Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, in June 2015, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“U.S. Customs”) sent DynaEnergetics U.S. Inc., a subsidiary of Dynamic Materials Corporation (the “Company”) a Notice of Action that proposed to classify certain of its imports as subject to anti-dumping and countervailing duties pursuant to a 2010 anti-dumping duty (“AD”) order on Oil Country Tubular Goods (“OCTG”) from China and the companion countervailing duty (“CVD”) order on the same product . The Notice of Action covered one entry of certain steel mechanical tubing made in China and imported into the U.S. from Canada by the Company's DynaEnergetics segment during 2015 for use in manufacturing perforating guns.

In July 2015, the Company sent a response to U.S. Customs outlining the reasons the Company’s mechanical tubing imports do not fall within the scope of the AD/CVD orders and should not be subject to AD/CVD duties. In August 2015, U.S. Customs declined to conclude on the Company's assertion that the mechanical tubing the Company had imported is not within the scope of the AD/CVD orders. As a result of this action, on September 25, 2015, the Company filed a request for a scope ruling with the U.S. Department of Commerce ("Commerce Department").

On February 15, 2016, the Company received the Commerce Department’s scope ruling, which determined certain imports, primarily used for gun carrier tubing, are included in the scope of the AD/CVD orders on OCTG from China and thus is subject to anti-dumping and countervailing duties.

The Company plans to appeal the Commerce Department’s ruling. In its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015 the Company expects to record a $6.5 to $7.5 million reserve for AD/CVD duties and interest that the Company expects to pay if it is unsuccessful in its appeal. The Company will incur legal defense costs and could also be subject to additional interest and penalties that will not be reflected in its financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015 as they are neither probable nor estimable at this time.
