Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Effective September 14, 2015, the Board of Directors of Farmer Bros. Co., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), determined that, in light of the Company’s failure to meet certain threshold financial performance measures established for the achievement of fiscal 2015 bonus awards under the Company’s incentive compensation plans, including the Farmer Bros. Co. 2005 Incentive Compensation Plan (the “Incentive Plan”), no awards were earned or will be paid to any executive officer or other employee under such plans with respect to fiscal 2015 performance. The Board of Directors awarded to all employees eligible to receive a bonus under such plans, including executive officers, a one-time discretionary cash bonus equal to 25% of each such employee’s fiscal 2015 target bonus, prorated for those employees who joined the Company in fiscal 2015 based on start date. This one-time discretionary bonus was awarded in recognition of the contribution and work of Company employees generally toward the execution of the previously-announced corporate relocation plan.
