bylaws filed as Exhibit 3.2 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

The Board and management of the Trust are continuing to evaluate another non-binding shareholder proposal, defeated at the 2015 Annual Meeting but supported by many of the Trust’s shareholders, recommending that the Board amend the Trust’s governing documents to provide shareholders the right to amend our Bylaws. The Trust’s charter, like those of many real estate investment trusts organized under Maryland law, expressly reserves the right to amend the Bylaws to the Board; the Board cannot amend this provision of the Trust’s charter without shareholder approval. As a result, if the Board were to recommend action in response to this shareholder proposal despite it having been defeated at the 2015 Annual Meeting, the Board would be required to submit its proposed charter and Bylaws amendments to the Trust’s shareholders for approval at a future annual meeting.
