Item 8.01 Other Events.

On December 7, 2007, Community Bancorp. (the “Company”) issued a joint press release with LyndonBank, Lyndonville, Vermont and National Bank of Middlebury, Middlebury, Vermont (“Middlebury”) announcing that the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, Community National Bank (“Community National”) and Middlebury have entered into a definitive Purchase and Assumption Agreement for the sale to Middlebury of the Vergennes branch of LyndonBank. The parties had signed a letter of intent in October regarding the proposed branch sale. The parties expect that the branch sale will close immediately following completion of Community National’s previously announced merger with LyndonBank, on or about December 31, 2007.

Under the Purchase and Assumption Agreement, it is contemplated that Middlebury will assume all of the deposits booked at LyndonBank’s Vergennes branch and will purchase certain branch loans and fixed assets, including the real estate. The Agreement also contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and conditions to closing. As of October 22, 2007, there were approximately $9.7 million in deposits booked at the branch.

Completion of the branch sale is conditioned on completion of the Community National–LyndonBank merger, and receipt of approval by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency. The Community-LyndonBank merger has already received the required shareholder and regulatory approvals, including antitrust clearance from the U.S. Department of Justice.

The joint press release is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

Additional information about the proposed merger of Community National and LyndonBank is contained in the Company’s current report on Form 8-K filed with the Commission on August 2, 2007.
