ITEM 8.01 - Other Events

The Eberhard Manufacturing Division of The Eastern Company recently received a purchase order and notification of an additional order from Armor Holdings, Inc. for a total of 25,700 door latching system components to be used in a project to retro-fit military Humvees. These systems will retro-fit 6,425 Humvees as part of the military's up-armor program in order to provide additional troop protection. These purchase orders will result in approximately $15.5 million in sales for the Eberhard Division between September and December 2006.
