To Our Ameriana Associates,

Today, we announced that Ameriana Bancorp has executed a definitive agreement to merge with and into First Merchants Corporation. The partnership of our two well-respected companies provides an excellent opportunity to capitalize on our shared synergies and vision of customer service excellence, increase our presence in Indiana and our ability to meet our customers and communities' growing needs.

First Merchants is a natural partner for us because they understand our local market, offer a broad range of capabilities and financial delivery systems to meet customers' growing needs, and share an unwavering service commitment to customers, associates, and communities. Following the merger, our combined companies will have over 120 banking locations throughout 27 Indiana counties, as well as two counties in both Illinois and Ohio. First Merchants' strong capital strength will also allow for larger credits, spurring additional economic and community development opportunities, all while preserving a community bank approach for which Ameriana's customers value.

First Merchants is excited to partner with Ameriana to further our organization's long-standing traditions. We recognize this might be a time of uncertainty, which is why we want you to know that First Merchants remains committed to building on our remarkable history in our communities.

Many of your questions cannot be answered until the transaction is approved and the process is defined. In the coming months, the Ameriana/First Merchants integration teams will keep you updated as more details are available.

Until the merger is completed, there will be no impact for Ameriana customers. A top priority of the merger integration team is communicating with Ameriana customers and front-line associates of any changes that will impact customers. Please let our customers know that they will continue to conduct business as they would normally do today.

I personally want thank each of you for your hard work in building strong relationships with your customers, serving your fellow associates, investing your time and energy in your communities and building value in our organization. I encourage you to continue focusing on what you do best - serving each other and your customers.

Sincerely,
/s/ Jerome J. Gassen

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document and the exhibits hereto contain forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe-harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements can often, but not always, be identified by the use of words like “believe”, “continue”, “pattern”, “estimate”, “project”, “intend”, “anticipate”, “expect” and similar expressions or future or conditional verbs such as “will”, “would”, “should”, “could”, “might”, “may”, or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements relating to the expected timing and benefits of the proposed merger (the “Merger”) of Ameriana Bancorp, an Indiana corporation (“Ameriana Bancorp”) with and into First Merchants Corporation, an Indiana corporation (“First Merchants”), including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhanced revenues, and accretion/dilution to reported earnings that may be realized from the Merger, as well as other statements of expectations regarding the Merger, and other statements of First Merchants’ goals, intentions and expectations; statements regarding First Merchants’ business plan and growth strategies; statements regarding the asset quality of First Merchants’ loan and investment portfolios; and estimates of First Merchants’ risks and future costs and benefits, whether with respect to the Merger or otherwise. These forward-looking statements are subject to significant risks, assumptions and uncertainties that may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in forward-looking statements, including, among other things: the risk that the businesses of First Merchants and Ameriana Bancorp will not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; expected revenue synergies and cost savings from the Merger may not be fully realized or realized within the expected time frame; revenues following the Merger may be lower than expected; customer and employee relationships and business operations may be disrupted by the Merger; the ability to obtain required regulatory and shareholder approvals, and the ability to complete the Merger on the expected timeframe; possible changes in economic and business conditions; the existence or exacerbation of general geopolitical instability and uncertainty; the ability of First Merchants to integrate recent acquisitions and attract new customers; possible changes in monetary and fiscal policies, and laws and regulations; the effects of easing restrictions on participants in the financial services industry; the cost and other effects of legal and administrative cases; possible changes in the creditworthiness of customers and the possible impairment of collectability of loans; fluctuations in market rates of interest; competitive factors in the banking industry; changes in the banking legislation or regulatory requirements of federal and state agencies applicable to bank holding companies and banks like First Merchants’ affiliate bank; continued availability of earnings and excess capital sufficient for the lawful and prudent declaration of dividends; changes in market, economic, operational, liquidity, credit and interest rate risks associated with First Merchants’ business; and other risks and factors identified in First Merchants’ filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”).

First Merchants does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, relating to the matters discussed in this filing. In addition, First Merchants’ and Ameriana Bancorp’s past results of operations do not necessarily indicate either of their anticipated future results, whether the Merger is effectuated or not.
