Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, in January 2017, two putative class action lawsuits were filed against NovoCure Limited (the “Company”), its directors and certain of its officers, as well as the underwriters in the Company’s October 2015 initial public offering. The complaints, which purported to be brought on behalf of a class of persons and/or entities who purchased or otherwise acquired ordinary shares of the Company pursuant and/or traceable to the registration statement and prospectus issued in connection with the Company’s initial public offering, alleged material misstatements and/or omissions in the Company’s initial public offering materials in alleged violation of the federal securities laws and sought compensatory damages, among other remedies. The two actions were subsequently consolidated, and the defendants moved to dismiss on multiple grounds. On December 4, 2017, the defendants’ motion to dismiss these actions was granted on the ground that the court lacked personal jurisdiction over any of the defendants.
