Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (Delaware Law), the Registrant has broad powers to indemnify its directors and officers against liabilities they may incur in such capacities. Subsection (a) of Section 145 of the Delaware Law empowers a corporation to indemnify any present or former director or officer against liabilities and expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), provided that he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, provided that he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Subsection (b) of Section 145 of the Delaware Law empowers a corporation to indemnify any present or former director or officer against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of any action or suit brought against him or her by or in the right of the corporation, provided that he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no such indemnification may be made if he or she is adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless the court determines that, in view of all the circumstances, he or she is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses.

Section 145 of the Delaware Law further provides that (i) to the extent a director or officer of a corporation has been successful in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b), he or she must be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith; (ii) the corporation is empowered to advance indemnified expenses to a director or officer who undertakes to repay such advancement if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification; (iii) indemnification provided for by Section 145 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which the indemnified party may be entitled; and (iv) the corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of its directors or officers against any liabilities they may incur in such capacities, regardless of whether or not such liabilities are permitted to be indemnified under Section 145.

The Registrant's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that the Registrant's directors shall not be personally liable for monetary damages for breach of their fiduciary duties to the Registrant or its stockholders, except for liability for (i) breach of their duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its stockholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or knowing violations of law; (iii) unlawful payments of dividends, stock repurchases or redemptions as provided in Section 174 of the Delaware Law; or (iv) any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit.

The Registrant's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the Bylaws) provide that the Registrant shall indemnify its directors to the fullest extent permitted by Section 145 of the Delaware Law against liabilities and expenses referred to in Section 145 incurred in such person's capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Registrant or as a director, officer, employee or agent of any other company or enterprise to which the person provides services at the request of the Registrant. The Bylaws also require the Registrant to advance expenses, upon receipt by the Registrant of an undertaking by the director to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that the he or she is not entitled to indemnification, unless the director commenced the suit as a plaintiff and such advance is not specifically approved by a majority of the Registrant's Board of Directors, or the suit is brought against the director by the Registrant and approved by a majority of the Registrant's Board of Directors alleging willful misappropriation of corporate assets, disclosure of confidential information or any other willful breach of duty in bad faith. The Bylaws further provide that rights conferred under such Bylaws shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other right such indemnified persons may have under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise.

In addition, the Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and certain of its officers. These agreements provide the Registrant’s directors and certain of its officers with indemnification for certain liabilities and expenses reasonably incurred by such persons in any action or proceeding, including any action by or in the right of the Registrant, on account of services as a director or officer of the Registrant or as a director or officer of any other company or enterprise to which the person provides services at the request of the Registrant. The Registrant also maintains directors’ and officers’ liability insurance covering its directors and officers.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement; and provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
