Standing committees of the Board include an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and, as of March 29, 2004, a Nominating Committee. During 2003, Messrs. Furman, Gordon and Woods served as the members of the Audit and Compensation Committees. Each of these individuals were also appointed to Zoom's Nominating Committee when the Nominating Committee was formed in March 2004. The Board of Directors has reviewed the qualifications of each of these individuals and has determined that each individual is "independent" as such term is defined under the current listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market.

Audit Committee. Messrs. Furman, Gordon and Woods are currently the members of the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has reviewed the qualifications of each member of the Audit Committee and has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is "independent" under the current listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market applicable to Audit Committee members. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Woods qualifies as an "audit committee financial expert", as defined by applicable SEC rules.

The Board of Directors recently adopted amendments to the written charter of the Audit Committee (the "Audit Committee Charter") to conform to the recently promulgated SEC and Nasdaq rules. A copy of the Audit Committee Charter is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement and is publicly available on Zoom's website at WWW.ZOOM.COM. Under the provisions of the Audit Committee Charter, the primary functions of the Audit Committee are to assist the Board of Directors with the oversight of (i) Zoom's financial reporting process, accounting functions and internal controls and (ii) the qualifications, independence, appointment, retention, compensation and performance of Zoom's registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee is also responsible for the establishment of "whistle-blowing" procedures, and the oversight of certain other compliance matters. The Audit Committee held six (6) meetings during 2003. See "Audit Committee Report" below.

Compensation Committee. Messrs. Furman, Gordon and Woods are currently the members of Zoom's Compensation Committee. The primary functions of the Compensation Committee include (i) reviewing and approving Zoom's executive compensation, (ii) reviewing the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer regarding the compensation of senior officers, (iii) evaluating the performance of the Chief Executive Officer, and (iv) overseeing the administration of, and the approval of grants of stock options and other equity awarded under Zoom's stock option plans. A copy of the Compensation Committee's written charter is publicly available on Zoom's website at WWW.ZOOM.COM. The Compensation Committee held one (1) meeting during 2003.

Nominating Committee. Messrs. Furman, Gordon and Woods are currently the members of Zoom's Nominating Committee. The primary functions of the Nominating Committee are to (i) identify, review and evaluate candidates to serve as directors of Zoom, (ii) serve as a focal point for communication between such candidates, the Board of Directors and Zoom's management, and (iii) make recommendations to the Board of candidates for all directorships to be filled by the stockholders or the Board.

The Nominating Committee may consider candidates recommended by stockholders as well as from other sources such as other directors or officers, third party search firms or other appropriate sources. For all potential candidates, the Nominating Committee may consider all factors it deems relevant, such as a candidate's personal integrity and sound judgment, business and professional skills and experience, independence, possible conflicts of interest, diversity, the extent to which the candidate would fill a present need on the Board, and concern for the long-term interests of the stockholders. In general, persons recommended by stockholders will be considered on the same basis as candidates from other sources. If a stockholder wishes to recommend a candidate for director for election at the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, it must follow the procedures described in "Deadline for Receipt of Stockholder Proposals and Recommendations for Director."

A copy of the Nominating Committee's written charter is publicly available on Zoom's website at WWW.ZOOM.COM. The Nominating Committee, which was formed in March 2004, has met once since its formation.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with management Zoom's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2003. The Audit Committee has also discussed with KPMG LLP, Zoom's independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by the Auditing Standards Board Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communications with Audit Committees), as amended. As required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, as amended, "Independence Discussion with Audit Committees," the Audit Committee has received and reviewed the required written disclosures and a confirming letter from KPMG LLP regarding their independence, and has discussed the matter with KPMG.

Based on its review and discussions of the foregoing, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that Zoom's audited consolidated financial statements for 2003 be included in Zoom's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2003.

Each non-employee director of Zoom is also granted stock options under Zoom's 1991 Directors Stock Option Plan, as amended (the "Directors Plan"). Currently, the non-employee directors of Zoom are Bernard Furman, L. Lamont Gordon and J. Ronald Woods.

The Directors Plan provides in the aggregate that 450,000 shares of Common Stock (subject to adjustment for capital changes) may be issued upon the exercise of options granted under the Directors Plan. Options to purchase Zoom's Common Stock have been granted to executive officers and other employees of Zoom under Zoom's 1990 Stock Option Plan, as amended (the "1990 Plan"). Options to purchase Zoom's Common Stock may also be granted to employees who are neither officers nor directors of Zoom under Zoom's 1998 Employee Equity Incentive Plan (the "1998 Plan"). The 1990 Plan and the 1998 Plan are each administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. In addition, from time to time, the Board of Directors has authorized Mr. Manning to award a limited number of options under the 1998 Plan throughout the year.

Insider Participation in Compensation Decisions

Decisions regarding executive compensation are made by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee, consisting of Messrs. Furman, Gordon and Woods, is also responsible for administering the 1990 Plan, including determining the individuals to whom stock options are awarded, the terms upon which option grants are made, and the number of shares subject to each option granted under the 1990 Plan. No member of the Compensation Committee is a former or current officer or employee of Zoom. Mr. Manning and Mr. Kramer, who are executive officers and directors of Zoom, made recommendations to the Compensation Committee regarding the granting of stock options and participated in deliberations of the Compensation Committee concerning executive officer compensation. Neither Mr. Manning nor Mr. Kramer participated in any vote establishing their compensation.

Edgar Filing: ZOOM TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation

The primary objectives of the Compensation Committee in developing executive compensation policies are to enhance the performance of Zoom by closely aligning the financial interests of Zoom's executive officers with those of its stockholders and to attract and retain key executives important to the long-term success of Zoom. To effect these objectives, Zoom pays its executive officers what the Compensation Committee believes to be relatively low cash compensation while providing those officers with significant performance-based long-term incentive compensation and the opportunity to build a substantial ownership interest in Zoom through the granting of stock options. None of Zoom's executive officers received a bonus for 2003. Any future bonuses will be determined by the Compensation Committee, based on their subjective determination and the future performance of Zoom.

Frank B. Manning, Zoom's Chief Executive Officer, received cash compensation for the year ending December 31, 2003, in the amount of $129,272. The Compensation Committee has not conducted any surveys of salaries of executive officers, but based upon its experience believes that the cash compensation of its executive officers, including the compensation received by Mr. Manning, is low compared to the cash compensation of comparable executive officers in similarly situated companies. The low level of compensation of Mr. Manning reflects Mr. Manning's request to limit his cash compensation in favor of stock options.

During 2003, Mr. Manning was granted options to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.95 per share. Other executive officers as a group were granted options to purchase 210,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $1.95 per share. In determining the number of options to be granted to the executive officers, the Compensation Committee reviews recommendations provided by Mr. Manning, and makes a subjective determination regarding that recommendation based upon the following criteria: (i) the level of cash compensation; (ii) the compensation paid by companies that might compete with Zoom for the employee's services; (iii) the individual performance of the executive officer; and (iv) the number of shares subject to options already held by each executive officer. No particular weight is given to any of these factors, rather each executive officer's total compensation package is reviewed as a whole, and recommendations from the Chief Executive Officer are given deference absent countervailing concerns.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

During 2001, Zoom entered into an agreement to purchase the ground lease for a manufacturing facility located on Drydock Avenue in Boston, Massachusetts (the "Drydock Building"). In connection with the proposed purchase of the Drydock Building, Zoom paid $513,500 to be held in escrow as a deposit pending the closing of the transaction. Of this deposit, $25,000 was nonrefundable. When Zoom was unable to obtain a commitment for financing on terms consistent with the purchase agreement, it terminated the purchase and sale agreement, but the Seller retained the deposit pending resolution of a dispute over Zoom's right to terminate. While Zoom believed that it was entitled to a return of the $488,500 refundable portion of the deposit plus interest, the funds were retained by the escrow agent.

As an alternative to pursuing legal remedies to obtain a return of the deposit, Zoom pursued an arrangement to reinstate the Drydock purchase agreement in partnership with the following individuals: Frank B. Manning, President and a director of Zoom; Peter R. Kramer, Executive Vice President and a director of Zoom; Bruce M. Kramer, Peter Kramer's brother; and a third party. Under this arrangement, these individuals, either directly or through entities controlled by them, joined together with Zoom as of March 29, 2002 to form the Zoom Group LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Zoom Group") to purchase the leasehold interest in the Drydock ground lease. Zoom and each of the investors owned a 20% interest in the Zoom Group. The managers of the Zoom Group were Peter Kramer and the third party. There were no special allocations among the members of the Zoom Group, and each member was required to contribute a proportionate amount of capital in return for its 20% interest.

Effective as of March 29, 2002, Zoom entered into an Assignment Agreement with the Zoom Group and also entered into a Reinstatement Agreement and Second Amendment to Agreement of Purchase and Sale with the holder of the Dry Dock ground lease. Under the Assignment Agreement, Zoom assigned its rights under the purchase agreement to the Zoom Group, together with rights to the $488,500 refundable portion of the deposit. In connection with this transaction, under a separate letter agreement, the other members of the Zoom Group paid Zoom $390,800 ($97,700 each), representing their proportionate share of the deposit assigned to the Zoom Group. As a result, Zoom's remaining interest in the deposit was $97,700. As part of the Reinstatement Agreement and Second Amendment, the members of Zoom Group agreed that an additional $25,000 of the $488,500 deposit would be nonrefundable, $5,000 of which was allocated to each investor.

In August, 2002 the Zoom Group purchased the Drydock Building for a purchase price of $6.1 million. The Zoom Group obtained a mortgage of $4.2 million, less closing costs and legal fees. Each member of the Zoom Group contributed approximately $482,500 for their share of the purchase price plus working capital reserve. These initial capital contributions included each member's share of the deposit, which was credited at closing.

Under the Zoom Group Operating Agreement, Zoom had both the right to sell its interest in the Zoom Group to the other members of the Zoom Group by January

Edgar Filing: ZOOM TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form DEF 14A

5, 2003, and the right to purchase the other members' entire interests in the Zoom Group through December 31, 2005, both in accordance with a predetermined formula. In December 2002 a special committee of Zoom's Board of Directors, appointed to review the Drydock transactions, determined that it was advisable and in the best interest of Zoom to exercise its right to sell its interest in the Zoom Group to the remaining Zoom Group LLC members. Accordingly, effective January 5, 2003, Zoom exercised its right to sell and assign its interest in the Zoom Group to the remaining members of the Zoom Group for approximately $482,000. In March 2003, Zoom received the proceeds from the sale of its interest from the remaining members of the Zoom Group.

The transactions described above between Zoom, the Zoom Group and members of the Zoom Group were reviewed and approved by a special committee of independent members of the Board of Directors of Zoom, who determined the transactions to be advisable and in the best interest of Zoom.
