Checkers(R)/Rally's(R) Records Victories at Convention and Brickyard 400(R) Race - 500 franchisees, employees, and vendor partners attend the events

TAMPA, FL - August 11, 2004 - Checkers Drive-In Restaurants, Inc., (NASDAQ: CHKR) the nation's largest double drive-thru restaurant chain and Official Burger of NASCAR's(R) Brickyard 400(R), delivered top performance and excitement to its key stakeholders through the Company's national convention and race-day sponsorship, both held in Indianapolis, Indiana.

The convention, held from the evening of August 4, 2004 through Friday, August 6, included a vendor showcase and presentations focused on Checkers(R)/Rally's(R) operational, marketing and franchising successes and new opportunities. The convention concluded Friday night with an awards ceremony recognizing the Company's best franchisees.

"Our Checkers/Rally's 2004 convention was themed 'Brand on Fire,' and we really are just that," said Keith E. Sirois, President and Chief Executive Officer of Checkers Drive-In Restaurants, Inc. "We've got great food, award-winning advertising and employee incentive programs, exciting operational initiatives, and we're growing. We're doing all of this with the constant support and participation of our franchise community, and it was an honor to recognize our very best franchisees at the convention."

Top honors included the Franchisee of the Year award that went to two ownership groups: Matt Burkhardt of BMA Inc., and Fred Howard and Sterling Swartout of H & S Services.
Franchisee Andrew Lynn of Metro Burger, LLC, who owns and operates nine Checkers locations in New Jersey, received the President's Award for his outstanding contributions and commitment to the Company and his fellow franchisees.

Beginning Saturday, the nearly 500 convention guests participated in the Checkers/Rally's Brickyard 400 weekend, which included golf outings, pre-race track events and other entertainment. On Sunday, Checkers/Rally's guests joined the nearly 400,000 race fans at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, where they watched Mr. Sirois address the crowd immediately after the national anthem and just before the start of the race. The day also included hospitality, driver appearances and racing excitement.

The race featured Checkers/Rally's 2004 Brickyard 400 Sweepstakes winner, James Spencer, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, who won the honor of waving the green flag to start the race. This is believed to be the first time a consumer was granted this honor at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

"The City of Indianapolis provided an ideal venue for the Checkers/Rally's brand celebration. This year, the Company is remodeling 20 locations throughout the market and opening new locations, creating approximately 350 new jobs for the region," said Sirois. "Indianapolis is really a showcase of what our brand can do. We have award-winning employees at work in our restaurants, our stores are being re-imaged with a great new look, and we are fully active in the market through our advertising and our Indianapolis Motor Speedway sponsorships. Our work in Indianapolis represents initiatives going on throughout our markets across the country."
