Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

From April 26, 2012 to January 24, 2013, Midwest Energy Emissions Corp. (the “Company”) sold to various accredited investors unsecured 12.0% Convertible Promissory Notes (the “Notes”) in the aggregate principal amount of $2,675,244, which Notes are convertible prior to the maturity date thereof into Units of the Company at an initial conversion price of $1.00 per Unit (the “Conversion Price”), where each Unit consists of: (a) one share of common stock of the Company, and (b) a warrant to purchase 0.25 additional shares of common stock at $1.25 per share (the “Warrant”). The Notes are due and payable on the third anniversary of the date of issuance (the “Maturity Date”). Interest on the Notes is payable semi-annually and the Company may, at its option, pay interest of any Note, for any interest payment date, by adding the amount of such interest to the outstanding principal amount due under any Note. As of the date of this report, total principal of $3,408,150 was outstanding on the Notes (which includes accrued interest converted to principal by the Company), of which $3,233,120 matures during 2015.

As of May 6, 2015, the Company and holders of Notes representing $1,451,211 of the total outstanding principal have entered into amendments (the “First Note Amendment”) to the Notes which (i) extend the Maturity Date of the Notes by 12 months from their original Maturity Dates; (ii) reduce the Conversion Price from $1.00 to $0.50 per Unit for a period of 45 days and $0.75 thereafter; and (iii) reduce the exercise price of the Warrant included in the Unit from $1.25 to $1.00 per share. The Company is in the process of seeking such amendments from the remaining holders of the Notes, a portion of which have reached maturity, but there can be no assurance that all remaining holders will accept the terms of the First Note Amendment. The Notes of any holders who do not accept will be governed by the original terms thereof.

The foregoing description of the First Note Amendment is qualified in its entirety by the full text of such document which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.
