WWW.FINANCIALEXPRESS.COM FRIDAY, JULY 13, 2018 FINANCIAL EXPRESS ECONOMY 5 LNG imports jump 20% in H1 of 2018, says S&P Global Platts PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai, July 12 THE COUNTRY'S LIQUEFIED natural gas (LNG) imports jumped 20% year-on-year in the first half of this year on strong growth in demand, S&P Global Platts said on Thursday. It expects imports from the US market to increase in coming years to meet the increasing demand. "India's LNG imports jumped by 20% in the first six months of 2018 as compared to same period last year due to strong growth in demand," S&P Global Platts' director, LNG market development, Marc Howson, told reporters here. With government taking proactive steps to ease infrastructure bottlenecks and push for gas as penetration in energy mix, Howson said LNG is the only option in boosting the country's gas demand in the next few years. The country imports nearly 60% of LNG from West Asia and the rest from Australia, West Africa and the US, the global energy, metals and commodities information provider said. In the world market, China, ranked second, witnessed 50% growth in LNG imports, while India was ranked as the fourth largest importer of LNG, Howson said. "We see higher imports from the US market in coming years. The LNG imports from US market is relatively small at 5% at present, which could well grow as US projects ramp up in the coming years. The US LNG prices are also still competitive to spot price of LNG in India," he said. The country has over 20 million tonne (MT) of contracted LNG, of which 6 MT is from the US. The country has contracted to buy $2 billion of US LNG annually for 10 years, S&P Global Platts said. Howson said the country's gas market has relatively low penetration of around 6.5% of energy mix as against government's target of 15% by 2020, due to inadequate infrastructure of pipeline for LNG expansion. He pointed out that the LNG contracted volume and length of the derivatives contracts have drastically declined over the last decade. Historically, the majority of LNG contracts were priced indexed to oil prices, but now more contracts are being priced indexed to gas benchmarks, Howson said.

CBI arrests Air One CMD Alok Sharma, BCAS official PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, July 12 THE CBI HAS arrested Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS) official Rahul Rathore and Air One Aviation CMD Alok Sharma in the case related to airport access pass issued to journalist Upendra Rai in alleged violation of norms, officials said on Thursday. Rai and chief security officer of the company Prasun Roy were booked by the agency in connection with the case, they said. It is alleged that Rai in criminal conspiracy with Prasun Roy and others cheated the BCAS and the Delhi International Airport (DIAL) and fraudulently obtained a temporary and later a permanent Aero-drome Entry Pass (AEP). By getting the right to access all airports in the country, Rai jeopardised national security, the agency had said after filing of an FIR in May this year.
