TELMEX ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF NEW EMBRATEL OFFICERS

Mexico, City, June 22, 2004. Telefonos de Mexico, S.A. de C.V. (TELMEX) (BMV: TELMEX; NYSE: TMX; NASDAQ: TFONY; LATIBEX: XTMXL) announced today that due to Anatel's approval of TELMEX's acquisition of Embratel, Carlos Henrique Moreira was appointed President of the company and Jose Formoso Martinez as Chief Executive Officer. Both executives will continue working with the present Embratel management until the acquisition is concluded, when they will assume their new positions which is expected to be at the end of July.

Embratel is the main long distance operator in Brazil and also offers data and Internet services. Additionally, it has the largest telecommunications network in Latin America and the only domestic fiber optic network. In addition it controls a group of satellites with worldwide coverage. Its long distance connection code "21" is the leader in the Brazilian market. The acquisition of Embratel is part of TELMEX's strategy to become the leading telecommunications company in Latin America.

TELMEX is the leading telecommunications company in Mexico with 16.1 million telephone lines in service, 2.5 million line equivalents for data transmission and 1.5 million internet accounts. TELMEX offers telecommunications services through an almost 75 thousand kilometer fiber optic digital network. TELMEX and its subsidiaries offer a wide range of advanced telecommunications, data and video services, Internet access as well as integrated telecom solutions for corporate customers. Additionally, the company offers telecommunications services through its affiliates in Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Chile and Peru. More information about TELMEX can be accessed on the Internet at www.telmex.com.
