GENESIS RESPONDS TO WITHDRAWAL OF NCS BOARD RECOMMENDATION

KENNETT SQUARE, PA -- (October 22, 2002) - In response to an announcement by NCS Healthcare that its board of directors had withdrawn its recommendation in favor of NCS' pending merger with Genesis, Genesis reiterated its confidence that the merger will be completed on a timely basis.

"We are aware and respectful of the continuing fiduciary responsibility of the NCS board to advise its shareholders. However, the announcement does not affect the Genesis/NCS merger agreement, which remains binding upon NCS, nor does it affect the related voting agreements which remain binding upon the holders of a majority of the voting power of NCS," stated Robert Fish, Interim CEO. "We continue to be enthusiastic about the value of the combination of our NeighborCare pharmacy business with NCS and are working closely with NCS toward closing the merger before year-end."

Genesis Health Ventures (NASDAQ: GHVI) provides healthcare services to America's elders through a network of NeighborCare pharmacies and Genesis ElderCare skilled nursing and assisted living facilities. Other Genesis healthcare services include rehabilitation and respiratory therapy, hospitality services, group purchasing, and diagnostics.
