Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 31, 2014 (the “Effective Date”), the previously announced spin-off of Kimball Electronics, Inc. (the “Company”) from Kimball International, Inc. was completed (the “Spin-Off”). On the Effective Date, the Company became an independent company that operates the electronic manufacturing services business previously owned by Kimball International, Inc. The Spin-Off was completed through the distribution to Kimball International, Inc.’s Share Owners of all the shares of common stock of the Company. In the distribution, Kimball International, Inc. distributed to its Share Owners three shares of the Company for every four shares of Kimball International, Inc.’s Class A or Class B common stock outstanding as of 5:00 p.m. New York time on October 22, 2014 (the “Record Date”).

On October 31, 2014, in connection with the implementation of the Spin-Off, the Company entered into certain agreements with Kimball International, Inc. to (i) effect its legal and structural separation; (ii) govern the relationship between the Company and Kimball International, Inc. up to and after completion of the Spin-Off; and (iii) allocate between the Company and Kimball International, Inc. various assets, liabilities and obligations, including, among other things, employee benefits, intellectual property, and tax-related assets and liabilities. The agreements entered into include:

• Separation and Distribution Agreement;

• Tax Matters Agreement;

• Employee Matters Agreement; and

• Transition Services Agreement.

Separation and Distribution Agreement

The Company entered into a separation and distribution agreement with Kimball International, Inc. (the “Separation and Distribution Agreement”) pursuant to which the Company and Kimball International, Inc. will legally and structurally separate.

The Separation and Distribution Agreement, among other things, (i) provides for the transfer of assets and assumption of liabilities that are necessary to ensure that the Company retains the assets of, and the liabilities associated with, the electronic manufacturing services business and Kimball International, Inc. retains the assets of, and the liabilities associated with, the furniture business; (ii) governs the rights and obligations of the parties regarding the distribution; (iii) provides that following the Spin-Off the Company is responsible for obtaining and maintaining its own insurance coverage; and (iv) governs other matters, including, but not limited to, access and provision of records, intellectual property, confidentiality, treatment of outstanding guarantees and similar credit support, and dispute resolution procedures.

Tax Matters Agreement

The Company entered into a tax matters agreement with Kimball International, Inc. that will govern the Company’s and Kimball International, Inc.’s rights, responsibilities, and obligations after the Spin-Off with respect to tax liabilities and benefits, tax attributes, tax contests, and other tax matters regarding income taxes, other taxes, and related tax returns. The Company, as a former subsidiary of Kimball International, Inc., has, and will continue to have following the Spin-Off, joint and several liabilities with Kimball International, Inc. with the Internal Revenue Service and certain U.S. state tax authorities for U.S. federal income and state taxes for the taxable periods in which the Company was a part of Kimball International, Inc.’s consolidated group. The tax matters agreement specifies the portion of this liability for which the Company bears responsibility, and Kimball International, Inc. has agreed to indemnify the Company against any amounts for which the Company is not responsible.

Employee Matters Agreement

The Company entered into an employee matters agreement with Kimball International, Inc., which provides (i) that generally, each of Kimball International, Inc. and the Company has responsibility for its own employees and compensation plans, subject to certain exceptions; (ii) that following the Spin-Off, the Company's employees will generally participate in various retirement, welfare, and other employee benefit and compensation plans established and maintained by the Company; (iii) for the treatment of the Company's outstanding equity awards in connection with the Spin-Off; (iv) for the assumption of certain employment related contracts that the Company's employees originally entered into with Kimball International, Inc.; and (v) for the allocation of certain employee liabilities and the cooperation between the Company and Kimball International, Inc. in sharing employee information.

Transition Services Agreement

The Company entered into a transition services agreement with Kimball International, Inc. pursuant to which the Company and Kimball International, Inc. will provide each other specified services on a transitional basis to help ensure an orderly transition following the Spin-Off. These services include information technology, financial, telecommunications, benefits support services, and other specified services. The services will be provided at cost, and are planned to extend for a period of six to eighteen months in most circumstances.

The foregoing descriptions of these agreements are summaries of the material terms of these agreements; for complete text of these agreements, please see the agreements filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibits 2.1, 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3, each of which is incorporated herein by reference.

Credit Agreement

In connection with the Spin-off, the Company (for purposes of this description, the "Borrower") entered into a credit agreement dated as of October 31, 2014 and related collateral and guarantee documentation (collectively, the "Credit Agreement") with JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, as administrative agent (for purposes of this description, the "Administrative Agent"), and other lenders party hereto. The Credit Agreement has a maturity date of October 31, 2019 and allows for up to $50 million in borrowings, with an option to increase the amount available for borrowing to $75 million at the Company's request, subject to participating banks' consent.

The revolving credit loans under the Credit Agreement may consist of, at the Company's election, advances in U.S. dollars or advances in any other currency that is agreed to by the lenders. The proceeds of the revolving credit loans are to be used for general corporate purposes of the Company including acquisitions. A portion of the credit facility, not to exceed $15 million of the principal amount, will be available for the issuance of letters of credit. A commitment fee on the unused portion of principal amount of the credit facility is payable at a rate that ranges from 20.0 to 25.0 basis points per annum as determined by the Company's ratio of consolidated total indebtedness to adjusted consolidated EBITDA.

The interest rate on borrowings is dependent on the type of borrowings and will be one of the following two options: the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") in effect two business days prior to the advance (adjusted upwards to reflect bank reserve costs) for such interest period as defined in the agreement, plus the Eurocurrency Loans margin which can range from 125.0 to 175.0 basis points based on the Company's ratio of consolidated total indebtedness to adjusted consolidated EBITDA; or the Alternate Base Rate, which is defined as the highest of the fluctuating rate per annum equal to the higher of

- a. JPMorgan's prime rate;

- b. 1% per annum above the Adjusted LIBO rate (as defined in the Credit Agreement); or

c. 1/2% per annum above the Federal funds rate;

plus the ABR Loans spread which can range from 25.0 to 75.0 basis points based on the Company's ratio of consolidated total indebtedness to adjusted consolidated EBITDA.

The Company's financial covenants under the Credit Agreement require:

a ratio of consolidated total indebtedness minus unencumbered U.S. cash on hand in the U.S. in excess of $15 million to adjusted consolidated EBITDA, determined as of the end of each of its fiscal quarters for the then most recently ended four fiscal quarters, to not be greater than 3.0 to 1.0, and a fixed charge coverage ratio, determined as of the end of each of its fiscal quarters for the then most recently ended four fiscal quarters, to not be less than 1.10 to 1.00.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement is only a summary of the Credit Agreement. For the complete text of the Credit Agreement, please see the agreement filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.4, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Charron and John H. Kahle (the "Executives") on October 31, 2014, for the assignment of the employment agreements (collectively, the "Assigned Employment Agreements") previously entered into between Kimball International, Inc. and each Executive, which are in substantially the same form. and the fair market value of restricted stock, deferred share units, performance shares, and performance units, all of which will become fully vested; and

vi. payment of all SERP benefit amounts, which will become fully vested.

In addition, the Assigned Employment Agreements impose non-competition and non-solicitation obligations on the Executives during the term of their employment and for a period of 12 months following termination of employment for any reason.
