Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 23, 2004, Paul S. Otellini, President and Chief Operating Officer of Intel Corporation ("Intel"), adopted pre-arranged stock trading plans intended to satisfy Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended ("Exchange Act"). These plans relate to the sale of stock that may be purchased upon the exercise of Intel stock options that were previously granted in April 1995 and April 1996, which expire in April 2005 and April 2006, respectively.

Mr. Otellini entered into two separate 10b5-1 trading plans. Pursuant to the first plan, a brokerage firm may exercise Mr. Otellini's stock options that were granted in April 1995, to the extent not previously exercised, and then sell up to 256,000 shares of Intel stock in March 2005. Pursuant to the second plan, a brokerage firm may exercise Mr. Otellini's stock options that were granted in April 1996, to the extent not previously exercised, and then sell up to 192,000 shares of Intel stock in March 2006.

The plans will be implemented through the brokerage firm of UBS Financial Services, Inc. The transactions under the plans will only be executed if the market price of Intel stock exceeds the exercise price of the stock options (including commissions). The transactions will be disclosed publicly through Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Under Rule 10b5-1, corporate insiders may adopt a prearranged plan or contract for the sale of company securities under specified conditions and times. Using these plans, individuals can prudently manage and diversify their investment portfolios.

This information shall not be deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Exchange Act, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any disclosure document of Intel, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such document.
