Item 8.01. Other Events

A lawsuit has been commenced in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida against Rayonier Advanced Materials Inc. (the “Company”) and certain current and former officers of the Company. The complaint, which was served on the Company on May 4, 2015, purports to be a class action and alleges federal securities laws violations. The primary allegations are that certain environmental-related reserves recorded by the Company were understated and materially false and misleading. The complaint seeks unspecified monetary damages and other relief. It is possible additional lawsuits making similar or related allegations may be filed against the Company and/or its current and/or former officers.

The Company strongly believes the complaint and its allegations to be baseless and without merit, and will vigorously defend this action.
