Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 26, 2018, Harris Corporation (“Harris”) established a new $1 billion five-year senior unsecured revolving credit facility (the “New Credit Facility”) by entering into a Revolving Credit Agreement (the “New Credit Agreement”) with lenders party thereto; JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, as an issuing bank for letters of credit and as swingline lender; Citibank, N.A., Bank of America, N.A., Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., U.S. Bank National Association, HSBC Bank USA, National Association, and The Bank of Nova Scotia, as co-syndication agents; and JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Citibank, N.A., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, Morgan Stanley Senior Funding, Inc., U.S. Bank National Association, HSBC Securities (USA) Inc., and The Bank of Nova Scotia, as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners.

The New Credit Facility replaces Harris’ prior $1 billion five-year senior unsecured revolving credit facility established under the Revolving Credit Agreement, dated as of July 1, 2015 (the “2015 Credit Agreement”). Harris had entered into the 2015 Credit Agreement with (i) a syndicate of lenders from time to time parties thereto; (ii) SunTrust Bank, as administrative agent, as an issuing bank for letters of credit and as swingline lender; (iii) Bank of America, N.A., The Bank of Nova Scotia, Citibank, N.A., HSBC Bank USA, National Association, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as co-syndication agents; and (iv) SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc., The Bank of Nova Scotia, Citigroup Global Markets Inc., HSBC Securities (USA) Inc., J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated, and Wells Fargo Securities, LLC, as joint lead arrangers and joint book managers. The 2015 Credit Agreement was terminated concurrently with the effectiveness of, and as a condition of entering into, the New Credit Agreement. No loans or letters of credit under the 2015 Credit Agreement were outstanding at the time of, or were repaid in connection with, such termination. The 2015 Credit Agreement was scheduled to terminate on July 1, 2020, and Harris incurred no early termination penalties as a result of such termination.

The New Credit Agreement provides for the extension of credit to Harris in the form of revolving loans, swingline loans and letters of credit, at any time and from time to time during the term of the New Credit Agreement, in an aggregate principal amount at any time outstanding not to exceed $1 billion, with a sub-limit of $70 million for swingline loans and a sub-limit of $175 million for letters of credit. Borrowings under the New Credit Agreement may be denominated in U.S. Dollars, Euros, Sterling and any other currency (x) that is a lawful currency (other than U.S. Dollars) that is readily available and freely transferable and convertible into U.S. Dollars, (y) for which a LIBOR Screen Rate (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) is available in the administrative agent’s determination and (z) that is agreed to by the administrative agent and each of the lenders, with a non-U.S. currency sub-limit of $200 million. The New Credit Agreement includes a provision pursuant to which, from time to time, Harris may request that the lenders in their discretion increase the maximum amount of commitments under the New Credit Agreement by an amount not to exceed $500 million. Only consenting lenders (including new lenders reasonably acceptable to the administrative agent) will participate in any increase. In no event will the maximum amount of credit extensions available under the New Credit Agreement exceed $1.5 billion.

The proceeds of loans or letters of credit borrowings under the New Credit Agreement are restricted from being used for hostile acquisitions (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) or for any purpose in contravention of applicable laws. Harris is not otherwise restricted under the New Credit Agreement from using the proceeds of loans or letters of credit borrowings under the New Credit Agreement for working capital and other general corporate purposes or from using the New Credit Facility to refinance existing debt and to repay maturing commercial paper issued by Harris from time to time. Subject to certain conditions stated in the New Credit Agreement (including the absence of any default and the accuracy of certain representations and warranties), Harris may borrow, prepay and re-borrow amounts under the New Credit Agreement at any time during the term of the New Credit Agreement.

The New Credit Agreement provides that Harris may designate wholly-owned subsidiaries organized in the United States, Canada or the United Kingdom (or such other jurisdictions as all lenders shall approve) as borrowers under the New Credit Agreement. The obligations of any such subsidiary borrower shall be guaranteed by Harris.

The New Credit Agreement provides that Harris may from time to time designate certain of its subsidiaries as unrestricted subsidiaries. At June 26, 2018, no subsidiaries of Harris were unrestricted subsidiaries under the New Credit Agreement.

At Harris' election, borrowings under the New Credit Agreement denominated in U.S. Dollars will bear interest either at (i) the eurocurrency rate for the applicable interest period plus an applicable margin, or (ii) the base rate plus an applicable margin.

The eurocurrency rate for an interest period is the rate per annum equal to (a) the London interbank offered rate ("LIBOR") for such interest period, divided by (b) a percentage equal to 1.00 minus the daily average eurocurrency reserve rate for such interest period. The applicable interest rate margin over the eurocurrency rate is initially equal to 1.500%, but may increase (to a maximum amount of 2.000%) or decrease (to a minimum amount of 1.125%) based on changes in the ratings of Harris' senior unsecured long-term debt securities ("Senior Debt Ratings").

The base rate for any day is a rate per annum equal to the greatest of (i) the prime rate in effect on such day, (ii) the NYFRB Rate in effect on such day plus 0.500% (the NYFRB Rate is defined in the New Credit Agreement as the greater of (a) the federal funds rate and (b) the rate comprised of both overnight federal funds and overnight Eurodollar borrowings by U.S.-managed banking offices of depository institutions, as such composite rate shall be determined by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as set forth on its public website from time to time, and published on the next succeeding business day by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as an overnight bank funding rate); and (iii) the eurocurrency rate for a one month interest period on such day plus 1.000%, provided that the eurocurrency rate for any day shall be based on the LIBOR Screen Rate (or if the LIBOR Screen Rate is not available for such one month interest period, the Interpolated Rate (as defined in the new Credit Agreement)) at approximately 11:00 a.m. London time on such day. The applicable interest rate margin over the base rate is initially equal to 0.500%, but may increase (to a maximum amount of 1.000%) or decrease (to a minimum amount of 0.125%) based on changes in Harris' Senior Debt Ratings.

Borrowings under the New Credit Agreement denominated in a currency other than U.S. Dollars will bear interest at the eurocurrency rate for the applicable interest period plus an applicable margin, as described above, plus, in some cases, additional costs. Letter of credit fees also are determined based on Harris' Senior Debt Ratings.

In addition to interest payable on the principal amount of indebtedness outstanding from time to time under the New Credit Agreement and letter of credit fees, Harris is required to pay a quarterly unused commitment fee, which shall accrue at an applicable rate per annum multiplied by the actual daily amount of the lenders' aggregate unused commitments under the New Credit Agreement. The applicable rate per annum for the unused commitment fee is initially equal to 0.200%, but may increase (to a maximum amount of 0.300%) or decrease (to a minimum amount of 0.125%) based on changes in Harris' Senior Debt Ratings.

The New Credit Agreement contains certain representations and warranties of Harris for the benefit of the administrative agent and the lenders, including but not limited to representations relating to: due incorporation and good standing; due authorization of the New Credit Agreement documentation; absence of any requirement for governmental or third party authorization for the due execution, delivery and performance of the New Credit Agreement documentation; enforceability of the New Credit Agreement documentation; accuracy of financial statements; no material adverse effect since June 30, 2017; absence of material undisclosed litigation on June 26, 2018; compliance with ERISA and environmental, anti-money laundering, sanctions, anti-corruption and certain other laws; payment of taxes; and solvency.

The New Credit Agreement contains certain affirmative covenants, including but not limited to covenants relating to: reporting obligations; maintenance of corporate existence and good standing; compliance with laws; maintenance of properties and insurance; payment of taxes; compliance with ERISA and environmental, anti-money laundering, sanctions, export controls, anti-corruption and certain other laws; and visitation and inspection by the administrative agent and the lenders. The New Credit Agreement also contains certain negative covenants, including but not limited to covenants: limiting certain liens on assets; limiting certain mergers, consolidations or sales of assets; limiting certain sale and leaseback transactions; limiting certain vendor financing investments; and limiting certain investments in unrestricted subsidiaries. The New Credit Agreement also requires that Harris not permit its ratio of consolidated total indebtedness to total capital, each as defined in the New Credit Agreement, to be greater than 0.65:1.00.

The New Credit Agreement contains certain events of default, including: failure to make payments under the New Credit Agreement; failure to perform or observe terms, covenants or agreements contained in the New Credit Agreement; material inaccuracy of any representation or warranty under the New Credit Agreement; payment default by Harris or certain of its subsidiaries under other indebtedness with a principal amount in excess of $100 million or acceleration of or ability to accelerate such other indebtedness; occurrence of one or more final judgments or orders for the payment by Harris or certain of its subsidiaries of money in excess of $100 million that remain unsatisfied; incurrence by Harris or certain of its subsidiaries of certain ERISA liability in excess of $100 million; any bankruptcy or insolvency of Harris or any material subsidiary; invalidity of New Credit Agreement documentation; or a Change of Control (as defined in the New Credit Agreement) of Harris. If an event of default occurs, then the lenders may, among other things, terminate their commitments and declare all outstanding borrowings to be immediately due and payable together with accrued interest and fees.

All principal amounts borrowed or outstanding under the New Credit Agreement are due on June 26, 2023, unless (i) the commitments are terminated earlier either at the request of Harris or if certain events of default described in the New Credit Agreement occur or (ii) the maturity date is extended pursuant to provisions allowing Harris, from time to time after June 26, 2019, but at least 45 days prior to the scheduled maturity date then in effect, to request that the scheduled maturity date then in effect be extended by one calendar year (with no more than one such extension permitted in any calendar year and no more than two such extensions during the term of the New Credit Agreement), subject to approval by lenders holding a majority of the commitments under the New Credit Agreement and satisfaction of certain conditions stated in the New Credit Agreement (including the absence of any default and the accuracy of certain representations and warranties); provided, however, that all revolving loans of those lenders declining to participate in the requested extension and whose commitments under the New Credit Agreement have not been replaced pursuant to customary replacement rights in favor of Harris shall remain due and payable in full, and all commitments under the New Credit Agreement of such declining lenders shall terminate, on the maturity date in effect prior to the requested extension. At June 26, 2018, no borrowings were outstanding under the New Credit Agreement.
